WHAT-NOT

SHOPPING

I.
She went to the store
And bought a little sack;
The thing didn't suit,
And soon she took it back.

II.
The next one was blue;
She thought she wanted black;
She really thought she did,
And so she took it back.

III.
And so she took it back.

TIDE THAT LED TO FORTUNE.

"There is a tide in the affairs of men," said the man who quotes Shakespeare, "which, taken at its flood, leads on to fortune."
"Yes," replied the man who had married an heiress, "I remember the tide that led to my fortune well."
"What tide was that?"
"It was eventide, and we were sitting in the garden."

CAROLYN WELLS'S GIBES.

Circumstances alter kisses.
He loves best who loves last.
Make love while the moon shines.
A man is known by the love-letters he keeps.
Never put off till to-morrow what you can wear to-night.
A rolling gait gathers remorse.
One swallow does not make the world go round.

to-morrow we eye.
It's a long skirt that has no turning.
None but the brave go to a fair.
A little actress is a dangerous thing.
"Heaven lies about us in our infancy," and this world lies about us when we are grown up.

UP WITH THE SUN.

Binks—"I've been up with the sun every day this summer."
Jinks—"So have I, but after I've walked the floor with him for a while, I usually go back to sleep again."

NOT ON SPEAKING TERMS.

Stella—"Cholly and Mabel are not on speaking terms any more."
Bella—"Why, I thought they were engaged."
Stella—"So they are. They just sit for hours and hold each other's hands."

NOTHING TO WIND UP.

"You know Jones, who was reputed so rich? Well, he died the other day and the only thing he left was an old Dutch clock."
"Well, there's one good thing about it; it won't be much trouble to wind up his estate."

SKY-BORN MUSIC.

Let me go where'er I will
I hear a sky-born music still:
It sounds from all things old,
It sounds from all things young,
From all that's fair, from all that's foul,
Peals out a cheerful song.

It is not only in the bird,
Not only where the rainbow glows,
Nor in the song of woman heard,
It is not only in the rose,
But in the darkest, meanest things
There alway, alway something sings.

'Tis not in the high stars alone,
Nor in the cups of budding flowers,
Nor in the redbreast's mellow tone,
Nor in the bow that smiles in showers,
But in the mud and scum of things
There alway, alway something sings.
—Ralph Waldo Emerson.
