

Public Library, Mrs Jennings Oct 7 05

HIGHLAND PARK NEWS-LETTER

Volume 18

HIGHLAND PARK, ILLINOIS, SEPTEMBER 30, 1905

Number 21

What People Are Doing in Highland Park

Miss Delia M. Farrell has gone to Raton, New Mexico where she will spend the winter.

Mr. C. E. Wilcox has been confined to his home with illness for a week.

Mrs. Ellsworth and family have taken up their winter residence at Everett, Ill.

The ladies of the Exmoor Club gave a tea on the club veranda Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. Walfenden and little daughter of Chicago, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Smith.

Mrs. D. H. Champlin entertained eight friends at luncheon at the Exmoor Club on Wednesday.

Dr. A. R. Sheldon is spending a few days with his parents in Norwalk, Ohio. He is expected home on Tuesday.

Rev. T. P. Dudley, formerly a chaplain in the British army in India, was a guest of Rev. Rogers

in Highland Park

Mrs. L. G. Yoe leaves today to visit her daughter, Mrs. Williams, in Kansas.

Mr. and Mrs. Dudley Rutter, 26 Delaware Place, returned to their home on Saturday.

Mr. Fred Moon and Mr. Charles Grant have been spending the week camping at Fox Lake.

Mrs. and Mrs. W. D. Alford have been spending a week in Downers Grove and Chicago.

Miss Grace Diehl was hostess at a small dinner party before the Club cotillion last evening.

Mr. and Mrs. James Hobart Moore are on their way home from Europe, having sailed Wednesday, the 20th on the Oceanic.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Muhlke and Mr. and Mrs.

Miss Katherine Cullin of Chicago spent Sunday at the home of Mrs. M. E. Kelley.

Mr. Crook of Cleveland, Ohio, is visiting his daughter, Mrs. W. H. Baldwin.

Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Ford spent Sunday with Mr. Ford's brother and his family at Oak Park.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Miller of Park Ridge spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Norenberg.

Mr. and Mrs. John Russell and family are spending the week with Mr. and Mrs. James Grant.

Mr. and Mrs. T. F. Miller and Miss Minetta Miller are again in their cottage on Sheridan Road after a summer spent in Evanston.

Mr. Herbert Messenger started for Colorado on Saturday. He will remain there about 25 days.

Miss Millard, who has been in health, has gone to a sanitarium. Mrs. Millard will close their Highland Park residence and make her home with her daughter, Mrs. Hugo Fisher, at Ravenswood.

Miss Lisbeth Lovell, who has been spending the summer in Highland Park at the houses of Mrs. W. T. Underwood and Mrs. Lovell, will return to her home in Charleston, West Virginia, next Tuesday.

A number of the people of the Baptist church attended the assembly of the Chicago Baptist Association held at Wheaton, Thursday and Friday. Rev. George D. Rogers, D. M. Erskine, Mrs. Charles Warren and Mrs. George B. Cummings were delegates.

Mrs. A. R. Mauck, mother of Mr. J. W. Mauck, formerly of this city, died at the home of her son, Mr. A. O. Mauck of Yorktown, Virginia, on Wednesday, Sept. 27. Mr. Mauck and Miss Nora Fesler, her granddaughter, have the sympathy of many friends.

Miss Elizabeth Steele is entertaining Miss Wentz, one of her school mates from Miss Summer's school in Washington. On Wednesday Miss Steele gave a small luncheon in Chicago, followed by a theater party, and Thursday evening Miss Steele was hostess at a euchre party in honor of Miss Wentz.

The Northwestern Military Academy opened Wednesday with 93 students. The present buildings have accommodations for only 80 boys and the company tents have been called into use for the overflow. Something might well be said of this year's catalogue of the N. W. A. It is printed on splendid paper, with fine illustrations, gilt edges and a cloth binding, a book that would be interesting on any home table and one of the finest if not the best catalogues published in any school.

Bishop Hartzler of Pennsylvania, was in Highland Park Sunday and delivered the sermon at the United Evangelical church in the evening.

Mrs. Ernest Tossetti and Miss Tossetti who have been spending the summer at the Moraine, returned to their home in Chicago last week.

Mrs. W. R. Cregier has been spending a week in Wisconsin. During her absence Mr. and Mrs. John Washburn have been occupying her house.

Mrs. C. W. Winchester, who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. John Putnam, for several months, expect to return to New York, Monday next.

Mrs. F. C. Norenberg entertained at luncheon on Monday for three guests, Mrs. Slanger of Ravinia, Mrs. John Wessling and Miss Wessling of Northfield.

Mrs. Will T. Stewart, 136 Lincoln Park Boulevard, formerly of Highland Park, entertained at afternoon tea on Monday in honor of her guests, Mrs. Thomas Gould Otes, Jr., and Miss Auten, both of Pasadena, California.

Mr. C. M. Lewis, who has been with Dr. Hough of the Smithsonian Institute of Washington, on a scientific expedition in Arizona and New Mexico, the past summer, has returned to Highland Park, where he will remain for two months.

A wedding of interest to a large number of Highland Park people will occur in La Grange, Indiana, October 17th, when Miss Gertrude Brown, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Brown of that city will be married to Dr. H. B. Roberts of Highland Park. Dr. Roberts has rented the rooms now occupied by the Chicago Telephone Exchange, and after the middle of October his office will be located there.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin L. Lobdell have closed their summer home on Sheridan Road, and the family are now in their home in Chicago.

Mrs. B. A. Fessenden invited a large number of friends to her house last Sunday evening to hear Miss Jessie Harding in several readings.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Evans of Winnetka have returned from their visit in the east, and two daughters of Mr. Henry Evans of Utica, New York, are now visiting them.

James Martin has sold his livery to Martin Ringdahl, former manager for Mr. James Martin. The Martin family, who has been spending the summer in the Park, returned to Chicago on the 20th.

A large number of young people surprised Miss Hedwig Norenberg on Wednesday evening by tendering her a china shower at her home on second street. Miss Norenberg's marriage to Mr. William Roth of Cuyler, Illinois, will occur in October.

First Baptist church, Highland Park. Sunday evenings at 7:45. A series of sermons on the Bible. Sept. 24th. "Is the Bible True?" October 1st. "Is the Bible Inspired?" October 8th. "The Bible and Miracles." Oct 15th. "The Bible and Geology." Oct. 22nd "The Bible and English Literature." Good music. Seats free. You will be welcome.

Last evening the Highland Park Club was the scene of a large cotillion given by the club as the opening dance of the winter season. A large number were in attendance and several dinners were given before the dance. The hostesses for the evening were—Mrs. F. R. McMullin, Mrs. M. E. Sampson, Mrs. F. R. Partridge, Mrs. J. F. L. Curtis, Mrs. E. F. Carry. It is the plan of the club to have an entertainment of some kind every Friday evening during the winter and on Saturday nights pool and billiards will be enjoyed by the men.