

9848
2

HIGHLAND PARK NEWS-LETTER

Volume 19

HIGHLAND PARK, ILLINOIS, JANUARY 6, 1906

Number 1

What People Are Doing in Highland Park

Mrs. Hugh T. Birch and Miss Helen Birch, 1912 Michigan avenue, entertained from 4 to 7 on New Year's day.

Mr. Alonzo D. Jones, who has been engaged in business in Wisconsin for the past six months, spent New Year's with his mother and sister on Elm Place.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Woodcock are in their new home on Linden avenue and New Year's day was the occasion of a house warming, a number of relatives coming from Chicago for dinner.

Mrs. R. C. Day of St. Louis, spent New Year's home on Wednesday.

Mr. Richard Street leaves in a day or so for Florida to spend the remainder of the winter.

Major Drew has gone to Detroit for a few weeks. On his return he and his family will go south for the winter.

Friday evening, January 12th, there will be a musical at the Highland Park Club.

Mrs. Cree, who has been the past four months with her daughter, Miss Cree, in Wisconsin, is visiting at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Budd on Park avenue.

Mr. Dunning of Winnipeg is spending a few days with his cousin, Miss Morden, on his way to Detroit and Montreal.

Mr. Raymond Lovell and Mrs. Lovell returned from their visit in Covington, Kentucky, on Wednesday. Miss Willa Lovell will remain in Covington until February.

Mrs. Earl Spencer entertained the ladies of Trinity church at her home yesterday afternoon. It was the occasion of an informal reception and also an assembly to hear of the work which has been done the past year by the different departments of the church.

The Young Men's Bible Class of the Presbyterian church, which is known as the North Shore League, is to hold a banquet in Ravina Park Casino tonight. There will be speeches and toasts and an unusually good time is expected.

A number of the Highland Park young people went to Evanston last Friday evening to attend the reception and dance at the Evanston Country Club, given by Mr. and Mrs. Rollin A. Keyes for their daughter, Katharine. Seven young ladies assisted the hostess that evening and among them were Miss Bessie Smith and Miss Adeline Lobdell, of Highland Park.

Miss Lucy Chandler has been spending the holidays with her brother, R. G. Chandler.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren Lamson have gone to California for the winter months.

Mr. Samuel Parliament is on his way to Cuba for a month or so.

Mr. and Mrs. William Millard entertained a party of ten friends over New Years.

Mr. Fred Page left last week for California, where he will remain until some time in February.

Miss Amelia Miller entertained ten young ladies at an informal afternoon tea on Saturday last.

Mrs. B. A. Fessenden has issued invitations for an at home from 3 to 5 this afternoon in honor of her guests, Mrs. Seidmore and Miss Bangs.

The Bridge Whist Club met at the home of Miss Merriweather this week Wednesday. The young ladies' bridge whist club met on Thursday, with Miss Grace Diehl as hostess.

Mr. and Mrs. Fitt, who have been occupying the Davidson house since fall, are boarding with Mrs. Payne on Central avenue.

The Misses Dorothy and Gladys Gray of Hinsdale, Illinois, have been visiting their grandmother, Mrs. Elisha Gray, the past week.

Mr. Benjamin Fessenden was able to be brought home from St. Luke's Hospital early in the week, and is improving steadily in health at his home on Prospect avenue.

Mrs. Elizabeth E. Hodson, for some time a resident of Highland Park, died December 28th, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. T. T. Watson, in Wayne, Penn. The funeral services were held at Graceland, Sunday, Dec 31st and a number of her friends from this city attended.

The Junior's were given a beautiful cotillion at the Highland Park Club on Tuesday evening when Mrs. J. S. Seymour and Mrs. H. S. Vail were hostesses. The latter gave a dinner party before the dance. Mrs. T. B. Brown was another dinner hostess that evening.

Last evening under the auspices of the Ossoli Club, members of the Highland Park Dramatic Club presented acts from "Twelfth Night; or, what you will," at the Club-house. Mrs. M. E. Sampson and Mrs. Richard Peyton were hostesses of the meeting.

Miss Gertrude Schafer is visiting her room-mate in Dayton, Ohio.

Miss Frances Everett is visiting friends in Grand Rapids, Michigan, for a week.

Mr. and Mrs. James Prindiville gave an informal card party at their home on Laurel avenue Saturday evening.

Rev. A. A. Pfanstiehl preached in the 2nd Presbyterian church of Evanston, Sunday evening.

Madame Gregory, who has been in Washington, D. C., since Thanksgiving, goes this week to Charleston, South Carolina, to remain until next spring.

Ward Small, who has been home for the holidays, has gone east again for school and Edward Small returns to Ann Arbor today.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Dunham moved this week to their new home in Lakeside.

Miss Palmer of New York is visiting her sister, Mrs. J. S. Seymour.

Miss Steockline of St. Catherine's School at Davenport, Iowa, and her niece, Miss Hanover, were guests of Mrs. William M. Goodridge last week.

Mr. Mortimer Hudson, for many years a resident of Highland Park, has engaged in business in Prophetstown, Illinois.

Dr. and Mrs. Newman and Miss Helen Newman of Chicago, former residents of Highland Park, were in town on Sunday and attended the musical given by Mr. W. C. Hatley New Year's eve.

The little sons and daughters of the members of the Highland Park Woman's Club had a most delightful time at the children's party given by the club on Tuesday evening. About sixty little folks were present and as many older people, and the evening was given over to jolly games and dancing.

The public schools commencing on Monday, the teachers are arriving today from their different homes and friend's homes where they have spent the holiday vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence M. Wooley have returned from Europe and are at The Virginia.

The marriage is announced of Miss B. Francis Ensign, daughter of the late A. D. Ensign of New York, to Mr. Adam Dixon Warner of Los Angeles. The wedding took place last month in Los Angeles. Miss Ensign was connected with The Moraine for several years.