

What People Are Doing in Highland Park

Mr. A. W. Fletcher has rented his home on Central avenue to Mrs. Seibert and Mrs. M. Smith.

Malcolm Vail will return from Florida on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Harrington are enjoying a trip to New York.

Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Luther are at home again after their trip south.

Miss Louise Floyd spent Sunday at home with her mother Mrs. Helen Floyd.

Edward Seymour left yesterday for New York where he will spend his spring vacation.

Miss Mary Stebbins of Baltimore visited Mrs. W. H. Baldwin several days the past week.

Parties leaving skates at Ravinia will kindly call for same. Not responsible after April 1st.

E. C. WELCH, Manager.

Mrs. J. L. Mauck of Hillsdale, Michigan, has been visiting friends in Chicago and Highland Park the past two weeks. Mrs. Mauck was in town on Tuesday.

A special prayer service was held at the Baptist church on Wednesday lasting from 3 to 9 p. m. It proved to be a meeting of power and was fruitful in conversions.

Mr. William Lynch, who has boarded with Mrs. Elizabeth Grant in Ravinia for some time, has moved to the home of Douglas McNeill, near the Gray electric factory.

The famous "Lyman Twins" will appear at the Schwartz theatre Waukegan on Sunday April 2nd, in "At the Racer". The big comedy musical success "His Highness the Bey" on April 9th.

On Tuesday evening Messrs. Winchester Carver, William Averill and Dan Cobb gave the farce "Box and Cox," at the Post for the entertainment of the soldiers. A number of people went from here to see it.

President Hibbard of the Library Board today received from the secretary of the Carnegie Library Trust Funds a letter stating that the $10,000 for Highland Park Public Library is available and may be used at any time.

The friends of Mr. Robert D. Wrenn, son of Mr. George L. Wrenn, formerly of this city, will be interested to know of his engagement to Miss Grace Dabney of Boston, which was announced last week. Mr. Wrenn is now living in Chicago.

An addition is being made on the new Church of Christ, scientist, so that a large organ can be placed in the rear of the building. Carpets were laid in the church this week and the first service held in the new home will be Sunday, April 16.

An Easter opening of fine millinery Thursday, Friday and Saturday, April 6th, 7th and 8th at the Ladies' Bazaar.

MRS. BOHL,
Highland Park.

Don't forget the date.

First Baptist Church, public worship at 10.45 and 7.45. B. P. Y. U. at 7 o'clock. Special evangelistic meeting in the evening. A quartette from the 27th Regiment band will play in the evening. Mr. Bruce will play the offertory. All are welcome. Seats free.

Thursday evening under the auspices of the Ossoli Club, Mrs. Charles Everett and Mr. Chris Anderson entertained the members of the Highland Park Club with "Old English Ballads." The hostesses of the evening were Mrs. A. Paul Smith and Mrs. E. J. Nally.

Mr. R. L. Sandwick has rented the Bayse house on Central avenue.

Miss Alice Davidson is on her way east to visit friends in New England.

Mr. F. H. Anderson spent several days in town the past week, but is again in Cleveland.

Mrs. G. D. Boulton and the Misses Boulton are expected home from Winter Park, Florida, to-day.

Miss Durell of Edgewater visited Mrs. C. E. Wilcox on Thursday. Mrs. Charles H. Cowen was a guest on Friday.

FOR SALE—5 choice lots 40 feet front, on Highwood Ave., Highland Park, opposite M. E. church.
4t F. C. CLARK, Owner.

Col. and Mrs. H. P. Davidson returned last night from Avon Park, Florida where they have been spending the winter.

Prof. Frederick O. Grover of Oberlin College is spending a week with his parents, Rev and Mrs. N. W. Grover, on Park avenue.

The Northwestern Military Academy opens the baseball season by a game with Northwestern University of Evanston this afternoon.

Mrs. R. V. Winchester with her two children leaves to-day for Kansas City, where she will join her husband, who is engaged in business there.

I announce my candidacy for re-election as alderman of the fourth ward. Soliciting your support and thanking each and all for past favors.
3t JOHN HART, JR.

Miss Louise Shields, who has been visiting friends in the Park the past few weeks, returned to her home in Chicago this week. Miss Shields will go abroad for two months.

First Church of Christ, Scientist, services in Library Hall. Sunday service, 10.45. Lesson subject for April 2, "Are sin, disease and death real?" Testimonial meeting, Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock.

The Frank E. Long Stock Co. will open an engagement of one week commencing Monday April 3 at the Schwartz theatre Waukegan. Matinee Saturday at 2:15, "Rip Van Winkle". Prices 10, 20 and 30 cents.

Mrs. Dwight Richardson of Kansas City is visiting Mrs. Richard Street and her mother Mrs. Tracy Hull who has been ill for several weeks. As soon as Mrs. Hull is able, she and Mrs. Richardson will visit Dr. Douglas Hull at Crystal Lake.

There were no services in the United Evangelical church Sunday morning owing to the absence of Rev. Fuessle who attended the annual conference of the United Evangelical Association in Chicago. In the evening the sermon was preached by Rev. Mr. Morlock of El Paso, Illinois.

Sheridan Road News,

Highland Park, Ill.

Mr. Editor:—I have been informed that one certain Ben Goldberg has been advertising the sale of Long Grove Creamery Butter. Allow me to say through your columns that Ben Goldberg has never bought one pound butter of us and can not, and I know he cannot buy it any other place.

Yours Respectfully,
Geo. Guintin
Manager Long Grove Creamery

Miss Viola Shields entertained informally a number of her friends last Saturday evening.

Mrs. John Washburn returned this week from Pensacola, Florida.

Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Luther are at home again after their trip south.

Miss E. E. Wycoff spent several days in Highland Park the past week.

Miss Louise Floyd spent Sunday at home with her mother Mrs. Helen Floyd.

Miss Viola Shields entertained informally a number of her friends last Saturday evening.

Mr. A. W. Fletcher has rented his home on Central avenue to Mrs. Seibert and Mrs. M. Smith.

FOR SALE:—A medium sized refrigerator at a bargain.
MRS. STOKES, Central avenue.

Mrs. E. E. Andrews was hostess at a luncheon on Thursday, given to eight young women friends.

Miss Alice Parliament returned from St. Mary's school at Knoxville to spend the spring vacation at home.

Mr. Fayette S. Munro of Chicago has rented what is known as the "Conger house," on Laurel avenue for the summer.

The Exmoor is progressing rapidly on the new building. Members will soon be able to get light refreshments at the club.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Eugene Pratt have issued invitations for the marriage of their daughter Marguerite Virginia to Mr. Warren Atherton Lamson Wednesday, April 19, at their Chicago home.

WANTED:—Educated, ambitious boy with snap and fast legs, and capable of working quickly into detail work of office. One that will earn advancement rapidly; no laggards need apply. Address in own handwriting. State age and experience. Address, M, this office.
tf

There will be a special praise service at the Ebenezer church on Sunday evening at 7:30. There will be a number of songs by the choir, a male quartette, and several solos. Rev. Schmuess, the presiding elder of this district, will give a fifteen minute address. All are cordially invited to be present.

Mr. F. S. Munro has purchased fifteen acres of land on the Green Bay road, next to the old Catholic burying ground. This tract of land has been owned for the past thirty years by the Flint estate, and it was purchased from the Misses Flint for $12,000. In the near future Mr. Munro will erect a beautiful home on this site.

Those who purchased tickets for the play given at Ravinia Park last Friday evening found pleasure beyond their expectations. In "Mr. Bob" the audience enjoyed an entertaining play and a splendid production of it, for which the students of New Trier high school deserve much praise. The music furnished by the school was good and the evening's entertainment was a success in every way.

The dancing class of the Northwestern Military Academy gave a cotillion Monday the closing evening. About fifty couples joined in the dance among whom were a number of young ladies from Chicago and other North Shore suburbs. The cotillion was led by Mr. A. L. Bournique, which fact alone insures a delightful time. Both cadets and their guests were sorry to have the evening come to a close.