

HIGHLAND PARK NEWS-LETTER

Volume 10

HIGHLAND PARK, ILLINOIS, APRIL 14, 1906

Number 15

What People Are Doing in Highland Park

Mr. C. H. Coffin and daughter have moved to Chicago.

Mr and Mrs. H. E. Mason moved into the house on the corner of Linden and Central avenue, formerly occupied by Mr. Drum.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Drum have moved into the Barbour Brown house.

Tuesday evening there will be an Experience Social held in the parlors of the Baptist Church. The ladies of the Woman's Auxillary have been earning a dollar in the past few weeks and on Tuesday evening each lady will tell how her dollar was earned. The admission will be ten cents and all are cordially invited.

Mrs. W. P. Little of Chicago has been visiting Mrs. C. E. Wilcox this week.

Miss Grover has gone to Oberlin for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Darrah, who have been staying at the home of Mr. W. J. Louderbach during the family's absence, have returned to their home in Chicago.

Miss Merker, who has been visiting Mrs. Fred Boynton, for several weeks, has returned to her home in Wilkesbarre, Pennsylvania.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Gregory have rented their home "Ludgmere", for the summer to Mr and Mrs H. H. Gilbert of Chicago. They will take possession about May first. Mr. and Mrs. Gregory will spend the early part of the summer at the Moraine and later go East.

Miss A. E. Potwin spent a few days this week with her sister, Mrs. Judd, of Chicago.

Mrs. B. A. Fessenden leaves today for Washington, D. C., to attend the Continental Congress of the Daughters of the American Revolution, which is to be held there next week.

On Easter Sunday there will be a special service at the First Baptist Church, both in the morning and in the evening. at the latter service the Masonic body will attend and the music will be furnished by a part of the 27th Regt. Orchestra.

The Junior Auxillary of Trinity Church are holding their annual Easter Even Cake sale this afternoon at the home of Mrs. John Harmon on Park avenue. All kinds of cake and candy will be on sale and tea will be served.

Miss Amy Holabird entertained ten young ladies at an Easter bonnet luncheon on Saturday. Every girl had to make an Easter hat.

Pierson does interior decorating. Quality and price will satisfy you.

Mrs. James Prindiville returned this week from her winter in California.

Mr. and Mrs. William J. Louderback and son have returned from their trip to Jamaica.

Mr. Jno. S. Reesman returned home Friday after a month's absence in the East.

Miss Rucker, who has been visiting Mrs. John Glass, left last week for her home in Cleveland. Mr. and Mrs. Glass accompanied her and will be gone for a week or ten days.

Miss Virginia Chandler is home for the Easter holidays.

Mr. Ebert will leave on Tuesday of next week to attend the Conference at Kankakee. Owing to his absence on next Sunday there will be no morning service at Ebenezer Evangelical Church. Sunday School at 10:00 a. m. and Christian Endeavor in the evening will be as usual.

Mr. and Mr. Walter Scott Philpot, who are staying at the Virginia, are to live permanently in Highland Park and will buy a home here.

Mrs. Whitney has been visiting her daughter, Miss Helen Whitney, this week.

Carl Pfanstiehl will not return to Armour Institute until fall. He is improving in health. At present he is busy constructing an X-Ray apparatus for a doctor and is ready to take orders for any electrical work or repairing.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Slade have returned from Pass Christian, Miss.

Mrs. Howells gave a birthday party on Saturday last for her small son, George Howells.

Mrs. C. P. Funck of Burlington, Iowa, gave a very interesting and instructive lecture recital "Shakespeare in Music" at the Highland Park Club Friday evening, April sixth. Mrs. Funck has a thorough knowledge of her subject and illustrated it with vocal and instrumental numbers, the lyrics and dances of the Shakespearian era. Mrs. Carrie R. Beaumont accompanied Mrs. Funck.

The Masons will attend Easter services at the First Baptist church on Sunday evening at 8 o'clock. A special programme of music has been prepared. All are welcome. Seats free.

Special Easter services will be held at the Guard House at Fort Sheridan, Easter morning at 9:00 o'clock. Rev. Geo. D. Rogers of Highland Park, with a choir of special singers, will conduct the service.

FOR SALE:—A second hand fire proof safe in good condition, 39 in. high, 27 1/2 in. wide, 24 in. deep. Price $35.00. Apply Highland Park State Bank.

Mrs. Ambrose Haungs of Chicago, visited with Mrs. Jno. S. Reesman this week.

WANTED:—Cooking and general work by day. Address, Cook, This Office.

WANTED:—A competent willing girl or woman for general housework. Apply at this office.

Call at Piersons' and see his new and complete line of wall papers.

Mr. and Mrs. John F. L. Curtis have returned to Highland Park after a delightful trip of six weeks in California.

Miss Nellie Hart was hostess to about twenty of her North Shore friends last Saturday evening. Music and a general good time was the order of the evening's entertainment. A dainty lunch was served which was one of the most pleasing features of the evening.

At Trinity Church on Easter Sunday the services will be as follows: At 7:30 a. m. Celebration of The Holy Communion. At 11 o'clock, Morning Prayer and The Holy Communion, and at 4:30 o'clock children's Festival Evensong.

For the 11 o'clock and the 4:30 o'clock services, elaborate programs of music have been prepared.

The choir at Trinity church is doing splendid work, and the character of the music for Sunday denotes hard work at rehearsals.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Morgan Steele announce the engagement of their daughter, Elizabeth Livingston Steele, to Charles Jerome Forbes, Jr., of Chicago. No date has yet been set for the wedding.

Some of the young men of the First United Evangelical Church met last Monday evening at the home of Mr. William Noerenberg and decided to organize a Baraca Bible Class. A constitution was adopted and the following officers were elected: President, Herbert Inman; Vice President, Oscar Noerenberg; Secretary, Rodger Fritsch; Treasurer, Wesley Fritsch; Press Reporter, Henry Maechtle, Jr; teacher of the class, Rev. E. F. Fuessle. After the election refreshments were served as a surprise.

At the recent session of the quarterly conference of the First United Evangelical Church, Rev. E. F. Fuessle, Pastor, it was decided to limit the German language to the first Sunday morning of each month, all other public services being in English. Bishop Heil will preach on Easter Sunday morning.

First Church of Christ, Scientist, Hazel avenue near St. Johns. Service Sunday 10:45 a. m. Wednesday 8 p. m. Reading room in church open Wednesdays and Fridays from 2 to 4 p. m. Lesson subject Sunday April 15th: Probation after Death.