Pool Tournament at the Club

The championship pool tournament at the Highland Park club is well under way, there being 23 entries. As each contestant must play every other contestant, it is necessary to schedule games for every night except Friday, Saturday and Sunday. A list of the players for the following week is here given for the purpose of notifying each player as to the night he is expected to play. No other notice will be given. Games are forfeited by nonappearance unless special arrangements have been made to play the games within two weeks after date scheduled. Notices and scores will appear in the Highland Park News-Letter each week during the tournament.
