

HIGHWOOD

A baby girl was born Wednesday night to Mr. and Mrs. Albert Shelton.

Mr. B. C. Shultis has moved his family into his new residence in East Highwood avenue.

M. J. Gibbs has purchased the house and real estate on West Highwood avenue, now occupied by Dr. Wescott.

The fine new residence being built by Mrs. E. T. Mathews is nearly completed, and will soon be ready for occupancy.

Devine & Goebinger have refitted and opened up the saloon recently vacated by David Moran on Waukegan avenue.

The Misses Anna Burg and Mabel Williams of Kenosha, Wis., spent Thanksgiving with the family of William D. Cox.

The Ladies' Auxiliary of the Methodist Church will meet with Mrs. Davis on Bloom street next Thursday afternoon.

The ladies of the Swedish Church held a successful sale at the church Friday evening. There was a large attendance, and the ladies realized handsomely.

Many of the city officials went to Kenosha last Saturday as the guests of the C. & M. E. Railway, at the opening of the Kenosha extension. They report a fine time.

Corey and Paplat, the racers who ran from Milwaukee to Chicago, passed through here about noon Thursday a little behind schedule time. An automobile followed as a pacer.

The Sunday School Christmas exercises of the English Methodist Church will be held Saturday evening, December 23. There will be the usual tree, Santa Claus, and good things for the children.

The Schoenhofen Brewing Company of Milwaukee are planning to build a four-story hotel on Waukegan avenue, just south of George Conrad's saloon. The place will have a barroom, bowling alleys and billiard and pool rooms. Work will be begun in the spring.

The Thanksgiving masquerade ball given by Lake Shore Lodge, Knights of Pythias, at Fort Sheridan Park last week, Wednesday evening, was a grand success financially and otherwise. About 150 couples were in attendance. The proceeds of the affair went to the Mercy Hospital, Evanston.

A petition was presented to Overseer Robertson this week requesting that the office of Assistant Overseer, now held by M. J. Gibbs, be declared vacant. The petition was signed and presented by W. F. Hogan. Overseer Robertson refused the petition because of insufficient grounds for the removal.

The regular monthly meeting of the Highwood Volunteer Fire Department was held last Monday evening. Marshal George Conrad and Secretary Edward McTamany were appointed delegates to attend the State Firemen's Association meeting at Peoria, January 9, 10 and 11, 1906.

The ladies of the English Methodist Church gave a very successful bazaar in the Council room of the City Hall on Thursday, Friday and Saturday afternoons and evenings of this week. The many beautiful and timely articles on sale attracted a large number of people, and the ladies realized a tidy sum for their treasury. Supper was served every evening.

A regular meeting of the City Council was held last week, Tuesday evening, and proved an interesting session for those who attended. The usual routine business was disposed of by the Council.

A petition was presented by Alderman Muzik, signed by W. F. Hogan and C. E. Preston, requesting the Council to declare the office of Mayor of the city of Highwood vacant because of malfeasance of office on the part of the present incumbent, M. J. Gibbs, and also requesting that an election be called to fill the vacancy. As Mayor Gibbs has not yet been convicted of any crime—as the Lake Forest case is still pending at Waukegan—the Council refused to take action. Those who expected startling developments were disappointed for the time being at least.

An entertainment was given in the mess hall of Fort Sheridan last week Monday evening, under the direction of the Rev. George D. Rogers of Highland Park, that attracted the largest audience of any of the series. Fully 600 soldiers were present, also about 150 civilians. A number of officers and officers families were in the audience. Mr. Rogers presented an excellent programme. The Male Quartette with Messers Rogers, Howell, Goodrich and Loyd opened the programme with well rendered selections. Mr. Grant Hadley, one of the leading baritone singers of Chicago sang so well that he was repeatedly applauded. Mrs. Frank B. Green then presented some comical sketches much to the amusement of all. Sergeant Green deserves great credit for the way in which he has trained fourteen young ladies of Highland Park in Butt's Manuel drill. The colored lights were used on the scene. Then came a dramatic sketch, "Olga," A French Spy, by Miss Myrtle Karr and Mr. Thomas J. Fowle of the Hinshaw School of Music and Oratory. Both Miss Karr and Mr. Fowle demonstrated considerable ability in the presentation. The entertainment concluded with a farce boxing match between Mr. Rogers and Chaplain Rice. Dr. Griffin introduced the participants and was applauded loudly for his comical remarks. The contestants were wise enough to protect their features with strong base ball wire face cages. After the usual courtesies, it was decided that the affair was a boxing match only, and therefore the boxers proceeded to nail up some boxes which were convenient and the curtain came down. A thousand soldiers stand ready to thank Mr. Rogers for the evenings entertainment, and every soldier at the Post hopes that a Chaplaincy in the Army will come his way about New Years time.
