

HIGHLAND PARK NEWS-LETTER

Volume 19

HIGHLAND PARK, ILLINOIS, FEBRUARY 17, 1906

Number 7

What People Are Doing in Highland Park

Mrs. Lynn Rutter entertained at bridge whist on Friday afternoon.

Mrs. John Glass gave a bridge party on Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. W. D. Messinger has been ill the past week.

Miss Evva Egan gave a luncheon on Wednesday in honor of Mrs. Arthur P. Van Schaick.

Mr. W. T. Underwood, who is staying at the Chicago Beach, visited friends in the Park Sunday.

Mrs. James Maclear of St. Paul is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Nevius.

Mrs. Goodridge is entertaining this evening at a little party with her home on Second street.

Wednesday evening a party of friends dropped in on Mr. Dan Sheahan to help him celebrate his fortieth birthday. The guests came masked and in fancy costumes, and a very merry evening passed all too soon.

Mrs. W. R. Cregier and son Billy, Mrs. John R. Washburn, Mrs. Stubbs and three sons left Thursday for Pensacola, Florida.

Mrs. Harry Keating of Chicago spent several days this week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Smith, Sr.

The Highland Park Woman's Club are invited to spend Monday afternoon with the Ravenswood Woman's Club, who are holding a reciprocity meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. Stacy Parker of Chicago spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Snyder. Miss Nesceill Meyners of Winnetka has also been their guest this week.

Mrs. J. S. Seymour gave a very pretty tea on Tuesday afternoon at her home on Prospect avenue. She was assisted in receiving by Mrs. H. S. Haskins, Mrs. B. W. Schumacher, Mrs. Cobb, Mrs. Diehl and Miss Towner.

Before leaving for the south Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Warren announced the marriage of their daughter, Bessie Edna, to Mr. Harry B. Evans, which took place on last Saturday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Evans have the good wishes of a host of friends.

The Ossoli Club held its regular meeting on Thursday afternoon. The Club was fortunate in having with them Prof. W. L. Burnap of Chicago, who gave a very interesting talk on "The Debt of New England to Old England." The soloist was Mr. Arthur M. Burton, and Mrs. D. M. Erskine and Mrs. Charles Warren were the hostesses for the afternoon.

Mr. Lyman Prior is quite seriously ill.

Mrs. H. S. Vail entertained at luncheon on Thursday.

FOR SALE:—Three houses and lots. No. 115, 125 and 131, Block 4 South Second street, Highland Park, Illinois. W. D. Alford, No. 131.

First Church of Christ, Scientist, Hazel avenue near St. Johns. Service Sunday 10:45 a. m. Wednesday 8 p. m. Reading room in church open Wednesdays and Fridays from 2 to 4 p. m. Lesson subject for Sunday February 18th, "Christ Jesus."

Mrs. B. W. Schumacher entertained a few of the young people at bridge on Wednesday afternoon, in honor of her sister, Miss Zelle Emerson.

The choir of the First United Evangelical church resumed work this week after a vacation of six weeks. Prof. Saunders of Northwestern University will act as director.

The Young Ladies' Bridge Club met with Miss Annie Cobb this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Purdy gave a very pleasant valentine party on Wednesday evening. The affair was also in the nature of a house-warming, and the guests spent a most enjoyable evening.

Mrs. Jno. S. Reeseman spent Thursday with Mrs. Ed Welch at Lake Forest.

Miss Eva Clark of Evanston spent Wednesday with Mrs. Jno. S. Reeseman.

A party of young people have arranged an invitation dance to be given at Ravinia Park next Tuesday evening.

There will be a patriotic social next Thursday evening, February 22, at the home of Mrs. O. B. Brand, given under the auspices of the Christian Endeavor. All are cordially invited. Admission 10 cents.

Rev. George Johnson, treasurer of Northwestern College at Naperville, Illinois, will preach at the Ebenezer Evangelical church next Sunday, both morning and evening. Monday evening he will deliver a lecture on "The Needs of the Twentieth Century." All are welcome. A collection will be taken.

On Tuesday evening a party of friends surprised Mr. and Mrs. John Snyder at their home on Central avenue. Five tables of euchre were made up and a very enjoyable evening was passed. Mr. Frank Sheahan and Mrs. F. M. Evans took the first prizes and Mrs. C. P. Sullivan and Mr. Fred Greenlade took the booby prizes.

Mrs. Walter Carr entertained at bridge Friday afternoon.

The Bridge Club met with Mrs. E. J. Nally on Wednesday afternoon.

Miss Laura Mulke gave a valentine party for about twenty young people Wednesday evening. Guessing contests were the principal features of the evening.

Miss Marvin of Waukegan is visiting her sister, Mrs. E. H. Purdy, for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Wessling of Deerfield and Mr. and Mrs. John Stryker of Chicago visited Mr. S. P. Brand on Sunday.

Miss Anna Handblat spent a few days with relatives in Waukegan this week.

Mr. William A. Averill, who is studying at the Chicago University this winter, visited friends in Highland Park last week.

Dr. James Watson has been confined to the house by illness for the past week.

Mrs. H. H. Doty asked a number of the younger set in on Saturday afternoon to play bridge whist.

The cadets of the Northwestern Military Academy have issued invitations for their annual Junior Hop, to be held in the Drill Hall on the evening of the twenty-second.

Last Saturday evening a number of friends surprised Mrs. Fred Greenslade at her home on Second street.

The Woman's Club held a regular meeting on Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. William Millard had a paper on "Indian Superstitions" and Miss Nina Bell read one on "Indian Folk Lore". Mrs. Levin, Mrs. Maerklin and Mrs. Fritch were the hostesses of the afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Warren and Edward left for Pensacola, Florida, on Tuesday. They will be gone about four weeks.

On Thursday, the twenty-second, the North Shore Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution will award the prize offered some time ago for the best essay written by a school child. The award will take place at the High School and a very entertaining evening is promised. There will be music and speaking and the prize essays read. The literary part will be followed by refreshments and dancing and a cordial invitation is extended to all.