

HIGHWOOD

Miss Margaret Landt of Chicago is visiting Miss Nina Bell for a few days.

Mrs. O. F. Bell is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Myers, in Dayton, Ohio, for a few days.

R. E. Winters, the local jeweler, has a novelty in the shape of a clock which gives the local standard and mean time, and the mean time of important cities in every part of the world.

A. W. Himmler, who for some time past has been agent at the Chicago & Northwestern station in this city, has been transferred to the Highland Park station. C. P. Henn, who has been agent at the Highland Park station, takes Mr. Himmler's place in the station here.

The case of the Government vs. Ed Hart, on a charge of embezzlement of clothing, came up before Judge Pease last Saturday as announced last week. As the prosecution failed to put in an appearance the case was dismissed. The United States court will now take a hand.

Mr Hartzelle Cobb, for some time past prescription clerk in Julius Laegeler's drug store, moved his family today to 1517 Lincoln avenue, Chicago, where he will conduct a drug store for himself. His many friends extend best wishes for his success.

Mrs. M. J. Gibbs gave a birthday party at her home last Monday evening, about 40 friends being present. Card games were the entertainment of the evening, and Mrs. J. B. Garrity and Mr. Frank Mowers won the prizes. Music and refreshments followed the card games, and a most delightful evening was the verdict of the departing guests.

Mrs. Sophia Strand, the oldest resident in Highland, died early last Thursday morning after a very brief illness with pneumonia, the result of a severe cold contracted last Sunday. Mrs. Strand was born in Sweden 84 years ago, and has been a resident of Highland nearly 30 years. Her husband died about 16 years ago. She leaves two daughters in this city, Mrs. Charles Hangren and Mrs. John Carlson, and one daughter in Chicago. The funeral will be held Sunday from the Swedish church.

The young ladies of the English Methodist church gave a very enjoyable entertainment at the church parlors Thursday. The entertainment was preceded by music and the young ladies gave a most amusing parody on a business meeting of the Ladies Auxiliary of the church. There was a large and appreciative audience, and there were those who stated that the entertainment was no parody, but an excellent imitation of the real thing. Refreshments were served, and the young ladies enriched the coffers of the treasury by a goodly amount.

Last Monday evening Rev. Henry F. Ebert of the Ebenezer church of Highland Park, Illinois, presented the Passion Play in the General Mess Hall at Fort Sheridan, before a large audience of soldiers. The evening programme began with an overture by Mr. Taylor of Company "F," 27th Infantry. Then Miss Iverson of Chicago delivered two excellent recitations. Miss Iverson speaks well and has a very favorable appearance on the platform. Miss Iverson appeared by courtesy of Mrs. H. C. Chadbourne of Chicago. Then the Orpheus Quartette of Highland Park rendered the illustrated song, "Rock of Ages," followed by a song by Miss Charlotte Brand, "The Holy City," illustrated with stereoptican slides. Miss Brand sang in a very creditable manner and received considerable applause. She had an immense value of space to fill, for the hall is large, but the words of her piece could be heard far back. The fact that the piano was out of tune did not bother her at all. Next came the Passion play, and Mr. Ebert gave a satisfactory explanation of the scenes. The Orpheus Quartette sang "Calvary" when the views were shown of Christ on the cross. The entertainment closed with "America."

Better than Jules Verne.

A story published in the newspapers of Germany and Austria shows what a gorgeous imagination can do when it works untrammelled by facts. The United States treasury, according to this story, has been plundered. Bold robbers, in the pay of "certain American millionaires," constructed a large tunnel a mile long from the Potomac river to a place directly under Uncle Sam's vaults in Washington. From this point thirteen shafts were dug upward into the thirteen vaults, and one night the robbers made off through their tunnel on electric cars specially provided for the purpose with $268,000,000. On reaching the Potomac the coin was transferred to twenty submarine boats. These transported it to Chesapeake bay, where it was transferred to five large sea going steamers. At last reports the entire North Atlantic squadron was in swift pursuit. The author of this story wastes his ability writing for newspapers. They are purveyors of facts. His genius is for idealistic fiction. He leaves Diamond Dick at the post. Jules Verne is nothing to him. It is said the people of Germany and Austria generally believe the tale. This shows the profound impression American energy and ingenuity have made on their untutored minds. Nothing, they are convinced, is impossible in this country. Our skillful workmen, our enterprising capitalists, and our ingenious and audacious safe blowers appreciate the implied compliment and will strive to justify it.

A lawyer named Patchell recently had a case in an Irish court, where the plaintiff in a breach of promise suit asserted that the defendant kissed her, but that she did not return his salutes. "Well, I never came across a girl like that," remarked Lawyer Patchell. "We won't go into these person revelations here, Mr. Patchell," said the judge.

Letter to Mr. J. S. Prall,

Highland Park, Illinois.

Dear Sir: Three gallons saved is $12 to $15 earned. Mr. Hanford Platt of Bridgeport, Conn, ordered 15 gallons to paint his house, and returned 3 gallons. His painter said it would take 15; a lead-and-oil Painter. Hubbell & Wade sold it. They say everybody has the same experience there.

The reason is, of course: they are used to poor paint. What is poor paint? Anything not Devoe: some worse than others.

Besides, paints wear about as they cover. Double the $12 to $15.

Yours truly

F. W. DEVOE & CO.

New York and Chicago.

P. S. D. C. PURDY & SON sell our paint.
