

GLENCOE NOTES

Miss Helen Martin has been ill during the past week.

Mrs. Ben Newhall entertained at progressive bridge, Tuesday evening.

Mrs. August Zeising received Wednesday from four until six. About two hundred ladies called.

A very charming tea was given by Mrs. Noland, Friday. A great many guests were received during the afternoon.

Mrs. Delang entertained several young ladies at luncheon, Saturday, as a surprise for her daughter, Miss Jessie Delang.

Mrs. Louis Gordon, who has been east for several months, has returned to her home with her niece, Mrs. F. W. Copeland.

Mrs. W. V. Jacobs was the hostess of a progressive bridge party, Friday afternoon, in honor of Miss Peyson of Winnetka.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Holloway and daughter, Miss Ruth Holloway, left Monday for their future home in Detroit, Michigan.

Mr. Macindo and his bride of Australia are visiting Mr. Macindo's sister, Mrs. Archie McLeish. Mr. and Mrs. Macindo are touring the world for their wedding trip and will leave here for England.

Miss Marjorie Spence of Toronto, Canada, is the guest of her aunt, Mrs. D. Grissette. Miss Spence was one of the party, chaperoned by Mrs. F. W. Copeland, at the Harvest Home dance at the Skokie Club Saturday evening.

Mrs. W. A. Kittermaster entertained about thirty little folks Hallowe'en for her small son, Dougal Kittermaster. Hallowe'en games were played and immensely enjoyed by the little men and women and ten o'clock came all too soon.

The camp of Woodmen having its headquarters in the village, will give a dance this evening at the village hall. The Glencoe chapter of the Woodmen is a comparatively new organization, having been started here about a year ago. This is their first large entertainment and they expect it to be quite a notable one.

Mr. and Mrs. James Enright were the prime movers in a complete and pleasant Hallowe'en surprise party for Miss Rose Enright of Lakeside, Tuesday evening. The party was composed of young people of Winnetka and Glencoe. Mystery held sway all the evening and the future was foretold by various signs and symbols peculiar to Hallowe'en. Mrs. Enright was a resident of Glencoe before her marriage and has been visiting her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. M. T. Lane, the past week.

The unfortunate accident that occurred Sunday on the North-Western road at Park avenue, is but another instance illustrating the danger of attempting to mount a train while in motion, and adds another misfortune to the already long list of such mishaps. Walter Bohnhoff, son of George Bohnhoff, and residing with his parents in the village, expecting to meet some friends in Chicago, intended taking the 1:25 for the city. He was a little late for the train and began running some distance from the station, reaching the train after it had pulled out and was crossing Park avenue. He grasped the railing and attempted to pull himself up, but, owing to his exhaustion from over exertion, was unable to and slipped down, breaking one leg in two places while the toes of both feet were crushed. The young man has been removed to the Evanston Hospital where small hopes are entertained for his recovery.

The village council will meet Tuesday, November 7th, at the village hall.

Mr. and Mrs. Heaton Owsley and the Misses Lina and Edna Owsley have left their summer home by the Lake and opened their house in Astor Place for the winter.

Mr. Franklyn Newhall is rebuilding the breakwater in front of his home on the shore. The pier was washed away partly and considerably damaged by the storms last spring.

The village hall will be thrown open Wednesday night, November 8th, when drainage trustee T. J. Webb will give a complimentary lecture on the drainage canal. The lecture will be suitably illustrated.

The election of Judges for the superior court of Cook County, takes place Tuesday, November 7th. The usual polls at the village hall will be open to the residents of Glencoe and its district.

A question that will come before the Cook County voters and one that is of interest to the North Shore inhabitants as well, is the Forest Preserve District Act, approved by the Illinois General Assembly May eighteenth, 1905, and enforced July first, 1905. It is entitled, "An act to provide for the creation of Forest Preserve Districts." The subject has come up from time to time and has been considered by those personally interested in the outcome and others.

The remaining and last ballot presented Tuesday is of purely local interest, being the decision, pro or con, for the village Public Library. Seemingly small, as it is, in comparison to the general election it is yet of enough importance to bear repetition of announcement and to command local attention.

According to Programme

War correspondents would have us believe that the entire proceedings of the Japanese army in the present war form a kind of exalted book-keeping. Not only are victories won, but they are won at the specified moment.

The New York Times says that a certain colonel had sought Field Marshal Oyama, and asked permission to sacrifice himself and his command by capturing a certain redoubt.

"Which redoubt?" asked Oyama.

The colonel told him.

Oyama consulted his notes.

"My brother," he said, "such glory is not for you. It has been assigned to another. Besides, it is early dawn now, and that redoubt is set down to be taken at half-past ten."

The redoubt was captured on time.

An up to date boy

My little boy is eight years old,
 He goes to school each day;
 He doesn't mind the tasks they set—
 They seem to him but play.
 He heads his class at raffia work,
 And also takes the lead
 At making dinkey paper boats—
 But I wish that he could read.
 They teach him physiology,
 And, oh, it chills our hearts
 To hear poor prattling innocent
 Mix up his inward parts.
 He also learns astrology
 And names the stars by night—
 Of course he's very up to date,
 But I wish that he could write.
 They teach him things botanical,
 They teach him how to draw,
 He babbles of mythology
 And gravitation's law;
 And the discoveries of science
 With him are quite a fad,
 They tell him he's a clever boy,
 But I wish he could add.

—Life.

Letter to Mr. Wm. Millard

Highland Park, Ill.

Dear Sir: Thomas J. Bannon, druggist, Westerly, R. I. says:

Westerly painters expect a gallon of paint, to cover 19 sets of blinds; DeVoe covers 25; there is no such thing as rubbing this out.

(The usual reckoning is for a gallon to cover 16. We suspect the Westerly people don't wear their paint till it gets very shabby.)

DeVoe covers more; of course, we know that; we know why too; it's all paint and full-measure.

Yours truly

F. W. DEVOE & CO.

New York and Chicago.

P. S. D. C. PURDY & SON sell our paint.

Ex-Senator Hamlin

Hannibal Hamlin, for many years United States Senator from Maine, and Vice-President during the Civil War, is credited with the following story on himself by the Boston Herald:

An Englishman by the name of Pearson, while passing along the main street in Bangor, stepped in a hole in the sidewalk, and falling, broke his leg. He brought suit against the city for $1,000 and engaged Hamlin as counsel.

Hamlin won his case, but the city appealed to the supreme court. Here, also, the decision was for Hamlin's client.

After settling up the claim, Hamlin sent for his client and handed him $1.

"What's this?" asked the Englishman.

"That's your damages, after taking out my fee, the cost of the appeal, and several other expenses," said Hamlin.

The Englishman looked at the dollar and then at Hamlin, "What's the matter with this," he said; "is it bad?"

—[Savings.

Some Good Shooting

"Any good shooting on your farm?" asked a sportsman of a farmer.

"Spleudid," replied the agriculturist; "there's a canvasser man down in the clover meadow, a pedlar at the house, a county board candidate out in the barn, and two tramps down in the stackyard. Climb right up over the fence, young man, load both barrels and sail in."
