Highland Park is a music loving community and always appreciates opportunities to hear good things. Last evening the Highland Park Club was filled with music lovers to hear Mr. Leon Marx, violinist, Mrs. Mabel Sharp Herdier, soprano, and Max Oberlanderfer, accompanist. The program given by them was splendid and the applause it called forth proved the appreciation of the audience for the artists.

A series of four musical mornings being given by Miss Ada Adams in different residences on the north side, Chicago, are very popular with society folk. Among the patronesses are a number of ladies well known to Highland Park, Mrs. Thomas Lyon, Mrs. Hugh T. Birch, Mrs. George McReynolds, and Mrs. Orson Smith. Miss Ada Adams spent one summer in Highland Park as the guest of Mrs. Norman Scott.

Miss Ruth Bryant left for the East last week and has resumed her school studies there.

The At Home given by Mrs. B. A. Fessenden on Saturday last was a scene of congratulations and good wishes occasioned by the engagement of Miss Alice Hyde Fessenden to Lieutenant Robert Gray Peck, which was announced on that day.

The Misses Virginia and Ruby Chandler, having spent the holidays at home, have departed to their separate schools, the latter to Kemper Hall and Miss Virginia to Connecticut.

Major and Mrs. R. F. Davidson returned this week from Florida, where they spent the Christmas holidays. Messers Porter, Gooding, and Mylrea, former students at Northwestern Military Academy were their guests while in the south.

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Wyles of Park avenue on Saturday last.

Mrs. George Lytton, Prairie avenue, Chicago, gave a luncheon and bridge party on Thursday for a number of her Highland Park friends.

Miss Francis Everett has returned from her visit in Grand Rapids.

The Woman's Missionary Union of the Presbyterian Church met with Mrs. James H. Shields on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Nathaniel Moore have been at the Auditorium Annex for a week or so and Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Cowan were their guests last week. Mr. and Mrs. Moore left for California this week.

Mrs. F. P. Hawkins returned from the East this week. Mr. Richard Hawkins, who has been ill with typhoid fever in Boston, is now in Springfield, Mass., and will come west in a few weeks.

Last Saturday evening Rev. A. A. Pfanstiehl's class of young men held their annual banquet at Ravinia Park Casino. To say that Mr. Welsh catered is but to say that the menu was superb, and the young men were lavish in their praises and devouring in their appetites of the excellent dinner provided. What with the class song, composed by Mr. Norman Mason, and toasts on the past, present and future of the class, rehearsals of the camping experiences and class trips, the greetings through Mr. H. M. Bacon and Mr. E. P. Sedgewick from the sustaining members, the evening was one of the most enjoyable and profitable social events the class has yet experienced. The young men start with renewed interest and enthusiasm in the Bible study and Mission work and social pleasures for the coming year.

Rev. A. A. Pfanstiehl preached in the Presbyterian church of Lake Forest last evening.

Miss Esther Schwarz and Miss Marion Mason have returned to Wellesley College.

Mrs. A. G. Hughitt of Chicago is a guest of Mrs. Samuel Slade

Miss Charles of 2129 Jackson Boulevard, Chicago, was a guest at the home of Jno. S. Reesman this week.

Mr. Ambrose Haungs visited his daughter, Mrs. Jno. S. Reesman on Wednesday.

Adelaide, little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jno. S. Reesman, has been quite ill all week but is doing nicely now.

Mr. and Mrs. Peiny Norcross of Janesville, Wisconsin, have been visiting their daughter, Mrs. George Allen Mason, the past week.

University of Illinois has opened after the holiday vacation and Messers Harry Sampson, Culver Shields, Joseph Colburn and Clarence Noernberg have returned to their college work.

John Brown has returned to Cambridge to again take up his studies at Harvard. Miss Eleanor Brown and Miss Helen Brown are now at Kemper Hall.

The following articles were found at Library Hall after the bazaar and were taken to Mr. E. O. Grover's. The owners will confer a favor on the family by calling for the articles, which are as follows: A linen center piece embroidered with yellow, A gold thimble marked "Mary," A half sheet marked S. W. C. A muff, and one platter and plate.

At three o'clock on Wednesday in St. Mary's church occurred the marriage of Miss Margaret McClory and Mr. James Boylen, both of this city. Miss Tessie McClory attended her cousin as maid of honor and a brother James McClory was best man. Mr. and Mrs. Boylen have gone on a short wedding trip after which they will reside in the McClory residence on St. Johns avenue.

Although few of our towns people took any active part in the Kirness given by the Cribside Society in Orchestra Hall Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday evening of this week, many were greatly interested in the affair. Miss Sadee Buckley and Mr. W. Bradshaw Egan were participators in the country dance, and Miss Julie Cummins of Lake Forest, formerly of Highland Park, was among the circle of Indian dancers.
