

HIGHLAND PARK NEWS-LETTER

Volume 18

HIGHLAND PARK, ILLINOIS, AUGUST 26, 1905

Number 13

What People Are Doing in Highland Park

Miss Hawkins, who has been east since early last winter is again in Highland Park.

Mrs. Roebing is spending a few days with relatives in Edson Park.

Miss Viola Shields entertained a number of friends informally Thursday afternoon.

Miss Amanda Shields entertained a number of friends on Friday afternoon very informally.

The Misses Agnes and Marion Dwyer of Rockford are visiting Mrs. C. P. Sullivan on Park Ave.

Mrs. Earl Spencer gave a very pretty children's party for her son and daughter on Friday evening of last week.

The new firm of Schmidley and McNanly are installing in the residence of Mrs. E. Gray a new heating boiler.

Mrs. E. E. Andrews gave a very charming little neighborhood luncheon on Thursday for her sister, Mrs. Frank Malby of Washington.

The Misses Helen and Rose Brown have gone to Northern Michigan, where a number of young

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Maechtle and family and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Geiser and family spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Richard Tilman on their farm west of Highland Park.

Preparations are being made for a large dinner at the Exmoor Club, September 14, in honor of the National Champion H. Chandler Egan. On that evening, all the cups won by members of this club will be on exhibition and a very fine time is being planned.

The Woman's Missionary Society of the United Evangelical Church held an afternoon and evening social in the Evangelical Church at Northfield Thursday. Although the weather was unfavorable a goodly representation of the Highland Park church drove to Northfield, and all who braved the storm declare they were well repaid for their journey.

The Women's Missionary Society of the Presbyterian Church will meet at the home of Mrs. E. W. Patton on Monday afternoon at four o'clock. It is expected that the afternoon will be an especially interesting one, as Mrs. Lamphier of Chicago will talk on her work among the mothers of the stockyards district of Chicago.

Rev. and Mrs. A. A. Pfanstiehl are attending the fiftieth anniversary celebration of the Presbyterian church at Raritan, Ill. Mr. Pfanstiehl's first call after leaving college was from that church and there he began his work in the ministry. He with several other former pastors, is aiding in the services of this anniversary celebration.

Mrs. Breault has been confined to her home with illness for a week.

Mrs. Rudolph Schorer of Milwaukee is a guest of Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Streiber.

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Young of Chicago visited friends in the Park, several days the past week.

Miss Helen Whitney is spending a month with friends in Canada. She will return to the Park early in September.

Mr. Charles M. Johnstone, of Caldwell, Mo., delegate to the Reciprocity Convention, spent a few days with Mr. and Mrs. Henry M. Bacon last week.

Mrs. J. S. Seymour gave an informal afternoon tea at her home on Prospect ave., Saturday last. The guests were invited to meet Miss Taylor, who is visiting Mrs. Seymour.

Mr. Henry Hyde, who last year lived on Lincoln avenue, has purchased the house now occupied by Mr. and Mrs. John Morgan. Mr. Hyde is now Word came from abroad the past week of the death of Mrs. Henry M. Kidder of Evanston. Mrs. Kidder was the wife of Colonel Kidder, a member of the Chicago Board of Trade, and both he and his wife were well known along the North Shore. Mrs. Kidder, accompanied by Mrs. David Rutter, went to Europe a few months ago, and the death of Mrs. Kidder at Carlsbad the past week is a great shock to her friends.

Mrs. W. A. Alexander was hostess at a most attractive yellow daisy luncheon at the Exmoor Club on Wednesday. The guests were twelve in number: Mrs. Sampson, Mrs. Borden, Mrs. Mc Mullin, Mrs. Watkins, Mrs. Glass, Mrs. Carr, Mrs. Nally, Mrs. Warren, Mrs. Herbert Schwarz, Miss Towner and Mrs. Harold Sweetland. After luncheon the ladies played bridge whist for the remainder of the afternoon.

The Second Annual Re-union of the Cook County Soldier's and Sailor's Annual Re-union Association was held at Fort Sheridan yesterday and to-day, and will be concluded tomorrow with patriotic and sacred exercises with many notable speakers in attendance. The Re-union will close with an old-fashioned dress parade of ten especially recruited companies. On Friday and Saturday there were parades of all the organizations headed by the River Forest Training School Band and the Grant Post Band will furnish music on Sunday. Tents were pitched for the accommodation of guests and the officers at Fort Sheridan contributed greatly to the comfort and convenience of the veterans and their friends.

Mr. Samuel Levin has been confined to his bed the past week but is improving nicely now.

Mr. Edward Cole has been visiting her sister at Long Grove the past week.

Mr. James Sheahen and Mr. Farmer spent several days in Peoria the past week.

Mrs. Thompson of Jackson, Mich., is visiting her sister, Mrs. B. W. Schumacher.

Mr. W. A. Coats with his son Morris of St. Petersburg, Florida, is visiting Mrs. F. H. Anderson on Prospect Ave.

daughter leave early in September for the Lewis and Clark Exposition at Portland. They will be gone about three weeks.

On Monday Mrs. W. D. Messenger with her daughter Miss Helen Messenger started on a lake trip for Northern Michigan, where they will visit in September for a month or so.

Mr. C. H. Cary has begun his new house on West Central avenue, and as the plans are to push the

Mr. and Mrs. Cary are in their new home.

Schmidley & McNanly, Plumbing and Heating Contractors, 85 St. John avenue, are prepared to submit you figures, or take care of any repair work promptly. Mr. Schmidley has been a resident of your city for the past three years and in the employ of Mr. Abercromby all of that time. Mr. McNanly has had 25 years experience in both the Heating and Plumbing lines, the last four years being connected with the firm of Nelson & Wagner of Oak Park, Ill. We would respectfully solicit a part of your patronage. Telephone, No. 1051.

Mr. Thomas G. Troxel, who is employed by the Chicago Varnish Company goes Tuesday to San Francisco on business. He will be gone two months. It is greatly to be hoped that by the efforts of Mr. Troxel, San Francisco will find there is nothing so good as Chicago varnish, for Mr. Troxel is a well known Highland Parkite and we wish him well. The business of the Chicago Varnish Co. is of interest also with Mr. C. H. Morgan as president and his son, A. C. Morgan as secretary and treasurer.

Highland Park is becoming more and more popular as a suburb if amount of building is to be taken as an indicator. Mr. C. P. Woodcock will commence a home on his lot on Linden avenue very soon that he may occupy it before the new year. Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Purdy will in the near future have a home on Linden avenue. Miss Flint has a house under construction on Linden avenue between Sheridan Road and Lincoln avenue which will be for rent in the fall. Carpenters and masons will soon be at work on the new library building and we may feel we are a very prosperous city.