Miss Flora Coffin gave an informal debutante tea Wednesday at the home of her sister, Mrs. Kreigh Collins, of Bellevue Place, Chicago. It was given for this year's debutantes to meet some of those who were presented last season. Those assisting Mrs. Coffin were, Miss Ethel Kerfoot, Miss Crandall. The Misses Dufee and Miss Whiting, all of Chicago.

Mrs. Amanda Krueger, wife of Mr. William Krueger, died at her home last Sunday. The funeral was held from the German Lutheran church on Tuesday afternoon and the interment was in Mooney's cemetery. Besides her husband Mrs. Krueger left three children, two boys and one girl, and a brother, Mr. Homberg of Highwood.

Henry K. Coale offers good bargains to any one who wishes to purchase good lots suitable for cottages on very reasonable terms. The lots are 29 feet front by 127 feet deep in Lloyd's new subdivision, one block northwest of Highwood depot. The lots will be sold for $150.00, $10 down and $5 each month until paid for. Complete abstract showing perfect title with each lot. Eighty lots in the subdivision. Full information given upon request.

The Northwestern Military Academy gave its annual Hallowe'en party Tuesday evening. The Drill hall was well decorated with pumpkins, and the guests, including the faculty, the cadets and the girls invited, all assembled in fancy dress. Almost every phase of life was represented, from the savage Indian to the most rustic farmer. The usual Hallowe'en pranks were indulged in, and with dancing to close the evening, all the people, young and old, had a very jolly time.

Ravinia Park

Tonight at Ravinia Theatre, Mr. Burton Holmes will deliver his fourth and next to last travelogue of this season's course. The North Shore patrons of Ravinia have shown thorough appreciation of Mr. Holmes' splendid work, both in attendance and enthusiasm. The moving pictures and views of last week's travelogue were extremely interesting, illustrating the Tyrolean Alps from Innsbruck to Italy. This evening's topic promises even more picturesqueness in the way of illustration than the preceding subject as it deals with Switzerland, the most beautiful of all the mountain countries, the eastern part of Switzerland will be the territory used by Mr. Holmes for this evening's lecture. Next week's travelogue, which will be the last of the season will take up the western half of this interesting little country. The casino is now open every afternoon and evening, making a capital stop-over for automobile and driving parties. The cuisine is much improved under the new management, and good things to eat are assured those who wish to partake of them. The ice rink and toboggan slide are now ready to catch the first freeze so that there will be plenty of amusement for the young people of the vicinity for the winter. Single admissions to the park for these sports will be twenty-five cents. Club tickets are also on sale for $3.00 entitling the holder to attend the park for the skating all through the season.

The Mozart Club.

The first concert of the Mozart Club will be held Nov. 4, at 2:30 in Mrs. Annette R. Jones' Studio. The subject for the day will be Franz Liszt.

Not True To Nature

"Mark Twain was visiting H. H. Rogers," said a New York editor. Mr. Rogers led the humorist into his library.

"There," he said, as he pointed to a bust of white marble, "what do you think of that?"

It was a bust of a young woman coiling her hair, a very graceful example of modern Italian sculpture.

Mr. Clemens looked at it a moment and then he said:

"It isn't true to nature."

"Why not?" Mr. Rogers asked.

"She ought to have her mouth full of hairpins," said the humorist.

Hit Both At Once

A good instance of a double reproof occurred in a Scottish church. A lad named Merryweather was very inattentive during the service, greatly to the annoyance of the minister. His father always composed himself for a nap directly the sermon was well under way, so that the boy could do as he liked without parental reproof. The minister could stand it no longer one Sunday, so he stopped suddenly in his sermon, and said: "John Merryweather, if you continue to act in such an unseemly manner during divine worship I shall tell your father. I would tell him now, but he happens to be asleep." From that day Merryweather senior and Junior were model listeners.
