Entertainment at the Post

Mr. Greene of the Greene News Company of Highland Park, Illinois, gave the soldiers a first class phonograph concert in the large mess hall Monday night. Mr. Greene illustrated his songs and musical pieces with pictures with a stereopticon. His piece "Everybody works but father" illustrated with views, was a great hit among the soldiers. The patriotic pieces took well too. Mr. Greene also played the music for the views of the San Francisco Earthquake and Fire, exhibited by Mrs. H. C. Chadbourne. A feature of the evening well rendered recitations of Miss Margarat McCallie, who entertained the soldiers through kindness of Captain Gilberth. The 500 soldiers in the hall declared Miss McCallie an excellent speaker. They compelled her to recite four times and were ready for more. Mr. Greene, Mrs. Chadbourne and Miss McCallie deserve credit for the excellent programme presented entirely gratis. Many officers and families were in the audience.

To wed or not to wed

To wed or not to wed's the question—
Whether 'tis better, when Cupid sneaks around,
As he surely will some day,
(Naked little rascal that he is)
To have the hired man pitch him thro' the fence.
And turn the dogs a loose upon his trail,
And play life's game alone—
To walk the happy paths of bachelorhood—
To smoke and drink and go and come.
And if you choose, to hang your feet
Upon the mantle board—
To do as you d—n please in short
And be a happy man forevermore;
Or else to shut your eyes
And hold your breath,
And pray the Lord to save the soul,
And jump right into matrimonial seas
And be drowned forsooth forever afterwards—
To walk the baby, make the fires.
And dish the paragoric out,
To work all day without any pay
As a general Handy Andy—
To buy ten thousand styles of female hats.
And baby shoes and foolish things like that,
And thereby throw your money all away,
And hear your children cry for bread?
Aye! there's the rub, "to break," "to bust,"
"To hit the ceiling," "bite the dust,"
Of bitter poverty.
