Services and Entertainments

Patrons of this paper will confer a favor upon the overworked scribe if they will leave newstems at Laegeler's drug store, or call up phone 92.

Miss Hannah Shedd James of Boston visited her sister, Mrs. Daniel Pease, for a week.

Notwithstanding the forbidding weather, over 2,000 people were in attendance at Fort Sheridan Park, July 4th.

In accordance with an ordinance passed by the Council, a water main will soon be laid along Evolution avenue.

Mrs. Thomas Boulter will return to Highwood today from Augustina hospital, where she has been for a few weeks past.

The new office building of the Chicago & Milwaukee Electric R. R. is rapidly nearing completion, and the officers of the road will soon be in possession of more comfortable quarters.

Henry Liskey was crushed between two cars at the power house yesterday morning while attempting to couple them. His injuries, though very painful, are not serious, and he will be out again in a few days.

given at the Mess Hall at Fort Sheridan Tuesday evening under the auspices of the ladies of the Highwood M. E. church. The ladies are fortunate in securing Mr. S. Pease of this place and Miss Joy Miller of Highland Park.

Police Magistrate Pease reports to the Council that in the past two months not one citizen of Highwood has infringed the laws of the state or the ordinances of the City of Highwood. Several persons have been arrested by the vigilant police force, but they were all outsiders Highwood, seemingly, has allurements for the "bad men."

About 100 voters attended the public meeting at the City Hall Thursday night for the purpose of discussing the question of sewerage. There was much argument pro and con, but was at last unanimously voted as the sense of the meeting that a trunk line of sewerage be constructed, and that the expense incurred be met by funds obtained by saloon licenses. Individual users to stand the cost of constructing the branches which they may use. Action will probably be taken by the Council at its meeting next Tuesday evening.

Good Soda

Absolute purity in everything, flavors from the finest, ripest fruit, cleanest and daintiest service, care that our soda shall be just sweet enough for every taste. No wonder that our soda is delicious.

The Soda Habit

The delicious soda drawn at our fountain—its purity, richness of flavor, its perfection in palate-pleasing qualities—is the reason that so many people in this community are soda drinkers. We are responsible for the "Soda water Habit"—the healthful habit. Get it.

Julius Laegeler, Druggist.
