

HIGHLAND PARK NEWS-LETTER

Highland Park

WANTED:—Girl to care for child, Sundays only. Address M., this office.

Mr. D. H. Murphy of Wauconda spent a day or so with Mr. William Witten this week.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Cary are moving into their new home on West Central avenue today.

Mr. Herbert Martin and Master William Martin of Chicago were guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Sheahen Thanksgiving week.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sheahen entertained Thanksgiving day by giving a dinner party to a number of relatives.

Rev. Dr. Keough, Secretary to Archbishop Quigley of Chicago, has been the guest of Rev. J. J. Morrissey the past week.

Thanksgiving and a birthday falling upon the same day Mrs. W. E. Eddy celebrated the 1st of December by giving a large family dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. Alexander B. Scully of The Raymond are entertaining at a series of dinners, the next to be the evening of December fourteenth.

Plans are out for a new house to be built on the property just west of the Dr. Babcock house on Prospect avenue, by Mr. Robert J. McLaughlin.

Mrs. May Corbett of Chicago visited Mrs. D. P. Sheahen last week, and Mr. Eugene Lurvey of Oakfield, Wisconsin, was a guest for Thanksgiving day.

FOR SALE:—One cutter, one trap, one buckboard, one large safe, one heavy letter press, one pool table, ivory balls. Call at 216 Central avenue. JOHN T. RAFFEN.

Mr. and Mrs. Miller, Sr., and Mr. and Mrs. Miller Jr., of Edison Park, Illinois, assisted in making a family party on Thanksgiving day at the home of Mrs. Roebing.

Mrs. Mary M. E. Adams is going to build a new house on the corner of Laurel and Dale avenues just west of the B. W. Schumacher residence. The plans have been made by Frank Lloyd Wright, an Oak Park architect.

Mr. Clement Smoot and Miss. Eleanor Smoot came home from Ann Arbor last week the latter bringing two friends to spend Thanksgiving with her. The guests were Miss Rachel Lowell and Miss Ruth Howe of Worcester, Massachusetts.

First Church of Christ, Scientist. Hazel avenue near St. Johns. Services Sundays 10:45 a. m. Wednesdays 8 p. m. Reading room in church open Wednesdays and Fridays from 2 to 4. Lesson subject for Sunday December 10th., "Is the Universe Including man Evolved By Atoellic Force?"

The management of the Winter Season at Ravinia Park are in readiness for the cold wave, which is due very soon. The toboggan slide has been erected and the skating rink is cleared ready for flooding with the first cold snap. Season tickets are still on sale at Ravinia Park Casino by Mr. E. C. Welsh.

At the regular meeting of the Woman's Catholic Order of Foresters this week election of officers was held. The result of the election was as follows: Chief Ranger, Mrs. Margaret Sheahen; Vice Ranger, Mrs. Catherine Muzik; Recording Secretary, Mrs. Minnie Dooley; Financial Secretary, Mary Pitts; Treasurer, Agnes Duffy. Mrs. Dooly was elected delegate to the Conventoin to be held in Milwaukee in August. Trustees—Mrs. Mary Swanson, Mrs. Catherine Gallagher, Mrs. Mary Erickson.

The Ossoli Club met on Thursday of this week, the subject of the afternoon being "Jewels." The essayist was Miss Geselle D'Unger of Chicago, and old jewelry, pewter and silver plate were exhibited. Mrs. Le Victoire and Mrs. John Putnam were hostesses.

Much interest is being manifested in the series of Sunday twilight musicals at the Virginia Hotel, Mr. George Hamlin giving the program. Among those who have subscribed are a number of summer residents of Highland Park, Mrs. Martin Schultz, Mrs. Harry Channon, Mrs. George E. Marcy, Miss Anna Morgan.

Mrs. Catherine Hughitt has the sympathy of her friends and neighbors in the loss of her son Irving, who died Thursday at Augustina Hospital after an operation. Irving Hughitt was born in their present home on First street, Highland Park, May, 1893. Beside the mother there is one sister, Miss Laura Hughitt, left to mourn his loss. The funeral will be Sunday in St. Mary's church at 2 o'clock, the burial to be in Mooney's cemetery.

The bazaar given by the Fecit club which is now in progress at Library Hall promises to be both a treat and a success. Many autographed books by President Roosevelt, James Whitecombe Riley, Ernest Thompson Seton and George Barr McCutcheon are being sold at an exceedingly low price, and many kinds of artistic work are on sale at a very low cost.

Our townsman, Mr. Ben Freberg, is starting a new building, which when finished will be one of the finest stables on the North Shore. It is situated on the site where he has conducted his livery business for the past few years, and will be a two story pressed brick structure 52x102 feet. The stalls, 45 in number, will be on the second floor and he plans to have them occupied by some very fine horses. The building will be ready for use the first of March.

Leroy C. Roll, formerly conductor on the C. & M. E. railway, was killed at St. Charles, Ill., Tuesday, November 28. Mr. Roll had taken a position as brakeman for the Great Western railroad about six weeks ago, and it was while on this road that he met his death. Miss Lulu Higgins of this city, to whom Mr. Roll was engaged to be married, accompanied the body to his home in Carthage, Ill.

The Dorcas Society of the Presbyterian Church, which meets twice a month, has decided to provide a luncheon at each meeting which can be had for 10 cents a plate. Any one who wishes can partake. A number of people of the congregation took lunch with the ladies on this Wednesday and enjoyed themselves so much that they promised to come and bring others with them for the next luncheon.

A large number of the cadets of the N. M. A. went away for Thanksgiving, but all returned on Saturday for the dance that evening given by the Cadet Officers' Club. The drill hall was made attractive with Japanese umbrellas and lanterns. Overhead was a bower of cherry blossoms and along the walls were bunches of chrysanthemums. The whole effect resembled a Japanese festival, and the young people enjoyed the evening to the fullest extent.

Two weeks ago the subject of the afternoon for the Highland Park Woman's Club was "Original Indian Tribes." This week the general topic of "Indians" was carried on further, and Rev. George D. Rogers gave an address on "Location of Reservations, Treaties and Indian Speeches." His interesting talk was followed by a solo by Mrs. Vivian, and the ladies enjoyed a social hour. Mrs. D. M. Erskine, Mrs. John Duffy, Mrs. George Campbell and Miss De Roo were the hostesses of the afternoon.

Mr. H. P. Harmon, vice-president of the Rutter Coal Comapny, with his mother and sister, will occupy the W. C. Hipwell cottage on Central avenue until the first of May.

Mr. and Mrs. Whiteside, who have been guests of Mr. and Mrs. G. D. Boulton for several months, have taken the Walter C. Chandler house on Hazel avenue for the winter.

The Mozart Club gave the second concert of the season on Saturday afternoon, December 2. The subject for the afternoon was Beethoven, and the essayist was Miss Catherine Schumacher.

Thanksgiving vacation being so short, very few of the school teachers went away for Thanksgiving. Miss Bass was at her home in Princeton, Ill., Mrs. Benedict in Elgin, Miss Collins at Park Ridge, the Misses Donaldson and Butler in Chicago, Miss Wood in Evanston.

About fifteen of the young people of the Presbyterian Church took part in a bazaar and entertainment at the West Division Street Mission Church last Friday evening. Mrs. W. A. Alexander, Mrs. H. H. Sweetland and Mr. R. L. Lovell assisted on the program.

Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Hipwell and Mrs. Ranney left Thursday for California. They will visit Los Angeles, Santa Barbara, San Francisco and other points along the coast, and be away until the first of May. Miss Hipwell will spend the winter at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Phillips.

Thanksgiving Day was the 25th anniversary of the ordination of Rev. P. C. Wolcott, and from 3 to 7 o'clock on that day Mr. and Mrs. Wolcott kept "open house." Mr. Wolcott has been pastor of Trinity Church for many years, and his parishioners manifested their appreciation of his service among them by many kindly wishes at their reception on Dec. 1.

The bazaar given by the Ladies' Aid Society of the Ebenezer Church on November 23 was in every way a success. The ladies of the church wish to express their appreciation to the following merchants and business men of the town for the donations which they made: Dale Sweetland, Samuel Levin, M. Moses, George Bock, Edward Hintz, Orson Brand.

Death of S. M. Millard

Last week came the news of the death of our townsman, Sylvester M. Millard, at the Lakeside Sanitarium, Lake Geneva, Friday, December 2. Mr. Millard had been in ill-health for two years, and had withdrawn from active practice, although still the senior member of the law firm of Millard & Hale. Born in Victor, Mich., in 1839, he came to Chicago in 1870, and ever since that time has been prominent in business life. For six years he was president of the board of trustees of the Illinois State University.

A widow and three children, Frederick C. and Everett L. Millard and Mrs. Hugo G. Fisher survive.

The sadness of Mr. Millard's death is made greater by the absence of his wife and daughter, who started for Europe two weeks ago.

The funeral services were held in the Presbyterian Church of this city on Monday afternoon, and the interment was in Lake Forest.

WANTED:—By a prominent monthly magazine with large, high-class circulation, local representative to look after renewals and increase subscription list in Highland Park and vicinity, on a salary basis, with a continuing interest from year to year in the business created. Experience desirable, but not essential. Good opportunity for the right person. Address Publisher, box 59, Station O, New York.