

HIGHLAND PARK NEWS-LETTER

Volume 18

HIGHLAND PARK, ILLINOIS, DECEMBER 9, 1905

Number 30

What People Are Doing in Highland Park

Mrs. Charles Woodcock has returned from her trip to Canada.

Mr. Redd of Lexington, Ky., is visiting his daughter, Mrs. E. J. Nally.

Mrs. M. E. Sampsell returned from a visit in New York City yesterday.

Miss Richards of St. Louis is a guest of her sister, Mrs. Tom Wyles.

Mr. Bowen W. Schumacher has been hunting quail in Southern Illinois the past week.

The Misses Gertrude and Lucy Chandler are in Washington, D. C., for the winter months.

Mr. and Mrs. Hastings of Chicago spent Thanksgiving with Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Doty.

Mr. Byrne, superintendent of schools in Ottawa, Ill., visited our schools on Monday of this week.

Mr. Cook, who has been visiting his daughter, Mrs. W. H. Baldwin, has gone south for the winter.

Mrs. Hugh T. Birch and Miss Birch, 1912 Michigan avenue, are in America again, after a year spent abroad.

The ladies of St. Mary's Church will give a card party in Library Hall next Wednesday evening, December 13.

Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Middleton of Chicago were guests of their father, Mr. John Middleton, on Maple avenue, Thanksgiving Day.

Miss Ruby Chandler, who is a student at Kemper Hall, Kenosha, spent the Thanksgiving holiday at her home on Laurel avenue.

Mrs. Clinton Spencer has returned from her visit in Pennsylvania. Mr. and Mrs. Spencer expect to move into their new home on Sheridan Road next week.

Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Day of St. Louis spent Thanksgiving with Mrs. Day's parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Morgan. Miss Helen Morgan returned with them to St. Louis on Wednesday.

Last evening Bridge Whist was played at the Highland Park Club, with Mrs. C. F. Everett and Mrs. W. J. Fyffe as hostesses of the evening. The following announcement has been made concerning the entertainment at the club during the coming month: December 15, dancing; December 22, vaudeville; December 29, cotillion; January 5, twelfth night entertainment; January 12, musical.

Mr. W. T. Underwood is north on a hunting trip.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Yoe have taken rooms at the Virginia until after the holidays.

Mr. Arthur Van Schaick is in New York for a week or so on business.

Miss Zell Barnes of Brodhead, Wis., is a guest of Mrs. E. B. Palmer this week.

Mrs. John A. Putnam gave an informal dinner last Friday before the dance at the club.

Miss Sadee Buckley returned yesterday from New York, where she has been visiting Miss Fay.

Mrs. R. P. Davidson is in Avon Park, Fla., spending a few weeks with her mother, Mrs. Colwell.

Mr. A. E. Oleson is building a fine new residence on the corner of Moraine Road and Waukegan avenue.

The Misses Pauline and Julie Crampton of Chicago spent the Thanksgiving holidays with Miss Isabel Scott.

On Tuesday Miss Eva Egan gave an informal afternoon tea in honor of Miss Beck, who is a guest of Miss Bessie Smith.

The Highland Park Woman's Club will give a children's party at the Assembly Hall of the Elm Street School on Tuesday afternoon, January 2.

Highland Park was represented by about six of its residents at a banquet Tuesday evening, given by the Loyal Legion at the Palmer House.

Mrs. F. R. McMullin left Monday to spend the winter at Mirimao, near Santa Barbara, Cal., where Mr. McMullin will join her later in the season.

Mrs. G. S. Wendling, Mrs. T. Kropel, Mrs. A. Fritsch and Master Benjamin Fritsch, all of Chicago, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Diesges over Sunday.

First Baptist Church—Public worship at 10:45 and 7:45. B. Y. P. U. at 7 o'clock. There will be a special Evangelistic meeting in the evening. All are welcome. Seats free.

Mrs. Daniel Cobb and Miss Annie Cobb have invited a large number of young ladies to meet Mrs. Scidmore and Miss Mills this afternoon and play bridge. The party will be followed by a tea at 4:30. The guests of honor, Mrs. Scidmore and Miss Mills, are visiting at the home of Mrs. B. A. Fessenden and Mrs. John A. Putnam.

Miss Louise Floyd is confined to her home with illness.

Mr. C. E. Wilcox is east on a trip to New York and Baltimore.

Mrs. Richard Street was hostess at a luncheon yesterday in honor of Miss Mills of New York.

Mr. and Mrs. Dike of Crystal Lake, Ill., spent Thanksgiving with their daughter, Mrs. Fred Clow.

Captain Charles Jamieson went to New York this week. Mrs. Jamieson remains in Highland Park, owing to the illness of her sister, Miss Louise Floyd.

The friends of Mr. Robert Bock are glad to know that he is improving nicely. Mr. Bock fell from the roof of his barn a week or so ago and broke one of his limbs.

One of our oldest citizens, Mr. Henry Frye, celebrated his eighty-third birthday on November 27. Many friends called and made the anniversary a pleasant one for him.

Miss Beck of Sioux City is a guest of Miss Bessie Smith. On Tuesday Miss Smith entertained eight young ladies from Chicago at luncheon in honor of her guest.

Services at the Ebenezer Evangelical Church will be held as usual Sunday. The subject of the evening address will be "The Dove's Song; or, The Soul's Desire for Rest."

Mrs. Lucy Allen was entertained at luncheon with a few friends by Miss Sarah Patchen, in celebration of her birthday, December 1. In the afternoon many friends called to give their good wishes to Mrs. Allen.

Miss Frances Everett was hostess at a buffet luncheon on Tuesday in honor of Miss Kendricks and Miss Smith of Chicago and Miss Millard of Syracuse, N. Y., who is visiting Miss Kendricks. Covers were laid for sixteen.

In a letter received recently from Berlin, Germany, the news came of a very good fortune which has come to Miss Priscilla Carver. Madame Carreno, a famous pianiste, has consented to take Miss Carver as a pupil. As is well known, Madame Carreno will not consent to teach any one who is not an artist in the profession, and her acceptance of Miss Carver's request for instruction reflects great praise both for Miss Carver's ability and that of her American teacher.