EDUCATOR SHOES

Keep the child's foot as nature intended, as shown at the left.
Many children's shoes force the pliable growing bones and muscles into unnatural shapes as shown at the right.
Educators are designed to keep the bones and muscles in nature's shape.
The Oak leather soles provide lightness, flexibility and wear and upper leathers are of the highest class.
To have your child thank you for perfect feet in later life buy EDUCATORS.

A POOR JOB.

Alice—Herbert says he is a self-made man.

Kitty—How he must suffer from re-

THE MORAL EFFECT.

Nickel-in-the-slot machines ain't allowed in Wall street. The men that run things there say it ain't the competition they're afraid of so much as 'tis the moral effect.

WHICH?

Governess—Oh, Kitty, you careless child! There are not two r's in "very." Rub one of them out.

Kitty—Yes, but which one?

A TERRIBLE REVENGE.

Orpheus was boasting that he could make the rocks sing to his music. "Perhaps," retorted Æolus, "but I'll bet you can't make the furnace draw!" Smarting under the insult, the god of music invented the cornet-player by way of retaliation.

THE MODERN WAY.

The Farmer—Your cow must be sick. She doesn't chew her cud.

Amateur Farmer—She doesn't have to chew her cud. I feed her with predigested hay.

THE REASON WHY.

The inner side of every cloud
Is bright and shining;
I, therefore, turn my clouds about,
And always wear them inside out,
To show their lining!

BEFORE ELECTION.

"I heard a good story the other day," began the grocery man, "about a certain politician."

"That will do," interrupted the disappointed office seeker. "In the first place there are no certain politicians."
