Tuesday evening. To provide for the cost the city is to be bonded in the sum of $10,000.

Late Wednesday afternoon occurred an accident which might have proved a fatal one. The sprinkling cart owned by A. H. Yager and driven by Mr. Steager was coming south on the C. & M. E. tracks; a south-bound work car was close behind. As Mr. Steager was getting out of the way the motorman made too close calculations, and a collision occurred taking off the back wheels of the cart. This threw the occupants off the cart and Mr. Yager's two daughters, Mabel, aged 13, and Margaret, 8, were hurt badly, the former seriously.

Louis Freund and John Fullen were arrested Saturday by Special Deputy James Gordon on a charge of burglarizing John Hart Jr.'s saloon last Friday night. They wrenched open the back door sometime Friday night and secured a five gallon jug of wine, besides a large quantity of other liquors. Saturday morning they attempted to sell some of the plunder to John Goehring, and recognizing the brand of some of the whiskey, which he knew was sold only by John Hart, telephoned Mr. Hart who had the men arrested. They were given a hearing Monday before Judge Pease, and the Judge after hearing the testimony, and sampling the "evidence," bound them over to the grand jury. In default of bail they were taken to the county jail at Waukegan. It is only fair to say in behalf of Judge Pease, that he left several gallons of "evidence" for the grand jury to sample.

INDIGESTION'S RECORD

"The best remedy I can prescribe for your indigestion, madam, is Green's August Flower. I know of several other physicians who prescribe it regularly."

Indigestion is making an awful record as a cause of sudden deaths. It is beating heart-failure in its ghastly harvest. You read in the papers daily of apparently healthy and even robust men being suddenly attacked with acute indigestion after enjoying a hearty meal, and of their dying in many cases before a physician could be called in.

This should be a warning to you who suffer with regular or periodical attacks of indigestion. If these unfortunate victims of acute indigestion had taken a small dose of Green's August Flower before or after their meals they would not have fallen a prey to such sudden seizures. August Flower prevents indigestion by creating good digestion. It also regulates the liver, purifies the blood and tones up the entire system in a natural way.
