

HIGHLAND PARK NEWS-LETTER

HIGHWOOD NEWS

Mr. C. E. Preston was called to Phoenix, Arizona, last Tuesday on account of the severe illness of his brother Eli. The many friends of the latter will be sorry to hear that the change in climate has proved of no avail.

Howard Mowers has left the employ of Steensohn Bros. and has gone to work for his father. Wm. Ives has taken the place vacated by Howard.

Arthur Sullivan has left the employ of H. J. Hemenway.

Miss Alice Conerton returned Saturday night from a five months visit to South Dakota.

Mrs. Sarah Monahan is quite sick with the grippe.

A dance will be given at the Park Hotel every Saturday evening until further notice. Mr. Wm. E. Felvey will have charge of the arrangements.

The ladies auxiliary of the M. E. church held a social at the home of Mrs. B. O. Fritsch last evening. Prof. F. W. Singer the well known elocutionist entertained a large and appreciative audience.

The Highwood Fire Department will give a masquerade ball next Saturday, St. Patrick's Day, in the evening. The pavillion at Fort Sheridan Park has been secured for the occasion and a large crowd is expected.

The Mystic Workers will give an entertainment next Tuesday evening in Library Hall, Highland Park. The Henshaw School of the Chicago Conservatory will present a dramatic sketch entitled "Olga Moore, the French Spy." Mrs. Owen McEwen will give a monologue entitled "The Telephone" by Label Fiske. Several musical numbers will also be given. No admission will be charged, as the entertainment is for the Mystic Worker and invited friends.

The Highwood base ball team for 1906 was organized during the past week. The club is to be known as Gibbs' Maroons with Mayor Gibbs as president and G. F. Conrad as manager. Owing to Mr. Conrad's wide experience in base ball while connected with the North Shore League and his intimate knowledge of the fine points of the game he is expected to be of much assistance in bringing out a successful team.

A. Sheldon the big captain will again be a tower of strength at short stop. Frank Golden at first base will again gather everything that comes within fifty feet of him and Howard Mowers will cool the hot ones that Adams and Avery will dish up to him. The team will be strengthened also by the addition of several new players of ability and experience.

Capt. Sheldon does not believe it will be necessary to take the team south for preliminary training as the spring seems to be opening up so early.

Manager Conrad states that the first match game of the season will be played on April 15, and future announcements of subsequent games will be given in these columns from time to time.

Dale Brakwell who has been spending the winter months in Texas, Arizona and other Southern States writes his friends that he is enjoying the best of health and will return about May 1st, and join Manager Conrad's squad.

Toby Adams is recovering from his recent illness and expects to hold down his regular position with Gibbs' Maroons.

Entertainment at the Post

The Lake Forest College Glee Club, of which Mr. C. C. Tolcott and F. D. Bethard are managers, furnished a very pleasant evening's entertainment for the post last Monday evening. The Lake Forest College men have done much towards making the life of the soldier pleasant this winter, as this is the second time the college men have entertained the Army without any expense to the soldier. There were thirty excellent voices in the chorus Monday night. The men proved themselves to be well drilled in their parts and competent in every respect. They looked well and sang well. There were 500 soldiers present, also more than 100 civilians, and the applause for the different numbers was generous. Unfortunately an officer's meeting at the club prevented the officers from listening to the kind of singing that a man would go a long way to hear. Several musical sketches were put in, comical in their character, and these greatly delighted the soldiers. Uncle Sam's officers and soldiers at Fort Sheridan wish many years' prosperity to the Lake Forest College students who sang for them.
