A last the old Luke D. Phillips place between attorney Smoot and Dr. Babcock's residences has been sold to Robert McLaughlin. The lot has a front of 175 feet on Laurel avenue, and slopes back to the big ravine about 400 feet, and is one of the most desirable residence lots in the city. Mr. McLaughlin has the plans for a fine residence all ready and will build at once. The consideration was $8,200 cash, a good bargain in a choice neighborhood.

The Onwentsia Club of Lake Forest is following the example of Exmoor and enlarging the club house this winter for next season's guests. A three story annex, which will contain thirty sleeping rooms, is being added to the building on the west wing and a cold storage plant is being put in in connection with the butler's pantry. During this season only about two thirds of those who applied for rooms at the club house could be accommodated. The club house will not be entirely closed during the winter, but will be open for small teas, dinners, week-end parties and the usual mid-winter affairs of a more formal nature.

A Pleasant Reception

A very enjoyable reception was held in the parlors of the Presbyterian church on last Tuesday evening. The reception was in honor of the birthday anniversary of the pastor, Rev. A. A. Pfanstiehl, and also to greet the strangers who have come into the church and congregation during the past few months. The parlors were tastily decorated with a profusion of chrisanthemums and ferns, and dainty refreshments were served by the young ladies. One of the pleasant events of the evening was the presentation to the pastor of a birthday cake, which was provided by Mrs. McGregor Adams. The cake was decorated with twenty-one lighted candles which were removed one at a time by different members of the party, whose kindly wishes as they blew out the candles should assure Mr. Pfanstiehl much joy and good fortune as the years go by. But the most substantial good wish was presented by Mr. Patten from the men in the church in the form of fifty dollars in gold. Mr. Pfanstiehl's response to these expressions of regard from his people was sincere and appreciative.

A short musical program was provided by Mrs. Charles Everett, Mr. George Jones, and Mrs. Anson Morgan was delightfully rendered, and the evening was genuinely enjoyed by all.

Mother Goose Entertainment

On Tuesday evening, Nov 21st, Mother Goose rhymes will be revived in song and story by thirty-five little children at the Baptist church. The children have been drilled for some weeks and the entertainment promises to be quite unique and attractive. The following characters will be taken by the girls and boys:—Mother Goose, Mrs. J. L. Miller; King Cole, Mr. L. Loyd; The Man in Brown, Harry Walker; Jack Sprat and his wife, Mary Rogers; Jack and Jill, Marion Cole, Florence Cummings; Little Miss Muffet, Elsie Kirby; Old Mother Hubbard, Emma Evans; High Diddle Diddle, General Chorus; Jack Horner, Leigh Biddinger; Simple Simon, Charles Wayt; The three crows, Mamie Siljestrom, Florence Zimmer, Hazel Zimmer; The House that Jack built; Benjamin Rogers; Little Tomy Tucker, F. Noerlin; Peter Pumpkin and his wife, Helen Noerlin; Three Blind Mice, Chorus; Little Boy Blue, Robert Rogers; Little Bo Peep, Lillie Brown; The Crooked Man, Roland Brand; Humpty Dumpty, George Brand; The Old Woman in the Shoe, Charley McKenzie. The Maiden all Forlorn, Helen Hill.

There will be a government drill by twelve young ladies which will be one of the prominent features of the evening.

This entertainment will be particularly appropriate for Thanksgiving time when we all like to think again of the stories of childhood and home. An admission of Twenty-five cents will be charged. Children ten cents.

Thanksgiving Prizes

The prize stories and essays by pupils of the Deerfield Township High School were handed in too late for announcement of awards this week. Several excellent articles have been received, and it will take some time for a careful consideration of all of them. The winners will be notified early next week, and may come to this office to make their choice of the prizes.

The winning story and the winning essay will be published next, and possibly some of those not winning will also be printed.

The issue of the News-Letter for next week will be a double number of 16 pages, as a special Thanksgiving number.
