

HIGHWOOD

Mrs. Stang is confined to her home by illness.

Thursday was pay day for the soldiers at the Post.

Nate Hook is recovering from a severe attack of appendicitis.

Mr. and Mrs. William Curley are the parents of a baby girl born recently.

Mrs. Charles Hangren went this week to Augustina hospital, where she will undergo an operation.

Many people from this city attended the county fair at Libertyville Thursday, and report a fine time.

Ruth, the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Cummings, was quite severely bitten by a vicious dog Wednesday.

H. L. Steensohn has been taking C. E. Preston's place as salesman for Walsh, Boyle & Co., grocers of Chicago, a few days this week.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Preston and son left Tuesday for Portland, Ore., where they will attend the fair, afterward going to California to visit relatives. They plan to be absent about six weeks.

Sergt. Lewis Turley of Co. I 27 Infantry, on Sunday night Sept. 3rd, found a ring in Highwood. Owner can get same by calling on me and describing the lost property.

John Turner, who works for Owen Garrity, was severely injured while hunting last Wednesday. He was using a double barrel shot gun, and dis-

It has been definitely settled that Highwood is to have a band. A preliminary meeting was held last week Thursday evening and on Thursday evening of this week, parts were assigned. There will be about 15 members, and many of them are to buy new instruments.

Private Robert Bruce, the well known Indian baritone soloist of the 27th Infantry band, was run over by an electric car late Sunday night, and both legs were cut off. The accident happened just north of Ft. Sheridan Park about 12 o'clock. The motorman did not see Bruce until almost upon him, and as the car was south bound on the grade, it could not be stopped in time to prevent the accident. The unfortunate man was taken to the Post hospital and it is expected that he will recover. Bruce is a baritone player of more than ordinary ability, and has played under nearly all the great leaders of the country, and was at one time with the Banda Rossa, which comes to Ravinia Park next week. He joined the 27th Infantry band about a year ago, and has made many friends.

Labor day was a busy day for Police Magistrate Pease, for no less than 12 persons were hauled into court to answer for various misdemeanors. The most notable were those of three barmen from Chicago, who, according to their account, were inspired by the graphic accounts of this city's "badness" which appeared in a Chicago paper a few days ago. They were moved to show the natives a thing or two, but found them unfriendly. They were "loaded" when they arrived in town, and were put off the car at Wagner's restaurant, where created a disturbance, assaulting Mr. Wagner when he attempted to make them "move on". About this time Marshal Gordon appeared on the scene and escorted them in honor to the cooler, where they were allowed to meditate on the unhealthy climate. Judge Pease demonstrated that they were not desirable visitors, and they withdrew after settling certain bills.

Sergeant F. E. Toy, of the Ordnance Department, United States Army, delivered a very interesting illustrated lecture on the Battle of wounded Knee, in the General Mess Hall at the Fort Monday evening last. Sergeant Toy took part in the battle of Wounded Knee, and was awarded a medal of Honor for gallantry. He told a straightforward story of the fight, without any attempt at word-painting. It was the style of lecture that Army officers and enlisted men like to hear. A number of officers with their families were present. The seats were filled with soldiers and families of the Post. The Children's Minstrels completed the evening's entertainment. The organization consists of Rutch Rettig, Carrie Ley, Ethel Ley, Irene Ley, Anna Coon, and Winfred Toy. These young people made up as minstrels and with their jokes, songs and dances, proved a success. William Taylor of Company 'G' furnished the piano.
