

Highland Park

Mr. and Mrs. Wendling of Chicago, spent several days last week with Mr. and Mrs. John Diegess.

Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Morgan and family are expected home from Green Lake, Wisconsin, on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Babcock are at home once more after a summer spent at Paw Paw Lake, Michigan.

Miss Mildred Mihills spent Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Mihills on Forest Avenue.

WANTED—A Highland Park residence, $15,000 to $20,000, or choice vacant. Address R. N. L. this office.

Mrs. Arthur Johnson and daughter Grace, of Irving Park spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Henry K. Coale.

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Holabird and Miss Amy Holibird are home from their month's outing in Wisconsin.

Mr. W. C. Scott with his daughter, Miss Isabel, are planning to return to America from Scotland this month.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Evans of Winnetka, with their son Irving are visiting Mr. Henry Evans in Utica, New York.

Mr. and Mrs. George S. McReynolds, formerly of Highland Park, are planning to spend the winter abroad. They sail early in October.

Only four (4) more of those fine 40 feet lots on Highwood avenue, opposite the M. E. Church. F. C. Clark, 826 Clark street, Highland Park. s-4-4

The Misses Edith, Annie and Charity McKenzie visited Miss Daisy Elliott in Chicago last week. Miss Elliott is a student of Chicago University.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Wilcox entertained at dinner Wednesday evening at the Moraine in honor of guests from New York, and Chicago. Covers were laid for ten.

Charles Larson of Elyria, Ohio, spent several days last week with his brothers in Highland Park. His son Glen, who has been spending the summer here, returned with him to Elyria to begin school this week.

The series of sermons on the Ten Commandments at the First United Evangelical Brick Church, continues with increasing interest. Next Sunday evening, the Seventh Commandment. Social evils will be dealt with.

Mrs. Buckman, who has been visiting her sister Mrs. Anson C. Morgan the past month returned to her home in Minneapolis Wednesday, taking Master Clenben Morgan with her. Mrs. A. C. Morgan will go to Minneapolis next week.

WANTED, HORSE—Gentle combination horse about 1100 lbs 15 to 16 hands, must be fit for lady to drive, and fair saddler. Nothing but perfectly sound animal considered. Answer with full description and price to DRIVER, care News-Letter.

The Misses Madeline and Vera Wesson of Springfield, Massachusetts, and Miss Dorothy Upham of Boston, have come from the East for the wedding of Miss Elsie Boulton, and are now at the Boulton home on Prospect avenue. Miss Eleanor Davis of New York, another of the bridesmaids, will come the first of next week. Miss Boulton is having many functions given in her honor. Miss Verlinda Chandler gives a luncheon today, Miss Julie Cummins will give one on Monday at her home in Lake Forest, Misses Helen and Julie Morgan entertain on Tuesday at luncheon for Miss Boulton, and Miss Sadie Buckley will be a hostess in her honor on Thursday.

W. A. Averill left this week to attend the Chicago university.

Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Rice and son Elsen visited friends in Deerfield on Labor Day.

W. E. Brand had a very fine display of his paintings at the Libertyville fair.

Several of the stores closed on Thursday to enable the merchants to attend the fair.

Miss Helen Whitney returned on Saturday from a visit to her Canadian home and a trip east.

Rev. Geo. D. Rogers and son Robert visited Mr. and Mrs. Edward Miller of Deerfield on Tuesday.

Mrs. A. W. Waldo and children, who have been at Geneva Lake for several weeks, are at home again.

Frank Sheaben has added to the appearance of his home on Central avenue by the addition of two porches.

Master Parker Nelson returned to his home in South Chicago last Saturday. He has been visiting M. Bergman.

Miss E. L. Bortree, formerly of Highland Park but now living in Chicago, spent a few days this week with Mrs. Alexander Robertson.

Mr. David E. Gray of Boston is visiting his mother, Mrs. Elisha Gray on Hazel avenue. Mrs. David Gray has been in the Park for the summer.

Mrs. James Watson and daughter Helen have returned from Momence, Illinois. Dr. and Mrs. Watson are now occupying their new house on Linden avenue.

The Highland Park Woman's Club will hold their meetings this year in the audience room of the Grammar school. The New Year Books are ready for inspection.

Mr. Fred Wessling of Chicago died very suddenly at his home in Chicago. The funeral services were held at his late residence on Wednesday. Burial was at Rose Hill.

Mr. and Mrs. John Whitney, parents of Miss...

visit and after visiting with her for a week here will make their home with their daughter in Chicago Lawn.

Mrs. William Tillman visited her mother at Wheeling last week but was taken very ill while there and returned home here where she has been confined to her bed. Her many friends will be grieved to know of her serious illness.

Mrs. L. M. Bergen has returned from Carthage, Missouri, where she has been visiting her brother, Mr. Hugh McFarlane for a month. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Howell, who have been occupying the Bergen house during August, have gone to Chicago for the winter.

Owing to the yellow fever epidemic in Louisiana the state board of health at Jackson, Miss., has issued an order that all telephone repairers outside the infected district should have absolute freedom of movement and that all Health officers and Mayors of towns should issue them health certificates.

With a view to improving the already beautiful suburb of Lake Forest, the residents of that city have made application to the Secretary of State at Springfield for incorporation papers for a horticultural society. The object of the society to be to promote and encourage the study of horticulture, floriculture and gardening in general, and to hold exhibitions of their products annually. Some of the promoters of this new society are Byron L. Smith, A. B. Dick, E. F. Gorton, H. H. Martin, Jesse L. Moss, Carter H. Fitzhugh, James Viles Jr, Emil Bollinger, George L. Blanchard, Julius W. Scharfenberg, and George Koffenholfer.

Miss Allexan of Chicago is visiting Miss Nellie Ogilvie.

WANTED—A cook and laundress. Mrs. B. W. Schumacher, Laurel avenue.

Mrs. William Glass of London, Ontario, is visiting her son, Mr. John Glass.

Mr. and Mrs. George Tucker are rejoicing over the advent of a baby boy, born Tuesday.

Mrs. James McDonald, with Miss Leffie of Oak Park, has gone to Oregon for a week or more.

Mrs. Samuel Levin entertained a large number of ladies at her home on Friday afternoon of last week.

FOR SALE—A side saddle, in good condition. Price $10.00 Apply to Major N. P. Newcomb, Fort Sheridan.

Mr. and Mrs. Kennett Cowen have rented the W. A. Merigold house on Linden avenue and will move into it next week.

Mrs. John Glass was hostess at a luncheon on Friday in honor of Miss Dodge of Washington who is a guest of Mrs. Charles Yoe.

Miss Mabel Harlow who has been visiting her mother the past three weeks, left on Friday for a months trip on the Lakes. She will visit at Duluth.

Mr. and Mrs. Duffy of Chicago have recently purchased Mr. E. M. Snow's house on Central avenue. Mr. and Mrs. Duffy have been living this summer at Lake Bluff.

The final reckoning of the net proceeds of the Vaudeville given at the Moraine last week Tuesday evening shows $745 clear added to the treasury of Gad's Hill settlement fund.

Mr. and Mrs. Phillips and daughter of Indianapolis, who have been spending the summer with Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Davidson, are visiting friends in Peoria and Springfield before returning to Indiana.

An unknown man was struck by an electric car near Ravinia Sunday night. He was taken to the hospital in Lake Forest, but died in about three hours. He was a foreigner and unknown here.

Miss Sara N. Eno, of Charlotte, Vt., is spending a few days with her aunt Mrs. Hibbard at 220 Dale avenue. She is enroute to Austin, Texas., where she has accepted a position as teacher in a young ladies school.

Schmidley and McNanley have secured the heating contract on Mrs. H. J. Bardwell's fine new residence at Ravinia Park. They have also taken the heating contract for Mr. Woodcock's new residence on Linden avenue.

Prof. Fredrick Grover and Miss Eulalie Grover returned from their western trip late last week. Miss Annie Grover, who has been visiting friends in the East during the summer months, returned to Highland Park yesterday.

A civil service examination for Post Office clerk carriers will be held in the public Library building on Tuesday September 12th, 1905., at 9 a. m. by order of the district secretary. There are over twenty applications for the positions.

Death of Mr. Krumbach

Henry Krumbach, born August 1st, 1847, in Hesse Darmstadt, Germany, died at his residence one and one half miles west of Highland Park, of heart failure, September 2nd, 1905., aged 58 years, 1 month, 1 day.

He came to America 54 years ago with his parents, settling in Chicago. January 11th, 1874, he was united in marriage with Julie Kenczorra of Chicago, in 1884 removing to Deerfield Township. This union was blest with three sons and two daughters, one daughter, Mrs. Ludwig, and two sons, George and William, together with the mother surviving. Funeral services were held at the late residence on Tuesday morning, Rev. Eugene F. Fuessle of the First United Evangelical Church officiating. Interment at Wunder's Cemetery, Chicago.