

What People Are Doing in Highland Park

Mrs. Catharine James and Winthrop visited Mrs. Georgiana James the past week.

Mr. J. J. Brand is remodeling his home on second street.

Mrs. H. P. Nelson has been confined to his home for several days.

Miss Olive Maechtle spent several days in Milwaukee the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Pfansiehl returned this week from their visit to Florida.

Mrs. H. Ebert, who has been ill for several weeks, is still confined to her house.

Mrs. Kenneth Cowen has been ill at the home of her mother, Mrs. A. P. Smith, for several days.

On Tuesday evening Mrs. W. E. Carr was hostess at a bridge-whist party at her home on Central avenue.

Miss Helen Whitney spent several days in Chicago the past week visiting her sister, Mrs. A. T. Swetman.

Mr. G. L. Stokes and family, who for the past year have lived on Central avenue, will move to Chicago this month.

Rev. G. D. Rogers will deliver his lecture, "To Europe in a Hand Satchel," at Ft. Sheridan on Tuesday evening March 14th.

Mr. E. W. Brown, formerly connected with the North Shore Electric Company, will open a restaurant on West Madison street in Chicago.

The Sparkling Spring Water Company has just purchased a lot of new cans to take care of increased business this year. See their adv. in another column.

This weather which suggests spring makes enthusiastic golfers very happy. Many are planning early games, and indeed a few have been practising on the links at this early date.

of Rev. Rogers on Sunday. They are members of a very flourishing young men's society in Pontiac, the former pastorate of Mr. Rogers.

The Womans' Missionary Society of the United Evangelical church met with Mrs. A. B. Fitzgerald of Evanston assisted in the afternoon's program by singing a solo most delightfully.

First Church of Christ Scientist, Highland Park, Illinois, services in Library Hall, Sunday service at 10:45 a. m. Lesson subject for March 12: "Matter." Testimonial meeting Wednesday evening, 8 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Walther enjoyed a pleasant surprise on Friday evening of last week when a large party of friends came to their new home on Green street to spend an evening of progressive euchre.

Miss Margaret Holden, who has been visiting in Highland Park the past month, returned to her home in Detroit on Friday, accompanied by Mrs. Harry Reina. Mrs. Reina will spend a week in Detroit.

On Thursday evening at the home of E. O. Grover occurred the monthly meeting of the teachers of the Presbyterian Sunday school. Rev. Mr. Stevens of Grays Lake, who is well known in Lake county as a most interesting speaker on Bible study, gave the Sunday school lessons for the next three Sundays, and a most profitable and interesting evening was spent by those attending.

Miss Polly Dixon of Englewood is visiting Mrs. James M. Grant.

Mrs. Werner Spengler is spending a week with friends in Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. John Washburn are spending a few days at Mardi Gras.

Mrs. Dike of Crystal Lake has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. Fred Clow, the past week.

Mrs. Lillian Gray of Chicago spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. U. J. Streiber on Second Street.

FOR SALE—Oak bedroom set of three pieces. Price $12. Address P. O. Box 297, Highland Park.

The friends of Mrs. William Stubbs are glad to again have her with them after her illness in Chicago.

Professor Berry of Evanston has been engaged to instruct the choir of the United Evangelical church.

A number of friends assisted in celebrating the anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Maerklin's wedding at their home on Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Waldo, Mrs. Squires and Stanford and Homer Squires of Libertyville spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Waldo on Park avenue.

The death of Dr. W. S. Christopher is felt by a large number in Highland Park for he was both friend and physician of many families in this suburb.

Mr. C. A. Kuist has remodeled his house on Second street and made it into two flats. The lower flat has been rented to A. B. Hill, who moved into it this week.

Mrs. Bohl is glad to report herself back from Wisconsin much benefited, and will be pleased to meet with her many customers at The Ladies' Bazaar as heretofore.

alderman of the fourth ward. Soliciting your support and thanking each and all for past favors.
36 JOHN HART, JR.

Lent beginning this week there were special services in both St. Mary's and Trinity churches and Ash Wednesday was given over to church going. For the next few weeks there will be few social events.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Aldridge are planning a trip to England in April. On Saturday evening Mrs. Aldridge won a Haverlin china tea set as a prize when Mr. and Mrs. Aldridge attended a card party in Chicago.

Every Wednesday evening during Lent special services will be held in Trinity church at quarter to eight o'clock. The subject of the address for next Monday evening will be "John Keble and the Oxford Movement."

BOARD WANTED:—Married couple with small child, good people, want board and two rooms in comfortable farm house accessible to city trains, during summer, three or five months, Lake or Cook county. Address Box 250, Highland Park. 21

The first Sunday evening in every month there will be song service in connection with the sermon at the Ebenezer church. Tomorrow evening will be the first of these song services. On Monday evening the annual business meeting of the members of the Ebenezer church will be held in the church.

Miss Grace Mihills spent several days last week with Miss Estella Smith in Chicago.

Mr. Elisha Morgan returned from his southern trip on Tuesday.

Miss Laura Muhlke is visiting her sister, Mrs. Vant, of Deerfield.

Mrs. Frank Thorn entertained at bridge-whist on Monday afternoon.

Messrs. E. H. Purdy, Albert Larson and George Bock are on the jury at Waukegan this week.

Miss Maud Stangenberg of Denver is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Carlton Mosely on Prospect avenue.

Mr. James M. Grant has purchased the Emerson place on St. Johns Ave. opposite the Military Academy.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Snyder entertained on Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Frink and Mrs. Parker of Chicago.

Mr. Hugh McFarlane has rented his home on Laurel Avenue to Mr. Samuel Slade, who will occupy it May first.

The next meeting of the Highland Park Woman's Club will be held March 15th at the home of Mrs. B. A. Fessenden.

WANTED—A position as general housemaid by a young woman, inexperienced but willing to learn. Address, Maggie Vamb, Highland Park. 1

Mr. Thomas Dooley, town collector, has received an extension of time in which the general taxes may be paid—the limit of time now being March 30th.

On Saturday evening, March 4th, Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Prior gave a card party for a large number of Evanston friends at their home on Sheridan Road.

Miss Amelia Stabling left Monday for Tacoma, Washington, where she will spend several months visiting with her sister, Mrs. B. F. Lunan, formerly of this city.

A D. T. H. S. class pin for the year 1902 was found some time ago. The owner may obtain the pin at the home of Professor R. L. Sandwick on Linden avenue.

On Sunday, March 12th, the pathetic drama, "A Little Outcast," plays in Schwartz theatre, Waukegan. It is a play of New York life and is said to be the best of its kind ever produced.

The friends of Mr. and Mrs. Will T. Stewart, formerly of Highland Park but who now reside at 136 Lincoln Park boulevard, Chicago, will be glad to hear that a son was born to them yesterday morning.

FOR SALE—The household furniture contained in the Conger cottage on Laurel avenue, consisting of beds, springs, bureaus, wash stands, tables, chairs and chamber sets. Sale will take place Tuesday, March 14th.

On Monday, March 13th, the beautiful and pathetic old play, "Uncle Tom's Cabin," plays in the Schwartz theatre, Waukegan. Every theatre goer knows this great American drama, and with the best seats at 50 cents the house will doubtless be crowded.

The New Trier Township High School will present the farce, "Mr. Bob," at Ravinia Theatre on Friday evening, March 24th. Music will be furnished by the high school orchestra and glee club. The play is for the benefit of the athletic association and deserves a generous patronage.