Every social event is absorbed in the Gad's Hill Country Fair which is now going on at Ravinia Park. Every effort is being put forth to entertain the public and put money into the treasury of this charitable institution. It is hoped that a large amount of money will be the result of the many weeks work spent in preparation for this event.

There will be a meeting of the Public Library Board next Tuesday evening, June 13, in the library building at 7:30 sharp, to take final action on plans for the new Carnegie building. Architect Miller will be out with his plans, and all the citizens who are interested in the matter are invited to be present and confer with the members of the Board in regard to the matter.

President Hibbard is making arrangements with Prof. Smith, of the public schools, to have the school children go the new library site next Friday afternoon, June 16th, at 2:30 o'clock and turn "the first sod" for the new library building. We do it then as the schools close the next week, and we want the children to do it, as they are as much or more interested in the library than we older ones. The public is invited to be there on time.
