

HIGHLAND PARK NEWS-LETTER

Volume 18

HIGHLAND PARK, ILLINOIS, NOVEMBER 11, 1905

Number 27

What People Are Doing in Highland Park

Mr. E. E. Andrews has returned from his trip to Alaska.

Miss Frances Warner of Wisconsin is a guest of Miss Annie Blattel.

Mrs. Muhlke, and Miss Laura Muhlke, visited friends in Chicago over Sunday.

Mrs. Clinton Spencer and little daughter are visiting Mrs. Spencer's parents in Philadelphia.

Mrs. Thomas Wyles and small son are visiting in St. Louis at the home of Mrs. Richards, Mrs. Wyles' mother.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar M. Snow have closed their house on Central avenue and are at the Chicago Beach Hotel for the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. John Glass and son started Wednesday evening for California, where they will spend the greater part of the winter.

In Fond-Du-Lac, Wisconsin, on Wednesday Miss Catherine Nelson, for several years a resident of Highland Park, was married to Mr. Trescott of Evanston.

Mrs. Daniel Rogers has issued cards for a reception to be given at her home, 90 E. 22nd street, Chicago, Wednesday November 15th. Mrs. Rogers was formerly Miss Helen Wainwright of Fort Sheridan.

The subject of the evening address by Rev. Henry Ebert, at Ebenezer Evangelical church tomorrow will be; "The Glorious Liberty of the Children of God." All are cordially invited to this service at 7:30 o'clock.

Last night the members of the Highland Park Club joined in an evening of dancing at the club house. The hostesses of the party were: Mrs. C. W. Buckley, Mrs. A. C. Morgan, Mrs. W. D. Messenger, and Miss Francis Everett.

A wedding of interest to many Highland Park people was the marriage of Miss Alice Davis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Davis of Lakeside, to Dr. Cornell of Michigan City, Indiana, which occurred on Wednesday of this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Secor Cunningham have closed their summer home, having stayed in Highland Park later than usual this year. Mr. and Mrs. Cunningham will go to Europe in January, and later they will be joined by Mrs. Cunningham's mother, Mrs. H. O. Stone, who sails in February.

Mrs. Harold Sweetland planned a pleasant surprise for Mrs. W. A. Alexander, in celebration of the latter's birthday, and gave a box party last Saturday to see Richard Mansfield in "Don Carlos". Besides Mrs. Sweetland and Mrs. Alexander the guests were: Mrs. M. E. Sampson, Mrs. W. E. Carr, Mrs. J. N. McDowell, and Miss Sadie Buckley.

Mrs. Salome Brand is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Wessling in Northfield.

Miss May Hoffert has taken a position as bookkeeper for Schmidley and McNauley.

Mr. O. H. Morgan is on his way to San Francisco, where he will be for a short time on business.

Miss Lena Schwab and Miss Carrie Folgesong of Washington, Illinois, were guests of Rev. and Mrs. Henry Ebert this week.

Mrs. John A. Putnam entertained Friday afternoon at bridge whist, in honor of her guest, Miss Mary Mills of New York City.

Mrs. John R. Washburn entertained at luncheon on Tuesday of last week in her home on Kenmore avenue, Chicago. Covers were laid for six.

Miss Nellie C. Willes of St. Louis has been visiting Mrs. C. E. Wilcox. Miss Boll, and Miss McGrall of Chicago, spent Sunday with Mrs. Wilcox.

Chaplain George Rice of Fort Sheridan, will give an illustrated lecture on The Passion Play, of Oberammergau, at Ebenezer Evangelical church this evening. Admission is 10 cents.

Mrs. Henry Charles Lytton, Mrs. August Benziger, and Mrs. George Lytton, will be hostesses at an At Home, Saturday, November the 18th, from four until seven o'clock. 2700 Prairie avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. William Roth returned from their wedding trip to California on Wednesday. They are at the home of Mrs. Roth's parents, Mr. and Mrs. August Norenberg.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Schmitz of Ravenswood spent Sunday with their brother, Mr. John Deisges. Masters Milton and Walter Wendling of Chicago have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Deisges for several weeks.

Mr. James Davidson and his mother, Mrs. Davidson of Austin, Minnesota, visited at the Northwestern Military Academy on Thursday. That evening Mr. Davidson gave a most interesting talk on his experiences in the far north, illustrated by lantern slides, to the Northwestern Military Academy faculty and students and a few friends. Mr. Davidson took a trip with Commodore Peary several years ago in search of the north pole.

Many women from Highland Park attended the reception given by Mrs. Carl Curtis Bullock, and Mrs. William Richard Folsom, 568 Dearborn avenue, Chicago, Wednesday afternoon. The guests were asked to meet Mrs. Bullock's mother and sister, Mrs. Folsom and Miss Folsom of Buffalo, who will now make their home in Highland Park. Assisting the hostesses were; Mrs. A. T. Galt, Mrs. George Rickcords, Mrs. Sidney Trevett and Miss Wilson.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Clinch have gone to Chicago for the winter.

Mrs. Sidley is visiting her daughter in Wisconsin for a month or so.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Nally have returned from their trip to Salt Lake City.

Mr. and Mrs. August Norenberg are planning to go to California early in December.

Mr. and Mrs. George Lytton of Chicago spent Sunday with Mrs. Lytton's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Schwarz.

Miss Helen Whitney and Mrs. Wm. E. Brand entertained the Comrades Club of Fort Sheridan on Tuesday evening, at Miss Whitney's home. A large number were present and the soldiers and their friends had an enjoyable time.

The house being built by Charles W. Cary on West Central avenue, is nearing completion. Mr. and Mrs. Cary expect to be in their new home on Thanksgiving.

Each week brings news of Highland Park people making plans to go to warmer climates. The first of the month seems to be the time most of them set for leaving. Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Hipwell expect to go south about then as do Mrs. H. C. Tilman, Miss Carolyn Shields, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Alexander.

The Woman's Club held a very interesting meeting on Tuesday. The subject of the afternoon was; "Relation of home to Education," Mrs. Abbie B. Bastian being the author of the paper. The report of the Federation held at Joliet was read by Mrs. F. B. Green and Mrs. O. L. Oleson. Mr. Lloyd and C. M. Schneider sang both a duet and two solos which were much appreciated by the audience. After the meeting the ladies enjoyed a social hour with Mrs. E. H. Brown, Miss Rena Brown, Mrs. F. C. Clark, and Miss Elizabeth Cheverton as hostesses.

Mrs. Caswell, 372 Central avenue, gave a Hallowe'en wish-bone party in honor of W. B. McConnell of Goldfield, Nevada, who is the owner of large gold mines, and his fiance, Miss Carrie Hoover, of Middleberry, Indiana. Many guests were present from Chicago, Edgewater, Evanston and Highland Park. Among those present were; Major Kimball of Chicago, and Mrs. Fenno Adler, one of Chicago's celebrated soprano singers, having a studio in the Fine Arts Building, who rendered delightful vocal and instrumental music. Mr. Dahlin, Jr., of Chicago, one of the best piano performers of that city, delighted the guests with classical music. Miss Lottie Brank assisting. The house was beautifully decorated with Hallowe'en decorations. All spent a delightful evening.