Ravinia Theatre

North Shore Theatre To Have Another Celebrated Travel Lecturer

Dwight Elmendorf, the illustrated travel lecturer, who has been entertaining large audiences in and around New York City for the past eight or ten years has been engaged to give his series at Ravinia Theatre. The course consists of five lectures and will be given on five consecutive Saturday evenings, beginning April 7.

Not only has Mr. Elmendorf taken his own pictures and colored slides himself, but he is said to have attractive powers as a lecturer. His views take a unique position in the world of photography, for he has employed to wonderful advantage the telescope in connection with his work, bringing objects at a great distance, even miles, to within easy reach of the camera. The subjects of his lectures will be "Africa, Algiers, and Tunis," "Egypt" "The Lower Nile the Sahara, the Edge of the Desert to the Garden of Allah," "Morocco to Seville and Spain," and "Aville to Grenada."

Letter to Mr. M. Wolak

HIGHLAND PARK, ILL.

Dear Sir:—Clothing is just like paint. It fits or it don't; it wears or it don't; turns weather and water or not; and goes out of fashion.

What do we wear clothes for? Did you ever think of it? Different persons have different reasons, no doubt, but one paints Devoe for beauty, to be in the fashion, and keep-out water.

Fashion says paint; we all paint. There is beauty in paint; we paint a good deal for that. And buildings are costly and fashionable; put-on a water-proof two or three coats of paint, and your buildings last as long as you keep them dry. It costs nothing to paint; it costs your buildings not to.

Devoe is the paint that lasts; disappointing paints are the paints that cost.

Yours truly,

F. W. DEVOE & Co.

New York and Chicago.
