

HIGHWOOD

E. J. Skehan has gone to Anderson, Indiana, for a two months visit.

Miss Della Breakwell is the possessor of a fine new piano, bought this week.

A baby boy was born last Friday to Mr. and Mrs. O. S. Gooch of High street.

Mrs. Burns and Miss Bessie McTarnany, visited friends in Brighton Park this week.

The Ladies Auxilliary of the Methodist church met with Mrs. Lucas on Prairie avenue Thursday afternoon.

David Moran has moved into his new saloon on Waukegan avenue. He now has the smallest saloon in the city.

John P. Carson and Mrs. Emma Conley Hart of Fort Sheridan, will be married at St. Mary's church, Highland Park, next Sunday.

Louis Mead and family left Thursday for Los Angeles, California, where they will make their future home until Mr. Mead's health improves.

E. T. Mathews is erecting a fine new two story flat building on Webster avenue. The building will be equipped with steam heat, electric lights, and all modern improvements.

Oscar Swan and Miss Helen Nelson were married at Chicago last Saturday. They will reside in Highwood, and next week will start housekeeping in the home with the bride's parents.

The front of the saloon on Waukegan avenue formerly occupied by David Moran is being repaired, and will shortly be occupied as a saloon again by John Devine and John D. Goehringer.

The congregation of the English Methodist church are very well pleased with their new pastor, Rev. Mr. Parrison of Evanston, who preached to his new charge for the first time last Sunday.

Jacob P. Moore of Everett, and Miss Lillian E. Kemper of Northfield, were married at the home of the bride's parents on Wednesday of this week. Mr. Moore is well known in this city, and friends extend congratulations.

Mrs. Laurence Oleson and Miss Jennie M. DeRoo attended the meeting of the Federation of Women's Clubs at Joliet last week, as delegates from the Highland Park Woman's Club. They report a very interesting session.

Daniel Pease has been appointed supervisor of the work on the new sewer and septic tank, and has entered enthusiastically upon his duties. If Highwood doesn't have a well constructed sewer system, it wont be the Judge's fault.

H. J. Hemingway and John Devine have entered into a partnership in the restaurant business, at Mr. Devine's old stand on Waukegan avenue. We wish the new firm success. Mr. Hemingway will continue his market as heretofore.

The rummage sale held by the Ladies' Auxilliary of the Methodist Church last Friday and Saturday was an unqualified success. The ladies realized over $40. from the affair. The proceeds will be used for the bazaar which the ladies are planning to give in the early part of December.

There was a full attendance at the Council meeting Tuesday evening, but not much business was transacted. An ordinance was passed authorizing the city to issue bonds in the sum of $4,500 for part payment on the new sewer system. The council ordered Fire Marshal George Conrad to keep the door of the fireman's room unlocked at all times, that there may be no-delay in case of fire. City Treasurer H. L. Steensohn rendered his monthly report, which shows a balance of $7,079.23 in the city treasury. The report was approved and filed. All bills presented were paid in full. The meeting then adjourned.

See Preston Bros' new adv. in this issue. They sell the best coffee produced. And make it an object for you to buy of them.
