

A Famous Lecturer

Our community is to have the rare privilege of hearing the Rev. Dr. Hunter Corbett at the Presbyterian church next Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock. He will lecture on China. Dr. Corbett is one of the most striking figures as well as one of the greatest Missionaries now living. It is said that his very appearance and presence are inspiring and his message is something wonderful, plain, positive, powerful persuasive. He has been a foremost missionary in China for over 40 years. His experience and success there are thrilling. When in Washington a few weeks ago the President received Dr. Corbett with great enthusiasm and cordiality.

The lecture will be free and the public is invited.

Valuable Dog

"You know that dog of mine?" said Chief Clerk Fred Hill of the Occidental, referring to the historic animal, which is known as the "$1000 dog," because it has ten breeds in it, each of which is worth $100. "Well, sir, that dog is certainly the smartest canine living. You know he's a game dog and one of the finest pointers you ever saw. Why just to illustrate; I had the dog behind the counter here a few days ago and a man came up to register. Just as soon as he got near the counter I saw Charles Edward—that's the dog—go right to pointing. I couldn't understand it for a minute, but just as soon as I read the man's name I saw the wonderful intelligence of that dog. The visitor was Charles E. Quayle, of Santa Rosa. Why, do you know that once that same dog?"

But the crowd had silently melted away from the counter and the rest of Hill's remarks were unheard.—San Francisco Chronicle.

Letter to Mr. Benjamin Freberg

HIGHLAND PARK, ILL.

Dear Sir:—We manage to get some fun out of paint. J. K. Kohlmeyer, Grove City, Pa., put-in Devoe. Along came a salesman of somebody else's paint before ours had got there. Salesman said ours was short-measure. Kohlmeyer weakened, hung-fire and flapped: stopped ours and took his.

It was our turn now. We emptied our can into his and his into ours. The short-measure was his, not ours; and we kept our man.

And, ever since then, that paint-manufacturer gives full-measure; his paint is not pure, but his gallon contains four quarts.

Go by the name; and the name to go by is Devoe lead-and-zinc.

Yours truly,

F. W. DEVOE & Co.

New York and Chicago.

Fight Off The Crooks

Crime is rampant in Chicago. Thugs will soon be driven out. Protect your home with a telephone. When husband is absent the wife has instant communication with the police. A few cents per day pays for the service. Chicago Telephone Company.

Casual Philosophy

What one goes into debt for, nine times out of ten, is a luxury.

Gossips have no use for people who refuse to furnish material for them.

A man always making excuses leaves himself no time to make anything else.

Business based upon friendship threatens both; friendship based upon business strengthens both.

That man can best ignore the enmity of those who don't understand him who goes home to a wife who does.

It runs in a circle. If trouble drives you to drink, drink leads you to more trouble, and there you are.

It's a good deal easier to pray for men's souls than to pour balm into their wounds,—not to mention that it costs less.

The supreme court has not yet decided which is the weaker man,—he who is not able to see his own weakness, or he who has no faith in himself.

The millionaire who has caught up with fortune by turning sharp corners is much poorer than the bankrupt who failed doing his honest best.

—Success.

Infamous Graft

Policy-holders are appalled at the colossal insurance frauds. Fearing that death claims will not be paid they are securing telephones to prolong life. The instrument brings safety and sociability to the home. A few cents per day pays for it. Chicago Telephone Company.

An exchange says that an editor (name unknown) managed to evade the watchful eye of St. Peter and slipped inside the pearly gates of Heaven. When he was discovered there was great commotion, and diligent search was made for a lawyer to commence ejection proceedings. But alas! not one could be found in all Heaven, and the lucky editor was allowed to remain.

Frankly, we do not believe this story, but some of our readers may.

Don't Think Her Equal to It

An old lady who, with her husband, had spent the winter in Japan, was asked by one of her friends if she had heard an earthquake while there.

"Yes, I heard one," she answered, "and rather enjoyed it, for it was the first thing that happened since John and I were married that he did not think I was to blame for."

A Kansas minister refuses to accept marriage fees, as he does not think it right to profit by the mistakes of others.
