

HIGHLAND PARK NEWS-LETTER

Volume 19

HIGHLAND PARK, ILLINOIS, MARCH 24, 1906

Number 12

HIGHLAND PARK

Mrs. H. S. Vail gave a bridge party on Thursday afternoon.

Try a box of Dr. Thomas' uncooked wheat bread. For sale at Mrs. Bohl's store.

Miss Letitia Jones of Ravinia fell, while playing in the gymnasium at High School last week and suffered a broken collar-bone.

The dancing class of the Northwestern Military Academy has issued invitations for a german to be given in the Drill Hull on Monday evening, March 26th.

Mr. William Albrecht has rented Mr. Fred Norberg's house on North Second St. and will move in shortly.

Mr. J. V. Dickenson has gone East and Mrs. Dickenson has left for the West for a short trip.

Miss Elizabeth Steele has returned from her visit in Green Bay, Wisconsin.

Rev. Eugene Fuessle is attending the Illinois Annual Conference at Freeport, this week.

A number of Highland Park people attended the debate at Lake Forest between Lake Forest College and Lawrence University of Wisconsin. The subject was, "Shall a National Commission be appointed with power to fix Railroad rates?" Lake Forest won the debate having the negative side. The speaking was exceptionally good.

The residence of Mr. John H. Harmon was entered by burglars on Sunday evening during the absence of the family. The burglary is supposed to have been committed by two men who escaped to Chicago with silverware and jewelry, valued at $2000.

The goods were placed in suit cases marked "J. J. H." and the men are said to have taken the trolley going south. In spite of the fact that the police, all the way from Chicago to Milwaukee, were notified at once, the goods have not been heard from as yet.

The Woman's Missionary Union of the Presbyterian Church held a meeting on Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Carleton Moseley. The following officers were elected:

Mrs. A. A. Pfantelhl, President Foreign Missions; Mrs. Harry Jessup, Secretary Foreign Missions; Mrs. T. H. Spencer, President Home Missions; Mrs. M. R. Sedgwick, Secretary Home Missions; Mrs. Helen Floyd, Secretary of literature. Mrs. R. W. Patton, Treasurer of Home and Foreign Missions.

Mr. Lippold, a prescription clerk from Bloomington, has taken a position with W. Schumacher. The addition to the force was made necessary by Mr. Schumacher's rapidly increasing candy trade, which now takes the entire attention of two men. Mr. Maerklin will have charge of the candy department from now on.

Mrs. Eugene Fuessle is visiting relatives in Wisconsin.

Mr. Orville St. Peter moved into his new house in the Exmoor Subdivision this week.

Mr. John R. Washburn has returned from Pensacola, Florida.

Victor Larke of Chicago spent Sunday with Leon Beardsley.

Mrs. Max Mueller entertained a few ladies on Wednesday afternoon, at her home in Fort Sheridan.

Miss Helen Messinger is home from Vassar for a two weeks vacation.

Mrs. John S. Reesman is visiting in Chicago at the home of her mother, Mrs. Ambrose Haungs.

Mrs. Emil Rudolph has been very ill this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Heilman of Irving Park were the guests of Mrs. Edward Hintz this week.

Mr. Carl Pfantelhl has returned from Lincoln, Neb., where he has been for several weeks.

Miss Julia Morgan will entertain eight girls at luncheon on Tuesday in honor of Miss Nellie Palmer.

Mrs. C. E. Schaeffler has returned from Los Angeles, California.

The Misses Eulalie and Annie Grover gave a "spoon party" on Friday evening for Mr. Raymond Flinn and Miss Nellie Palmer. Each guest brought a spoon of some description to be used in the new home.

A very select line of perfumes and stationery for the Easter trade. Dale Sweetland, Pharmacist.

WANTED — Laundress, Mondays only. Mrs. Howells, 34 Sheridan Road.

Miss Gertrude Schaefer has gone to Pittsburgh, Pa., where she will spend her spring and Easter vacations with school friends.

First Baptist Church. Public Worship on The Lords Day at 10.45 and 7.45.

Special Evangelistic Services in the evening. Come. All are welcome. Seats free.

Mrs. Reginald Wiscott and Mrs. Edward Johnson of Utica are visiting Mrs. E. T. Matthews.

Miss Lucille Finch of The University of Chicago will give an entertainment "Songs and Stories of the Old South" at the High School Saturday evening, April 7th, for the High School Alumni Association.

A complete line of the latest shirt waists, including China Silk, Lawn, Swiss and Silk Mull, for sale at Mrs. Bohl's store.

FOR SALE:—Residence corner Central and Linden avenues. Steam heat, Electric lights, Gas, Laundry, Large lot. For price and terms address H. C. Sampson, Highland Park, Illinois.

The dance given at Ravinia Park last Saturday evening by Messrs. Frank McCaffery, Edward McTamany and Leon Beardsley, was a success in every way. About sixty couples were present.

Mr. J. J. Brand gave the second part of his lecture on Tennessee on Friday evening.

Miss Emma Elliott suffered a painful accident last week by which one of her ribs was broken.

Mr. Robert Buckley, who for some time has been in Battle Creek, Mich., has returned to Highland Park.

Mrs. James Lane Allen returned last week from her visit in the east. On Wednesday she and Mr. Allen left for Galveston, Texas.

Mr. Charles M. Schneider has returned from Souix City, Iowa.

Mr. C. E. Wilcox has returned from his trip through the South and East.

William Gallagher, who recently underwent an operation at the Augustana Hospital, is improving rapidly, and hopes to be home soon.

A full line of Easter novelties at Mrs. Bohl's Store.

LOST:—Tuesday evening, on Waukegan avenue, Highwood, between Washington street and Clay avenue, lady's comb, gold back with setting. Finder please return to this office.

Mrs. Earl Purdy gave a "thimble party" on Tuesday afternoon for Miss Nellie Palmer.

Mr. Edward Duffy has gone into the Augustana Hospital for an operation for appendicitis.

Mr. and Mrs. William J. Louderback have gone to New York and will leave soon for Jamaica.

Mr. Lindblom underwent an operation for appendicitis this week at the Augustana Hospital.

Mrs. Henry A. Ritter entertained at luncheon on Friday for her niece, Miss Jeanne Louderback, who is visiting her.

The Woman's Auxillary of the Episcopal Church held an all day meeting at the home of Miss Towner on Wednesday. St. Margarets Guild served luncheon.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas L. Watson of Wayne, Pa., announce the engagement of their daughter, Alice Edgely, to Mr. Richard Willes of Cheltenham, England, and of Buenos Ayres.

Miss Donna Drew left on Thursday last for Washington where she will visit with friends for a month or so.

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. George Lytton of Chicago on Wednesday, March 14th.

Miss Helen Coale gave a luncheon for Miss Annie Scott on Saturday last. The shamrock and the snakes of St. Patrick were in evidence. After luncheon the young ladies played cards.

Rev. Eugene Fuessle, of the Sheffield avenue Church of Chicago, preached on Sunday at the Ebenezer Evangelical Church.