WHAT-NO?

THE HORSE? NO!

Man (in a hurry)—I'll give you five dollars to get me to the station in three minutes. Cabman (with provoking slowness)—Well, sorr, you might bribe me, but you can't bribe that horse.

THE MAN NEXT DOOR.

The late Mr. Spurgeon was once asked whether a member of a brass band could possibly be a Christian. The great divine pondered, and then said:—"Yes, I think so; but the man who lives next door to him, certainly not."

LIVES OF GREAT MEN.

This is how Johnny recited one stanza of it, to the delight of his proud mamma and amid the plaudits of the company:

"Liza Grape men allry mindus
Weaken maka 'Liza Blime,
Andy Parting Lee B. Hindus
Footbrin Johnny Sands a time."
And thus was another promising educationist turned loose on the world.

HAD NO FRIENDS.

"Would you lend $5 to a friend in distress?"
"I would in a minute," responded the wit, "but I haven't got—"
"Don't tell me that you haven't got it," interrupted the other. "I saw you change a $10 bill just now."
"You did not permit me to finish my sentence. What I started to say was that I haven't got a friend in the world."

THE LATEST.

A school teacher received the following note from the mother of one of her pupils:

"Dear Mis. You writ me about whipping Sammy. I hereby give you permission to beet him up eny time it is necessary to learn him lessons. He is just like his father—you have to learn him with a club. Pound nolege into him. I wante him to get it, and don't pay no atention to what his father says. I'll handle him."

Letter to Mr. L. M. Bergen
Highland Park, Illinois

Dear Sir: You understand chemistry; how'd you like to earn $1000?
Devoe lead-and-zinc—that's the name of our paint that takes fewer gillions than mixed paint and wears twice as long as lead and oil—is made of whitelead, white-zinc, its color turpentine dryer, and linseed oil.

If any chemist finds any adulteration in this paint we'll pay his bill and $1000 besides

Its nobody's business what we put in our paint, of course; but we want it known. For lead-and-zinc and linseed oil, ground together by machinery, are the stuff to paint with: and lead-and-oil mixed by hand is not.

We want it known that one word describes the best paint in the world; and that word is Devoe.

Are you going to paint?
Yours truly
