Forty missionaries left Zion City last week for work in behalf of Zion in fields afar. The greater part of the number went direct to New York City where they will receive their final instructions. The sending out of missionaries is the result of the new policy of the triumvirate now ruling Zion which has decided to be more aggressive in the world's work. In Zion are natives of almost every country on the face of the globe and within the next several months several hundred of these will be sent out to every part of the earth to do the work of Zion.

A large and enthusiastic audience greeted the Dramatic Students company at their first public appearance at Ravinia Park theatre last Saturday evening, and all expectations were generously realized. The program was somewhat lengthy, consisting, as it did, of three one act plays, but the parts were admirably taken and the interest of the audience was sustained through all the scenes of tragedy and comedy.

It is likely that the company will appear again at Ravinia theatre sometime in February with a light three-act piece, in place of the rather heavy plays of last Saturday evening. Every one of the company showed marked dramatic talent, and much credit is due them and their instructor, Mr. Donald Robertson.

A Football Dilemma

The village football eleven was about to begin in the great match of the season with a rival team. Just before the game was timed to begin, the captain of the home team appeared with a worried look and dejectedly counted the spectators. They consisted of two farmer boys, a militiaman, and the local chimney sweep. He counted them over twice, but failed to make any more of them. As both teams took the field the home captain exclaimed:

"There won't be no match today. We scratch." "Wot are you talkin' about? said the opposition captain. You can't scratch now!"

"We've got ter," replied the home captain, dolefully; "we ain't took enough gate money to git the ball out o' pawn."—
