

What People Are Doing in Highland Park

Mr. Thomas Troxel is spending the week in Milwaukee.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Noernberg left for St. Petersburg, Florida, on Tuesday.

Dr. and Mrs. F. M. Ingalls have gone to Tennessee to spend a few weeks.

Owing to Christmas festivities there was no meeting of the Ossoli Club this week.

Mr. Kenneth Ramsey has returned from the West where he has been for several months.

Mr. H. Chandler Egan is home from Grand Rapids, Michigan, to spend Christmas.

Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Noernberg spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Masterson in Chicago.

Major and Mrs. Mann, of Washington, D. C., are visiting Mrs. Mann's sister, Mrs. T. G. Troxel.

Mrs. L. F. Vandola, of Lexington, Illinois, was a guest at the home of Mr. Jesse Smith over Sunday.

Miss Helen Messenger returned from Vassar College last week to spend the Christmas holidays at home.

Mrs. John Duffy entertained a number of friends at cards on Monday evening as a surprise for Mr. Duffy.

Mrs. Max Muller gave an informal party at her home in Fort Sheridan on Monday evening of last week.

Miss Mary Rogers, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. George Rogers, has been ill the past week with bronchitis.

Mr. James C. Everett arrives to-night from Grand Rapids to spend Sunday and Monday with his family.

The Sunday School of the Baptist Church will hold its Christmas entertainment on Tuesday evening, December 26th.

Miss Ruth Bryant is at home for the Christmas holidays, having returned from her school in the East a few days ago.

Arthur Herdclotz, who has been working in Waukegan for several months, has returned to his home in Highland Park.

Miss Irene Russell arrived in Highland Park today from Leeds, South Dakota, where she has been teaching school this winter.

Master Roy Eddy has been ill the past week. Miss Helen Eddy goes to-day to spend Christmas with her family in Marengo, Iowa.

Rev. J. J. Morrissey has been away several days this week on account of the death of Mrs. Quigley, mother of Archbishop Quigley, of Chicago.

Miss Esther Schwarz came yesterday from Wellesley College to spend three weeks' vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Schwarz.

Mrs. Hugh McFarlane and children are in St. Petersburg, Florida, for the winter. Mr. McFarlane has gone south to spend Christmas with them.

Mr. and Mrs. George B. Cummings entertained a week-end house party last Saturday. The guests were seven young people from the University of Chicago.

Mrs. Lovell and Mr. Raymond Lovell have gone to Covington, Kentucky, to spend Christmas with Mrs. Lovell's mother and sister. Miss Willa Lovell comes from the East this week and will join her mother in Kentucky.

The Christmas entertainment for the Sunday School scholars of the United Evangelical church will be given in the church Christmas eve. Songs and recitations and the usual Christmas tree will be the order of the program.

Mrs. C. A. Smith has been confined to her home with illness for a week.

Mrs. William Grant, Mrs. John Finney and Miss Nina Bell were hostesses at the Woman's Club meeting on Tuesday afternoon. The subject of the day was "Symbolism in Art and Literature," and the essayist was Mrs. B. A. Fessenden.

Miss Lillian Russell gave an informal party for the boys of Sylvan Dells School Saturday evening. Each boy was privileged to ask a lady and the young people spent a very happy evening. The school closed yesterday for a two weeks' vacation.

Miss Annie Cobb left yesterday for New York, where she and her brother, Daniel Cobb, will spend Christmas with their father and their aunt, Mrs. Lamson. Miss Cobb will visit in Washington before coming home and will be gone about two weeks.

Miss Smith and Miss Guiney entertained the teachers at an informal party on Friday evening at the home of Miss Helen Whitney. It was called a Nonsense Party, and clever ideas in games, planned by the hostesses, provided a most delightful evening for the guests.

Mr. and Mrs. John Rudolph announce the marriage of their daughter, Ida Ora, to Mr. Henry Leland Steensohn Saturday, December 16th. Mr. and Mrs. Steensohn will be at home after February 1st at Highwood, Illinois. The wedding was a quiet one, only relatives being present.

Among the large receptions of the season was one given Tuesday by Mrs. Jacob Rambo Custer from 3 until 5 o'clock at the Chicago Woman's Club, Fine Arts building. Among those assisting Mrs. Custer were Mrs. A. P. Smith and Mrs. W. C. Egan, and Mrs. Kenneth Cowan and Miss Eva Egan assisted at the tea tables.

On Sabbath Christmas eve at 4 o'clock Miss Mari Ruef Hafer's program of "The Christ Child in Art, Story and Song," will be rendered at the Presbyterian Church. Stereopticon views taken from paintings from famous artists, such as Murillo, Hoffman, Dore and Corregio, will be used. This will, no doubt, be a rare treat for the people of Highland Park. Everybody invited.

This week has brought most of the young people home from their schools and colleges. From the University of Illinois came Mr. Harry Samson, Joseph Colburn, C. Culver Shields and Clarence Noernberg; from University of Michigan, Clement and Eleanor Smoot; from Kemper Hall, the Misses Ruby Chandler, Eleanor Brown, Helen Brown, Margo Street. Miss Virginia Chandler has returned from the East.

The Ebenezer Sunday School is planning a pleasant evening for the children tonight at 7:15. The title of the program is to be Christmas Bells, and will consist of a cantata "Silver Bells" given by the young ladies of the church, a dialogue by the Boy's Bible Class, an exercise in song by the primary department and recitations and songs by various departments of the Sunday School.

The Vaudeville at the Highland Park Club last evening met with hearty appreciation. The people of Highland Park always enjoy a home talent entertainment, and this one did not fall short of the usual clever program. Those who took part in the Italian Village at the Gad's Hill County Fair last summer, - Mrs. C. F. Everett, Mrs. George Colburn, Miss Troxel, Miss Francis Everett, Mrs. Ralph Thorn, Raymond Lovell, George Colburn, Russell Jones, and Allan Jones - sang several songs, and those giving individual "stunts" were Miss Sutton and Miss Moore, the latter of Chicago, Mr. H. H. Doty, Mr. Winchester Carver, Norman and Archibald Mason, George Roberts and Mr. Hiller of Chicago.

Mrs. James Bowden has been ill the past two weeks.

Mr. M. E. Sampson has gone to New York for a short time.

Mrs. John Morgan spent Tuesday in Highland Park calling upon friends.

Miss Winifred Case of Chicago has been a guest of Mrs. H. S. Vail for a week.

Miss Annie Grover is at home again after an illness of several weeks in Chicago.

The ladies of St. Mary's parish are giving a card party in Library Hall this evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Woodcock spent Sunday with their brother in Milwaukee.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Clow are at Crystal Lake to spend Christmas with Mr. and Mrs. Dike.

Mr. H. H. Decker is coming from Pierre, South Dakota, to spend Christmas with his family.

Miss Mary and Miss Jessie Corbett of Chicago, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. D. P. Sheahan.

Mr. W. T. Underwood will spend the Christmas holidays with his brother in Lafayette, Indiana.

Miss Ruth Stone, who is a guest of Mrs. John A. Putman, has been confined to the house with illness the past week.

Fred Grant, of the University of Illinois, has come to spend the Christmas holidays with Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Holabird.

Miss-Theodora Schwarz has issued invitations for a bridge party next Tuesday afternoon at her home on Vine avenue.

Miss Gertrude Schaefer, who is attending the Birmingham Seminary, in Birmingham, Pennsylvania, is at home for the holidays.

Professor Frederick O. Grover of Oberlin College is spending the holidays with his mother and father Rev. and Mrs. Grover on Park avenue.

Mr. John Conrad was taken to Augustnia Hospital last Saturday with an acute case of appendicitis. Mr. Conrad has had the operation and is improving nicely.

Mrs. G. V. Dickinson has been ill for the past week. Mr. and Mrs. Dickinson expect to start Tuesday for California where they will spend the greater part of the winter.

Mrs. Anson C. Morgan with her two sons left for Minneapolis last Saturday. Mr. Morgan goes tonight to join his wife and they will spend Christmas with Mrs. Morgan's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Clerihew.

Prof. Knowlton of Chicago, was a guest of Rev. and Mrs. A. A. Pfanstiehl on Thursday. Professor Knowlton and Carl Pfanstiehl tried some interesting experiments in wireless telegraphy during the former's visit in Highland Park.

The service and Christmas tree for the Sunday School of Trinity Church will be held at 5 o'clock Christmas Eve, instead of at 7:30 as announced last Sunday. Service will be held on Christmas day in Trinity Church at 7:30 a. m. and 10 a. m.

The three new houses on Linden avenue, north of Elm Place are about completed. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Woodcock expect to move in their house between Christmas and New Years, and Mr. and Mrs. Earl H. Purdy will occupy their new home in January.