HIGHWOOD NEWS

The Ladies Auxiliary met with Mrs. Newsome Thursday afternoon.

Don't forget the Sunday School Patriotic Entertainment at the English M. E. Church next Thursday evening, February, 22.

Miss Kittie Yager was the prim mover in a surprise party given to Miss Garrity at her home in Highland Park Wednesday evening. A large number of young people were present, and enjoyed themselves immensely.

The Public Schools had appropriate exercises in the forenoon of Lincoln's birthday. Some prominent citizens were present and spoke to the pupils. The school was dismissed in the afternoon.

Levy Goldstein was fined $200 in county court this week for keeping a disorderly house.

Mrs. Henry Burbach is very sick with pneumonia. Dr. Ingalls is attending and thinks that there are good chances for her recovery.

John Goehringer has gone out of the saloon business and has moved his family down on Highland avenue in Jennings' new house.

A large number of the boys attended the Trainmen's dance in Chicago Friday night.

Mrs. John Bell entertained to cards last Saturday evening.

Mrs. Pease, wife of Daniel Pease arrived at 10.45 this morning from her trip to Eureka, Kansas, where their son, Rollin W. and Miss Lena Mason of Eureka were married on St. Valentine's day. Miss Mason is the daughter of J. B. Mason, one of the pioneer settlers of Kansas and comes from old New England puritan stock. Mr. and Mrs. Mason have recently moved to Klamath Falls, Oregon. Mr. and Mrs. Rollin Pease will reside in Weatherford, Okla. where Mr. Pease has charge of the musical department of the Southwestern Normal School.

The show windows at Julius Laegeler's Drug store are filled with flower and vegetable seeds, another department Mr. Laegeler has recently added.

Mrs. Doctor Westcott and infant son have been very ill with the grippe during the past week.

Mrs. Nelson Mowers, assisted by her daughter, Mrs. Donaldson, gave a valentine's party Tuesday afternoon. The decorations, all of which were in the shape of hearts, were very attractive. The refreshments were in the shape of hearts and helped to carry out the spirit of the occasion. The guests enjoyed themselves so thoroughly and the time passed so quickly that it was well along in the evening before the festivities were brought to a close.

Aunt Jerusha's Album which was given at the English Methodist Church Feb. 9, proved a great success, the ladies realizing $37.10 clear of all expenses. The Ladies Auxiliary and members of the Epworth and Junior Leagues wish to thank all who contributed to the program, and especially those from Highland Park. Mr. C. M. Schneider kindly loaned his piano. Miss Brands' playing and Miss Evans' singing was very much enjoyed. Mr. Prior's violin solos were especially fine. Rev. Mr. Parisoe's songs were also very much appreciated. Mrs. McEwen admirably sustained her reputation as a reader, and her hearers were delighted with her selections. Aunt Jerusha entertained her audience with the old family album, the likenesses proving the adaptability of the subjects. With true old fashioned hospitality she treated her guests to cake and coffee in abundance. The church was filled to the farthest corner with people from all around who came to have one last feast with Aunt Jerusha, who has ever proved entertaining and enjoyable.

Council Meeting

The regular meeting of the City Council was held last Tuesday evening, and considerable business was transacted. All bills against the City properly audited were ordered paid. The City Collector reported the delinquent water users, and their names were given to the ex-officio Superintendent of Water Works Charles Gordon for collection after five days notice.

A twenty year franchise was granted the Chicago Telephone Company to put their wires underground, and remove the unsightly poles. This move will beautify the streets of the city to a considerable extent. Judge Pease addressed the council in behalf of the ordinance.

Mayor Gibbs submitted to the Council a letter addressed to the President and the Secretary of War asking that the boycott now in force at Fort Sheridan be removed, and that officers and soldiers of the United States Army, not being citizens unfranchise, be forbidden to mix in the municipal politics by acting as prosecutors of the saloon business, and as spies for civic organizations. The letter was ordered sent.

The meeting then adjourned.

The five-act comedy, "The Rivals," was presented at the Post last Wednesday evening, for the officers and enlisted men, by the Garrick Club of Lake Forest College, under the stage direction of Mr. William Mather Lewis. Mr. Lewis deserves great credit for the masterly way in which the piece was produced. It seemed to the large audience of soldiers that professionals were acting, so well were the different characters represented, and so smoothly did the play proceed from start to finish. Every scene of this famous play was given without a hitch. The costumes of the players were complete and accurate. Mr. D. K. Hoopes, the manager of the Garrick Club, and who played the part of Acres, with success, arranged for the presentation of the play for the soldiers gratis. The soldiers appreciated the kindness and good work of the performers and applauded freely.
