Mrs. Fred Luetig returned home Wednesday from a visit to her mother. Her health is much improved and her speedy recovery is hoped for.

Miss Bessie Day expects to leave soon for the south. Her sister and husband Mr. and Mrs. A. Boynton, have but lately returned from Mexico, where they went a year ago after their marriage. Mr. and Mrs. Boynton will be warmly welcomed back by their many friends.

The library building under the auspices of the woman's club is progressing rapidly. The fund for it is increasing with the growth of the little building itself. Mrs. Robert Scott, who returned from Europe but shortly, has given one hundred dollars for the purpose, and other donations are promised.

The first meeting of the club beginning the winter sessions, was held at the residence of Mrs. Howard Thursday afternoon, and proved to be very interesting. A very entertaining paper, on Municipal Housekeeping, was read and discussed. Mrs. Kotz, sister of Mrs. Zeising, and energetic club worker, was the author.

The war between Glencoe and the Chicago Automobile Club, goes merrily on. They have only changed their battle ground from the village court to Chicago. It is said that it is easy enough to pick a quarrel if one feels like it. It must be, also, easy enough to continue quarreling if one or both parties are inclined to do so; not that the Chicago club was anxious to have a disturbance, it simply could not stand being "shaken up" by the village "bumps" and having asked the town, politely, to please remove those obstructions to beauty and pleasure and having been refused, it has resolved to use force, and the circuit court in Chicago is trying to induce the town to undergo a surgical operation for a permanent removal of the Sheridan and Green Bay "bumps." The village is reluctant to tear up her newly laid brick crossings which have decreased if not obliterated the scorching offences, and claims other suburbs, commonly lay crossings equal in height to those and no complaint is made of it.

A committee was expected Thursday from the city to pass their opinion as to the harm done, if any, to the vehicles driven over the so called obstructions. The committee, about twelve in number, surprised the Glencoeites by appearing Wednesday evening instead, when two automobiles and a buggy were used for the experiment which lasted an hour or more to no definite result. It looks as if the Chicago Automobile Club will yet buy a little town of its own where such things as speed limits, stop watches, police courts and "bumps" will be as things unknown.

Judge Lane sat in his court, Thursday afternoon, with a severe countenance, when an attachment suit was brought against the Chicago bank corresponding with the First National bank of Kenosha, Wisconsin, for the nonpayment of a check due the village.

It all reverts back to the a b c, of Glencoe's troubles, the automobile. Sunday, a young fellow, son of the president of the Kenosha bank, drove his auto at a rate a little exceeding sixteen miles per hour through the town; unfortunately for him, he was without sufficient funds to meet the fine imposed upon him when arrested and knew no one to go his bond. Legal proceedings not being conducted on Sunday, the village jail would have been his only alternative had the magistrate not waived custom and accepted a check on the Kenosha bank in lieu of the cash fine, twenty-five dollars. A broken speed limit seems a small thing to keep a man over night in jail for, yet clemency went unrewarded for, through the intercession of the young ordinance breaker the check has not been honored, but the village is not beaten yet and evidently he will be compelled to pay his fine and expenses.

Signs, stating the

are ordered placed at the northern and southern limits of Glencoe by the council. "It is hoped they will be of some assistance in stopping this fining business," said a member of that body, the other day. "It sounds pretty bad to say we took in seventy-five dollars Saturday and $100 Sunday in fines, but for all that we are not so bad as we are painted. We only want reasonable protection on our streets, that is all."

At the Skokie Club

The handicap tourneys are still the chief attraction at the little Glencoe Country Club, to the golf lovers, at least, and the handsome trophies up for the men, have spurred them on to some very good scores. The women, who are playing for some equally fine cups, are more happy-go-lucky in their methods, but they seem to finish in time for each week's match play and are not worrying over the outcome.

The men's schedule for to-days round stands as follows: For the President's cup, G. H. Leslie is matched against W. M. Dean, Wm. Houghteling against P. Manchester and J. C. Howard against M. M. Gridley.

For the Director's cup, L. J. Dudley is matched against Frank W. Copeland, E. J. Sherman against M. F. Ewen, A. F. Town against W. I. Howland and R. Whitman against F. E. Miller.

The Saturday night dances, which have been popular all summer, are doubly so now, since the piano has given place to Brown's orchestra and both the porches and halls are thrown open to the dancers. Many dinners were given Saturday evening, as usual, while Monday, with Mrs. Lamprecht's Dutch luncheon, began a series of luncheons for the week. Of the many pleasant affairs Mrs. Peyton's was, perhaps, one of the daintiest, and Mr. Elmer of Winnetka was the host of a stag luncheon on Tuesday, which was greatly enjoyed.

Some club guests who left this week for their home in Englewood, New Jersey, are Mr. and Mrs. Seeley and family. They have spent the greater part of the summer at the club and will be missed considerably, both at the social functions and on the links.

Miss Edna Owsley, who poured tea on the veranda, Saturday afternoon, with her assistants made a gay and attractive little group, administering to strenuous golfers.

Some amusing stories are told of the new use for the telephone. An operator in one of the towns near Chicago was addressed by a young lady who had apparently struck upon a happy thought.

"Oh, Central," she said, "call me to-morrow morning about twenty minutes before that 6:49 train goes to Chicago: I have just got to catch that train. And say, I wish you would telephone down to the depot before calling me and ask if the train is late. If it is behind call me accordingly. This number is seven-eleven. Thank you. Good-by."
