Tom Watson's Magazine

Vol. 11, No. 1, The July Number, to be Illustrated and greatly Improved

As a token of appreciation of the liberal support given it by the public, Tom Watson's Magazine for July (Commencing the second volume) will come out June 25th with illustrations, cartoons, head and tail pieces, etc., 128 pages of good reading to take home with you.

of course, size isn't the only thing Tom Watson's Magazine is proud of. Quality first, size afterward, is its rule of action. There are plenty of good magazines now being published but none of them can take the place of Tom Watson's, because no other editorial writer in America can feel the public pulse and diagnose social and political ills as Tom Watson does. Not that there is any lack of good editorial writers—big, brainy men, who know how to write strong english—but there is only one Tom Watson; and he always commands attention and respect, even of those who combat his ideas most vigorously.

Tom Watson's is a magazine with a purpose back of it, and the success it has attained, in the "swaddling clothes" period of its existence, shows that the American people are intensely interested in Mr. Watson's purpose, regardless of party names or affiliation. That success has been greater than the most ardent friend of Mr. Watson and his magazine had hoped for. From the very first it has enjoyed a steady growth in subscriptions and news-stand sales. There has been no "boom", no mushroom growth to die suddenly, no skyrocket ascent to fall a broken stick. Tom Watson's Magazine has been chary of using professional subscription solicitors, but relies upon local agents and clubbing with the country news-papers. The subscribers thus secured are the kind that renew year after year and form an "Old Guard," invaluable alike to the publisher and advertisers.

Mr. Watson was last year the People's Party candidate for President, and, of course, his magazine editorially is an advocate of Populism—or Jeffersonian Democracy, as some prefer to call it. The magazine is especially strong in support of municipal ownership of street railways, electric light and gas works, etc., and national ownership of railroads, telegraphs, a parcels post, etc. But Tom Watson's Magazine is by no means all politics. About half its space is devoted to serials, novellettes, short stories, poems, jokes, cartoons, illustrations and special articles by the world's best writers and artists; an educational department; news summary; "The say of other editors," etc., etc.; $1 per year by mail; ten cents per copy at the news stands.

The News-Letter is not a supporter of Tom Watson's brand of politics, but it recognizes that the question of public ownership is one that cannot longer be ignored and that it must be settled before many years. To secure a satisfactory settlement the people must be educated to act intelligently upon it; and to secure such education every phase of the question must be discussed. "Pub-thoroughly first, and if it works satisfactory the "public ownership" feature will be dropped. But if "control" should fail "ownership" will inevitably be the next step. Accordingly, to help in an educational way, the News-Letter has arranged a clubbing combination whereby our readers may renew for one year and secure Tom Watson's Magazine a year for only Hand or send this amount to this office. We have also arranged for free sample copies of the magazine to be sent to any person cutting out the coupon below and mailing it to Tom Watson's Magazine, No. 121 West 42d street, New York City.
