

What People Are Doing in Highland Park

Mr. Ambrose Haungs, Jr., spent Sunday with his sister, Mrs. John S. Reesman.

Miss Cecelia Madden, sister of the former pastor of St. Mary's church, has been spending several days in the Park.

Lost:—Sept. 24, a pearl sunburst, between the Lake and Post-office on Laurel avenue. Return to this office and receive reward.

The name of the Lake Forest boys school has been changed by the trustees. It will hereafter be known as the Lake Forest Academy.

Word has come from the Hugh McFarlanes of Carthage, Mo., that their three children are ill with scarlet fever. Madame McFarlane left for Carthage this week.

On Thursday Mrs. Dayrenforth entertained at luncheon at the club for eight guests. The same day Mrs. C. W. Buckley and Miss Towner gave a luncheon for twelve ladies.

The weekly entertainment at the Highland Park club last night was a bridge whist party with the following ladies as hostesses: Mrs. K. R. Smoot, Mrs. H. C. Tilman, Mrs. D. F. Kelley, Mrs. H. H. Doty.

Evening worship will be observed at Ebenezer church as usual at 7.30 p. m. The subject of the sermon by Rev. Ebert will be "Beginnings Beneath, Consummations Above." All are cordially invited to this service.

The annual bazaar and festival for the benefit of St. Mary's church begins today and will continue for a week in Goldberg's hall. Special programs of music are being prepared for the entertainment of the people attending.

The Exmoor Club gives a Harvest dinner and dance tonight. Among those giving dinner parties are: Mrs. F. L. Curtis, 26; Carl Heinzen, 11; Mrs. C. E. Finney, 5; Mr. F. H. Warren, Jr. 8; Mrs. R. E. Pratt, 4; Mrs. O. H. Morgan, 14; Mrs. W. H. Pratt, 10; Mrs. H. C. Metcalf, 8; Mr. J. C. Everett, 6.

Mrs. Scott Durand's "model dairy" at Lake Forest will soon be moved into the country. The announcement has halted action by the Lake Forest town board, which had intended to condemn the place as a public nuisance. There are several sites in view but it is not yet decided just where the dairy will be located.

Last Saturday evening Mrs. Charles Lungren suffered a serious accident while driving with three friends. The horse ran away and Mrs. Lungren jumped from the carriage breaking an upper and lower limb and cutting her head badly. On Sunday Mrs. Lungren was taken to the Augustina hospital and her friends are glad to know she is doing nicely.

The open meeting of the Highland Park Woman's club will be held Tuesday afternoon, Oct. 10th at 2:45 in the audience room of the Public School building. An interesting program for the year has been arranged and a good attendance at the meetings is desired. Next Tuesday the meeting will be opened with a business session and roll call, after which Mrs. H. C. Sampson will read a paper the subject of which will be "Barrie." A social hour will follow and an interesting and profitable afternoon is assured to all who attend.

To RENT:—Six room flat. 117 St. John's avenue.

FOUND:—Small purse, containing money. Owner may have same by describing contents and paying charges. Inquire at this office.

To RENT:—On Sheridan Road near Linden avenue, whole or half of furnished house. Also four unfurnished rooms heated. Apply at this office.

First Baptist church, Public Worship at 10:45, and 7:45. B. Y. P. U. at 7:00 o'clock. Subject for the evening, "The Bible and Miracles." All welcome. Seats free.

First Church of Christ, Scientist, Hazel avenue near St. Johns. Service Sundays at 10:45 a. m., Wednesdays at 8 p. m. Lesson Subject for October 8th is "Doctrine of Atonement." Reading room in church open every Wednesday from 2 to 5 p. m.

Mrs. George T. Cole and Miss Kavanaugh issued invitations to one hundred or more friends in Highland Park to attend an exhibit and sale of pictures by Elmer Wachtel and Marion Kavanaugh at the home of Mrs. Cole on Wednesday afternoon. Those who availed themselves of this splendid opportunity to see this fine collection of paintings were delighted that they had attended the exhibit and expressed their appreciation.

Great preparations are being made for a minstrel show to be given by a number of the ladies of the Highland Park club next Friday evening. The affair is in charge of Mrs. Charles F. Everett, and those taking part are:—Mrs. H. M. Bacon, Mrs. James Prindiville, Mrs. Harold Sweetland, Mrs. M. E. Sampson, Mrs. George Mason, Miss Helen Morgan, Miss Viola Shields, Miss Sadie Buckley, Mrs. E. E. Andrews, Mrs. W. A. Alexander, Miss Willa Lovel, Miss Jean Troxel, Mrs. Kenneth Cowen, Miss Ethel Turnley and Miss Frances Everett.

News came this week of the death of Dr. Henry H. Boulter, who for several years practiced dentistry in Highland Park. Dr. Boulter died in Pensacola, Florida, on Tuesday morning. He was born October 9, 1852, at Port Sarnia, Canada, and came to Chicago in 1877. Three years ago he settled in Pensacola, Florida. He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Nellie Boulter, one child Melville, his mother, Mrs. Sarah Boulter of Chicago, two brothers, Dr. H. R. Boulter and J. H. Boulter of South Haven.

Sunday School Convention

The Lake County Sunday School Association will hold its annual convention in the Presbyterian church of this city Thursday and Friday, Oct. 12th and 13th, and a very interesting program has been prepared for the meetings. The convention will open Thursday morning at 10:30 and hold an afternoon and evening meeting that day and hold a session Friday morning and one Friday afternoon. Some of the able speakers on the program are: Mr. H. O. Clissold, Miss Nellie McDougall, Rev. Martin C. Cady, D. D., Mrs. H. M. Lamphear, Dr. J. F. Roemer, Rev. A. M. Stephens, Rev. Ray Erickson, Mr. C. F. Wright, Rev. J. G. Briggs, and Mr. Horace D. Cook. Highland Park is also well represented on the program by Rev. H. F. Eber, Rev. Geo. D. Rogers, Mrs. F. D. Everett, Mrs. W. T. Underwood, Mrs. William Noernberg, Rev. N. W. Grover, Rev. A. A. Pfanstiehl, Mr. E. O. Grover and Mr. E. P. Sedgewick.

Mr. John S. Reesman is attending the electrical convention at Peoria, Illinois, this week.

FOR SALE:—Good cow, fresh milk this month, also hay for sale. H. Juhrend, 220 Bloom street. 3t.

Wanted—Situation by German lady as governess or as companion to elderly lady. Fine needlework and plain sewing. Address G, this office.

A party of visitors to Zion City is being organized by Mr. George H. Morris, who will act as guide in the city. The party will leave Highland Park at 9 a. m. Thursday on a C. & M. Electric car, returning in the afternoon. Dinner can be secured in Zion City. All who would like to join the party are requested to communicate with Mr. Morris between the hours of 7 and 8 Monday or Tuesday evenings, or visit him at 110 Elm Place. The readers of this announcement are requested to call the attention of friends to it.

Mrs. C. E. Wilcox met with an automobile accident while running with her friends, Mr. Snyder and his fiancée, Miss Salisbury, into Chicago last Sunday evening. The car got stalled on the road at Calvary and was struck by a trolley car. Mrs. Wilcox was thrown from the automobile and severely bruised. Her friends remained in the car and suffered only a shaking up. The friends of Mrs. Wilcox will be glad to know that the accident did not prove serious and that she is feeling herself again.

The Fecl club will meet at the home of Mr. E. O. Grover this evening to elect new officers for the coming year. This club of young boys has been doing good work this summer in a charitable line and every week a large basket of fresh vegetables was sent by them to the West Division Street Mission, where they were distributed to poor families in which vegetables were a luxury seldom enjoyed. This club also furnished a large number of books for a library and reading room in the Mission church.

Office
Stationery

Maximum Quality
Minimum Cost

SHERIDAN ROAD
PUBLISHING COMPANY