

What People Are Doing in Highland Park

Boulton-Van Schaik

On Tuesday January 16, Trinity Church, beautifully decked with holly, smilax and white narcissus, was the scene of the marriage of Miss Helen Wray Boulton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George D'Arcy Boulton, to Mr. Arthur Patten Van Schaik. At exactly three o'clock the bridal party entered the church and the ceremony was performed by Rev. P. C. Wolcott. Miss Muriel Boulton served her sister as maid of honor, Mrs. John Harmon, another sister, was the matron of honor. Mr. Van Schaik was attended by Mr. Logan Thompson as best man and there was eight ushers: Mr. Kenneth Boulton, Mr. Carl Marten, William Doetske, Rhea Rutter, H. Chandler Egan, J. Russell Jones, George Roberts and Gerald Van Schaik. Margaret and Edward Street were flower bearers.

The wedding was followed by a reception at the Boulton residence. Mr. and Mrs. Van Schaik will be at home after the nineteenth of February at 5100 Hibbard avenue, Chicago.

Pupils Recital

A delightful recital was given last Saturday afternoon by the little pupils of Miss Payne at her home on Central avenue. The playing of some of the pupils was remarkably good considering the length of time they had been under instruction. Miss Payne's French class was also present and gave some very pretty recitations, dialogues and children's plays. Miss Payne's success in teaching children both in music and in French seems almost phenomenal for even the smallest pupil spoke with a very correct accent. The parlors were filled with the friends and parents of the children and judging from the applause which greeted each number it was a very appreciative and responsive audience. At the close of the programme, Miss Payne invited the children into the dining room where they were bountifully served.

Altogether it was a most enjoyable programme. Miss Payne may well feel proud of the success of her young pupils.

The Hockey League

The Highland Park Hockey team is having very great success this season, having won every game thus far played. If the team can win the championship of the North Shore this season it is entitled to the silver league cup which is to be presented to the team winning the championship three seasons. Highland Park has already held the championship two years, losing it last year on account of many of the players being away.

The games already played and won this year by Highland Park are as follows:—Winnetka, 7-0; Lake Forest, 6-1; Evanston, 1-0; Winnetka, 7-0. Today the Highland Park team plays Kenwood, one of the best Chicago teams, at Ravinia Park rinks.

The following men are on the team this year: Thomas Troxel, Carleton Vail, James Shields, Kenneth Ramsay, H. Chandler Egan, Norman Mason, William Eckhardt, John Brown and Clement Smith.

Can you solve it?

Why will a business man spend time and money to make a business trip when that business might be transacted over the telephone at slight cost and without leaving the office? Successful business men are already wise. Chicago Telephone Company.

The Dorcas Society of the Presbyterian church held an all day meeting in the church parlors on Monday. The lunches which the ladies furnished for ten cents a plate at these meetings are much appreciated by those participating.

The Lady Foresters held installation services at Library Hall on Wednesday evening, the High Secretary of the Court of Foresters, Mrs. McDonnell, being present to take charge of the installation. Mrs. McDonnell gave an interesting talk which was fully appreciated by the ladies present. A large number of women from the Waukegan and Lake Forest Courts attended. After the services refreshments and a social time were enjoyed by the members and their guests. The following ladies now hold office in Court number 142. Chief Rang, Mrs. Margaret Sheahan; Vice Rang, Mrs. Catherine Muzik; Recording Secretary, Mrs. Minnie Dooley; Financial Secretary, Mrs. Elizabeth Pitts; Treasurer, Mrs. Agnes Duffy; Conductors, Miss Helen McMullen, Mrs. Nellie Witten; Sentinels, Mrs. Theresa Sheahan, Mrs. Margaret Schraum; Trustees, Mrs. Mary Swanson (3), Mrs. Margaret Erickson (2), Mrs. Catherine Gallagher (1).

Dr. Reed's Prayer

The late Thomas B. Reed used to tell the following: "Dr. Reed, of Indianapolis, who was in congress at one time, was opening the Sunday morning service at his church with the usual prayer. While he was in the midst of prayer a stranger entered the church and took a seat far back."

"Dr. Reed was praying in a low voice, and the man in the rear after straining his ears for awhile, called out: 'Pray louder, Dr. Reed; I can't hear you.'"

"Dr. Reed paused, opened his eyes, and turned them around till they rested on the man in the rear; then he said: 'I was not addressing you, sir; I was speaking to God.'"

The Dramatic Students Company makes their first public appearance at Ravinia Park Theatre this evening in a choice program of three short plays. The Company is composed of dramatic students who have spent months of study under Mr. Donald Robertson, a master of dramatic art, and the patrons of this evening's performance are assured of a high class performance.

The plays to be presented are "The Silent System" by Brander Matthews, "In a Balcony" by Robert Browning, and "The Intruding Widow" by Charles Lamb. The last named play was arranged and copyrighted by Mr. Milton Sills and Mr. Robertson, and is produced for the first time on any stage.

A high class musical program accompanies each play, under the direction of Mr. Charles Squire, a well known musician of Chicago.

A Foxy Woman

"I've got some good news for you, William, just as soon as you have cleaned up the yard."

"What's the matter with giving it to me now?" he asked.

"Oh, you've been promising to clean up the yard for the last two days," she explained. "So I want you to do that first."

Thereupon the obedient husband devoted two hours to the task.

"Now, what's the news?" he asked.

"Why, Mr. Brown wanted you to come over to his house for a smoke and a chat, but it's too late now," she answered. "I knew you wouldn't clean the yard if I told you first."
