McArthur boys, Glencoe.

The social season at the Highland Park Club closed some time ago but the younger members are enjoying a good time nevertheless. Very frequently the young people go to the club in the evening, dance an hour or so and retire to a private house for refreshments. Last Monday evening Mrs. Daniel Cobb was hostess for the party. The tennis court at the club has been put in fine order and every day may be seen the young girls and boys enjoying that sport.

That the instruction received at the Deerfield Township High School as well as the work done by the pupils is on a par with the best preparatory schools in the country, has been proved by some recent examinations. Daniel Cobb won a scholarship to the Illinois University over a number of contestants from several well known Universities. He also passed his final examinations for Harvard College, being admitted without any conditions and with two honors to his credit.

Our fellow townsman, Mr. J. A. Blomdahl, was the guest this week of the shoe manufacturers, Guthman, Carpenter & Telling, Chicago, on a trip across Lake Michigan to inspect their factory at Holland where the celebrated line of Anchor Brand shoes is made. Mr. Blomdahl says shoes made at this factory are great, and that the cool breezes of Lake Michigan have given him a brace that will last until well into the fall and that he will be able to buy his goods right while in Chicago in consequence. While the waves rolled high, Mr. Blomdahl claims to have kept his nerve and his meals, and to have contributed nothing to the fish.

Exmoor Country Club

This week has been full of interest at the Exmoor Club. The women's golf tournament was watched by many spectators and at four o'clock in the afternoon the guests assembled on the veranda for tea. Each day the table was presided over by a different group. Those serving Wednesday were: Mrs. J. W. Prindiville, Mrs. Robert Dunham, Mrs. Trigg Waller, Miss Warren and Miss Chandler. Thursday: Mrs. George Marcey, Mrs. F. R. McMullin, Mrs. Joseph Watkins and C. E. Terry presided. The social committee for the entire week at the club consisted of Mrs. W. J. Louderback, Mrs. T. R. Wyles, Mrs. John Glass and Mrs. F. P. Boynington.

Many were disappointed when Miss Francis Everett, the western champion, was defeated on Wednesday, but Miss Everett was feeling the effects of last week's hard playing at Hinsdale and was not quite equal to the demands upon her skill. The tournament ended Thursday by Mrs. C. L. Deering of Midlothian winning the Exmoor cup. Mrs. L. R. Brockon of Westward Ho captured the Woman's Cup and Mrs. W. France of Hinsdale won the Solace cup.

Several informal luncheons were given at the club on Wednesday. Mrs. Breidler entertained for ten, Mrs. E. E. Carry for twentytwo, Mrs. Dudley for six, Mrs. M. F. Monte for eight, Mrs. Harry Shannon for eight, Mrs. J. M. Tuttle for ten, Mrs. H. B. Clark for six, Mrs. J. V. Dickinson for four, Mrs. R. F. Peyton for four, Mrs. Herbert Schwarz for five and Mrs. M. E. Lampsell for eight.

Ravinia Park

The Ben Greet Woodland Players begin their last week at Ravinia Park Monday evening with a production of "The Tempest". These out of door

North Shore, the audiences have generally been large and enthusiastic, the weather has been favorable for continual performances in the open air though the theatre is at hand should sudden inclemency render the forest unavailable. Tuesday matinee, "Twelfth Night" will be given, Tuesday night, "The Tempest", Wednesday night, "Much Ado About Nothing", Thursday matinee, "A Comedy of Errors", Thursday night, "A Midsummer Night's Dream", Friday night, "Twelfth Night", Saturday matinee, "As You Like It" and Saturday night "The Tempest". Following the Shakespearean event will be offered Ravela's Imperial Italian Band, an organization which will be brought fresh from its triumph at Carnegie Hall, New York, where the band and its brilliant leader have created a sensation. Ravela devotes his programs to the more lofty and classical compositions of the Italian school of music and the season of his concerts at Ravinia Park will extend over an indefinite period and be addressed to students and lovers of high class instrumental performances.

Politeness between husband and wife costeth nothing. Were it otherwise, the virtue would be even rarer than it now is.

The spinster knoweth how to bring up children, and a bachelor to rule a wife. It is well that they remain single; or else who would be willing to leave this happy world, had they the direction of its family affairs.

FORT SHERIDAN

John Bahr, who has been a nurse at the hospital for some time received his discharge because of disability Wednesday and has gone to his home in Chicago.

Quartermaster Sergt. Campion of Co. K. left Friday morning on a four months furlough to visit friends in the west.

Sergt. Thuring of the hospital spent the first of the week in Milwaukee with friends.

Mrs. McGlynn visited her son-in-law Sargt. McGloyn at the hospital Tuesday and Wednesday.

There has been installed at the Post hospital an electrolytic interrupter which was recommended by Dr. Pusey of Chicago for the treatment of Maj. Tyler.

Alfred Sawkins is absent from his duties as nurse at the hospital. He has received a two months furlough and has gone to Louisville, Ky., where he will visit his parents.

Maj. Alfred E. Bradley who has been ordered to Ft. Sheridan for duty August 1st arrived the first of the week.

Capt. Marrow and 1st Lieut. Vose have been detailed as members of the medical board to examine candidates for commission in the medical corps.

A summer entertainment was given in the Mess at Fort Sheridan Tuesday evening. Musician Davis with a piano solo and Burrell of the band opened the evenings programme with songs. Wade Rice of Company "M" 27th Infantry delivered a 20-minute lecture, "Guide to success." Mr. Bernard of the band followed with instrumental music, and Private McHale of Company "I" followed with a waltz clog that took exceedingly well. Miss Gavitt was unable to appear and her number was taken by Mr. Samuel J. Pease of Highwood, who sang the Arabs Bride, Mrs. Moore, wife of Adjutant Moore playing the accompaniment. Corp. Watson gave a recitation, followed with illustrated views with arc light stereopticon. Belanger then came on, and Richard Yeatman and Mr. Fessenden presented their comical piece. Mr. Yeatman was well made up as a comical greatly to the evenings entertainment. Miss Liston, who is visiting Lieut. and Mrs. Pepper at the Post kindly filled in one of the absent numbers with an excellent and well delivered recitation. Freeman of Co "H" amused with his funny piece.

Credit is due Mr. Pease for making up depleted numbers in the programme with well rendered illustrated songs. Through the kindness of Mr. Pease, Miss Liston and Jack McGloin, who assumed the roles of absent people, the entertainment was successful.
