

What People Are Doing in Highland Park

Mrs. W. A. Alexander and Mrs. H. M. Sweetland have been spending several weeks in New York.

Mr. J. F. L. Curtis is now in the C. W. Kirk house on Hazel avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Brady entertained the Misses Palmer, Oleson and Long of Chicago over Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Cunningham of Chicago spent Sunday with their sister, Mrs. W. D. Alford.

Mrs. C. G. Muhlke and Miss Laura Muhlke are visiting relations in Deerfield.

Mr. F. M. Steele has been very ill in New York but his friends are glad to know he is improving. Mrs. Steele is also in New York.

Major and Mrs. Drew and their daughter Miss Donna have returned from the south where they have been spending the winter.

The members of the United Evangelical Church held a social on the lawn of Mr. Fred Macchtle's home on Laurel avenue. Thursday evening.

Miss Harvey and Miss Mayo of Chicago, and Mr. and Mrs. Schaefer of Rogers Park were guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Duffy on Sunday.

WANTED—Competent and reliable woman wants first class

Mrs. Larson's, Park avenue and Linden avenue.

Rev. Geo. D. Rogers, will deliver an address on Sunday afternoon at Waukegan before an association of Business Men who are planning for a great revival movement.

Mrs. William Norenberg attended the state Sunday School Convention at Clinton last week and spent Sunday with her son Clarence, in Champaign, where he is attending the University.

Miss Irene Russell left yesterday for Leade, South Dakota, where she will teach kindergarten in a school which is supported and equipped by Mrs. Phoebe Hearst.

The Chicago Presbytery will hold its June meeting in the Presbyterian Church in this city on Monday. Between eighty and one hundred ministers are expected to attend and the ladies of the church will serve lunch.

Next Sunday night Rev. P. P. Bilhorn, the singing Evangelist, will be at the Baptist Church. Mr. Bilhorn is the author of many of the familiar hymns that we sing, and has a national reputation as an Evangelist. Every one is welcome. Seats free.

On Sunday, June 4th, Gordon and Bennet's great, sumptuous production, "A Royal Slave" will be the attraction. The troupe carries a carload of the most beautiful scenery, and besides being one of the finest attractions on the road it is considered a marvel of beauty from a scenic standpoint.

Sunday morning, June 4, the sermon at the United Evangelical Church will be in the German language. During the summer, the morning services will alternate in German and English. This rule will remain until the first Sunday in November, from which date only the first Sunday of the month will have the morning German. The evening services are regularly in the English language, popular and evangelistic, with special singing. A chorus choir has been organized, under the direction of Prof. Barry from Evanston. Fine work is being done. New books will shortly be introduced for congregational singing. Everybody is made to feel at home. The League service begins at 7 p. m., the preaching services at 7:45 p. m. You are invited.

Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Gregory have returned from abroad and are again in Highland Park.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Coty of McGovern street have moved to Waukegan.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Walther have been visiting in Waukegan the past week.

Miss Anna Herdclotz has been visiting friends in Woodstock, Ill., the past two weeks.

Miss Haungs of Chicago spent Sunday with her sister, Miss Juno S. Reesman.

Mrs. Godfried Arnswald of West Laurel avenue is ill with typhoid fever.

Miss E. E. Wycoff will give a musicale in Kimball Hall this evening, which a large number of Highland Park people will attend.

Mrs. H. C. Carver entertained the oriental Caravanary of the County Fair at her home Wednesday evening.

Miss Henrietta Flint who has been visiting in Washington returned to Highland Park on Wednesday.

Mr. M. A. Ives has rented his house to E. P. Russell. Mr. and Mrs. Ives and their family will spend the summer in Ganges, Michigan.

LOST—Colored monogram charm, May 26, on Central avenue, between Sheridan road and Second street. Finder will please return to O. B. Brand's studio and receive reward.

Mr. Peter Bilhom, whom people will recall as the composer of several sacred songs, will sing in the Baptist Church Sunday evening. The public is cordially invited to attend this service.

Those who knew Mr. John Lauder when he lived in Highland Park some years ago will be interested to hear of his marriage to Miss Elilabeth Bates which will occur in Chicago, June 28th.

First Baptist Church—Public worship at 10:45 and 7:45. Special Evangelistic Service in the evening. Rev. Mr. Briggs, pastor of the Waukegan Baptist Church will preach in the evening. All are welcome. Seats free.

Mrs. A. R. Jones will leave about the 18th of the month to spend commencement with her son at Harvard. Mr. George R. Jones receives his M. A. from that college this year. Miss Rose Jones and Mr. J. Russell Jones will also go to Cambridge for the graduation.

Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Schwartz have rented their house for the summer to Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Taylor. Mr. Schwartz and his family will go to the seashore the first of June. Dr. Leigh Schwarz will remain in Highland Park.

On the evening of May 30th, Mrs. B. A. Fessenden entertained from eight to ten in honor of Miss Lucille Grant Dent. Miss Dent's marriage to Lieutenant Franklin Burt took place Thursday evening, June 1st, when Miss Alice Fessenden was one of the bridesmaids.

Mr. H. Chandler Egan returned from his trip abroad on Tuesday and will graduate from Harvard College this month. Aside from his golf fame Mr. Egan is a very popular college man and will be prominent in all the committees during commencement. Mrs. W. C. Egan, Miss Eva and Mr. Bradshaw Egan will spend about two week in the east, being in Cambridge from the 23rd to the 28th.

Mr. John Coty is ill with typhoid fever at the Augustina Hospital, Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Lobdell have opened their home on Sheridan Road.

Miss Sarah Lauder of Chicago visited Mrs. W. W. Flinn this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Carleton Moseley spent Memorial Day at Oconomowoc.

Miss Carr of Toledo, Ohio, is visiting Mrs. Fred Greenslade. Miss Carr has accepted the position as bookkeeper at the Exmoor Country Club.

Mr. and Mrs. F. D. Everett and Mrs. W. T. Underwood attended the State Sunday School Convention at Clinton last week.

Mr. Harry Marshall of Evanston was the guest of Miss Juno S. Reesman, a couple of days this week.

Mrs. Fritz Bahr is entertaining her mother Mrs. Luck of Ripon, Wis., and her sister Mrs. George Pansie of Oskosh.

Miss Bessie Smith and Miss Elizabeth Steele have returned from Washington where they have been attending school.

FOR SALE CHEAP—One Surrey and one Side Bar Buggy. Two heating stoves, suitable for hall or church. Apply to James MacDonald, Highland Park.

Mrs. Fanches and Mrs. Hebbelthwaite of Evanston and Mrs. Barrett of Racine came on Monday to spend the day with Mrs. Alice Hodges and celebrate her 85th birthday.

The Van Dyke and Eaton Co., conclude this week's engagement at the Schwartz Theatre, Waukegan, on this Saturday, June 3rd in "Jesse James." Price 10, 20 and 30 cents.

The "Cradle Roll Department" of the United Evangelical Church held its annual meeting, Wednesday afternoon when the mothers and the children of the "cradle roll" enjoyed a social time in the lecture room of the church.

The Cadets of the Northwestern Military Academy returned Tuesday evening from Rochford, when they were in camp a week assisting the G. A. R., in celebrating their annual encampment. A field piece was taken across country by the gun squad and was used in firing the national salute at the cemetery on Memorial Day.

First Church of Christ, Scientist of Highland Park, Ill., Hazel avenue, near St. John's. Services 10:45 a. m. Testimonial meeting, Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock. Lesson subject for June 4, 1905, God, the Preserver of Man.

Children's Day will be observed by the First United Evangelical Church, Sunday, June 11. A special service will be held in the morning at which the rite of baptism will be administered. In the evening the Sunday school will render a cantata. A missionary offering will be received. Everybody is invited for the day.

A conference of Lake county prohibitionists will be held at Gray's Lake Saturday morning and afternoon, June 3. An interesting programme with short addresses by local workers has been arranged and Hon. Alonzo E. Wilson, State Chairman, who is also a member of the Legislature will speak morning and afternoon. All friends in the county are urged to be present.