

What People Are Doing in Highland Park

Mrs. M. A. Mihills visited her daughter, Mrs. Charles Hayden of Winnetka, over Sunday.

Miss Nellie Clark spent Sunday with friends at Peoria.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Burley on Wednesday of last week.

WANTED—Position as cook. References. Call at 134 Park Avenue, Highland Park.

Miss Gill of Oak Park visited Mrs. William Millard the past week.

Miss Rose Jones is in Highland Park with her sister, Mrs. A. R. Jones.

FOR SALE—Three upholstered chairs; four billiard room chairs; and two laundry tables. Apply at "Grace Cottage," Linden avenue.

The Young People's Society of the Baptist Church, gave a social for Mr. and Mrs. Frasier Monday evening of last week.

Mrs. Lucy Allen, who has been visiting her daughter Mrs. Ford Hall for the last six weeks, is at home again.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Denzel entertained many guests from out of town on Sunday in the event of the christening of their youngest child.

Mrs. John Beaumont of Elm place entertained at luncheon, Monday, May 15, seventy-five ladies of Chapter A., P. E. O. S., from Chicago.

FOR RENT—Highland Park house, nine rooms, large lot, two blocks from depot, east side of track, hot water heat, electric light. Address M., this office.

Lucile, little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Sullivan is ill with scarlet fever. Mr. Sullivan is living at the hotel and the other children are with Mrs. Thomas Morton.

Mr. William Griggs of St. Paul and Mr. Otis Beardsley of Chicago were guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Beardsley on Sunday. Miss Loraine Griggs of St. Paul is visiting Mrs. Beardsley this week.

The people of Highland Park will be glad to know that Cadet Staub of the N. M. A., who suffered an accident several weeks ago, has resumed his studies at the school.

Sunday evening those who are to take part in the Italian village at the County Fair met at the home of Mrs. Charles F. Everett and enjoyed an Italian tea.

Mr. Blanck, electrical engineer for the C. & M. E. Railway, who has been at the home of Mr. W. M. Goodridge the past year, has resigned his position with this road and he will move to Chicago the first of June.

First Church of Christ, Scientist, of Highland Park, Illinois. Hazel avenue, near St. Johns. Sunday service at 10:45. Subject for May 21, 1905, "Ancient and Modern Necromancy; or Mesmerism and Hypnotism." Testimonial meeting Wednesday.

The baseball team of the high school is doing good work in their league games. Last week they defeated both the Saxons of Evanston and the New Trier team. A game was scheduled for Wednesday of this week, but the visiting team did not come.

Mrs. C. H. Warren has been ill the past week.

Mrs. William Witten has been ill the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Snow have opened their home on Central avenue.

Miss Mildred Mihills spent Monday with her mother, Mrs. M. A. Mihills.

Mrs. Elizabeth Sullivan is ill in the Augustina Hospital, Chicago, but is improving nicely.

THREE farms wanted; 2,000 farms listed, list free. Exchanges. E. Reppeet, 161 Randolph street, Chicago.

Mrs. Charles McNeill of Laurel avenue has gone to Ravinia to live with her son, Mr. Douglas McNeill.

Mrs. H. P. Davidson went to Winona, Indiana, last Tuesday, to attend the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church.

Miss Charlotte Yoe leaves the 24th for Europe, where she will remain a year. Miss Yoe will visit in Scotland the first few months.

Next week Rev. Rogers of the Baptist Church will hold evening meetings in the First Baptist Church of Waukegan.

Mrs. C. E. Wilcox returned on Sunday from a two weeks visit in New York. Mrs. W. B. Whitcombe of Batavia, New York, is a guest of Mrs. C. E. Wilcox for a month.

Mr. William Scott and Miss Isabel Scott will spend the summer in Europe. Miss Annie Scott who is attending school in Edinburgh, will return with them in the fall.

The entertainment at the high school last Saturday evening was a success, notwithstanding the bad weather. The proceeds for the school paper and baseball suits amounted to $48.00 clear.

Mrs. F. G. Gardner has issued cards for an afternoon tea on Tuesday, May 25th, to meet Mrs. George Allen Mason, who has recently moved to the Park.

A mission by the Jesuit Fathers Rowman and Livingston will be given in St. Mary's Church in the near future. The subject at these meetings will be of interest to both Catholics and non-Catholics.

First Baptist Church. Public worship at 10:45, a. m. and 7:45, p. m. There will be an evangelistic meeting in the evening, for which some special music has been provided. All seats are free. You will be welcome.

The dance last evening at the high school was well attended and a very pleasant affair. Miss Amy Holabird of Fort Sheridan gave a dinner before the dance in honor of her guests, Miss Ada Masters and Mr. Fred Grant of Chicago.

The W. C. O. F. held their regular meeting Wednesday evening in Library Hall where they held an initiation. On that evening, Mrs. Clement Merriman, Mrs. P. J. Punch, and Miss Helen McMullin joined the order. After business, refreshments were served and the ladies enjoyed a social time.

Mrs. H. H. Decker is entertaining her sister, Mrs. Seldon Witbeck of Des Moines, Iowa.

Mrs. Lovell was hostess at a luncheon on Tuesday.

Mrs. Nathan Corwith entertained at bridge whist on Wednesday afternoon.

Miss Elsie Boulton will be hostess at an informal bridge-whist party to-night.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Clow took an automobile trip to Crystal Lake to spend Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Small and family went to their summer home at Twin Lakes this week.

Mr. W. C. Scott has rented his house on Ravine avenue to Mr. J. D. Sallow of Chicago, for the summer.

Last Sabbath evening Rev. Pfanstiehl preached at Lake Forest for Dr. McClure of the Presbyterian Church.

Miss Irene Russell leaves the first part of June for Leeds, South Dakota, where she will continue her kindergarten work.

Thomas McCaren, Sr., an old resident of this city, is reported seriously ill at his home on Deerfield road.

Misses May and Jessie Corbett, Mr. Edward Corbett and Mr. James Raleigh of Chicago were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. D. P. Sheahan on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Howell of Chicago visited their sister, Mrs. Charles Heile on Oakwood Avenue, several days last week.

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Lewis and little son came on Monday to visit their parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Palmer. Mr. Lewis went east on a business trip, Thursday.

On Sunday evening, May 21, the beautiful home drama "The Minister's Daughters," will be presented in the Schwartz Theatre, Waukegan, by an excellent company of 24 people.

Last week the Baptist ministers held a retreat at Lake Bluff. Rev. Mr. Moore opened his cottage and entertained a number of ministers from Chicago for several days.

On Thursday a large number of women met at the home of Mrs. John Morgan for luncheon and for the purpose of dressing dolls for the County Fair for the Gad's Hill Settlement July 9th.

Mr. C. W. Aldridge injured his foot last Sunday and has been confined to the house several days the past week. Mr. John Page of Chicago, who is the stone contractor of the new bank building, visited C. W. Aldridge on Sunday.

Mrs. Richard Street gave a delightful entertainment Sunday afternoon when Mrs. Gunkel read Steven Phillips' sacred drama, "Herod," to an appreciative audience. Mr. Richard Street returned last week from Florida where he has been for several months.

The entertainment in the chapel at the Post Tuesday evening was very good and a goodly number of people from Highland Park attended. Among other numbers on the program Rev. Rogers of this city told of experiences in mountain climbing in Switzerland and Mrs. Bloodgood of Chicago gave several recitations.