Ravinia Park

Following the announcement that Walter Damrosch and the New York Symphony Orchestra open their second season at Ravinia Park Saturday, June 23rd, comes the statement that Manager Murdock is now negotiating with Mr. Stock and the Thomas Orchestra for an extended engagement at Ravinia to follow Mr. Damrosch and his magnificent organization. This arrangement will give Chicagoans one long festival of music during the summer months.

The excellent facilities at Ravinia for attractions of this class, the artistic surroundings of the place, and the splendid efforts on the part of the management to give an instructive and elevating entertainment ought to make it a popular rendezvous, not only for people of taste and culture, but for the general public, who, after a day's grind within the boundary of Chicago's smoke and soot, may spend an evening or Sunday afternoon in the cool, refreshing shade of Ravinia's groves and listen to the strains of Mendelssohn's "Songs without Words" or some other equally beautiful melody.

Dwight Elmendorf's Travel-Talk on "Africa, Algiers and Tunis" at Ravinia Theatre last Saturday evening was attended by a large and appreciative audience, who are loud in their praises of the evenings entertainment. Mr. Elmendorf's Travel-Talk while on the order of the Burton Holmes Travelogues, which so delighted Ravinia Theatre patrons last fall, are distinctly individual in style and treatment, and have gained for Mr. Elmendorf a wide reputation as a travel lecturer. The many beautiful and interesting pictures and colored views which vividly illustrate the Travel-Talk are accompanied by a charming conversational lecture which is most interesting and enjoyable.

Mr. Elmendorf's Travel-Talk this evening will be on "Egypt and the Lower Nile", and the subjects for the following Saturday evenings will be, in the order named, "The Sahara", "Morocco" and "Spain".

Letter to Mr. John Midleton.

Highland Park, Ill.

Dear Sir: It's an old saying, the best advertisement is a pleased customer.

It happens to us continually in this way: A man buys Devoe for his house — he has painted it once in three years for a dog's-age, and thinks he knows what he wants—buys 30 gallons, and has 10 left.

He sees right-off that 20 Devoe is as much as 30 of anything else. He likes that; it comes quick; it is a surprise; and he tells of it. The best advertisement is a pleased customer.

Three years roll round. There isn't a sign that his house needs paint; he don't paint it. Next year he don't paint it. This comes slow; it is a surprise; but he has got used to it. Still the best advertisement is a pleased customer. Yours truly,

F. W. DEVOE & Co.

New York and Chicago.
