Ravinia Park

The programs arranged by Director Stock for the seven days of afternoon and evening concerts at beautiful Ravinia Park must surely prove irresistible to the host of music loving Chicagoans. Tonight will be "Ball-room Night" at the park, and a beautiful list of selections have been prepared. Tomorrow afternoon and evening should see Ravinia Park the "Mecca" of those in search of a delightful afternoon or evening. Mr. Stock has included in the afternoon program a flute solo by Mr. Alfred Quensel, and of orchestral numbers, there will be heard the "Schumann's Traumerei", a Moszkowski Serenade, the Grieg Peer Gynt Suite, the Schubert "Rosamunde" Overture, and Berlioz March Marocaine, Cornelius' Barber of Bagdad Overture and Kaun's Festival March and Hymn of Liberty. Tomorrow night, Mr. Bruno Steindel will be the soloist and will charm his audience with the Boellmann Variations Symphoniques for Violoncello. Among the orchestral numbers on this program will be Wagner's Huldigungs-marsch, Saint-Saens Danse Macabre and Liszt's Les Preludes.

The program for the midweek concerts are likewise of rare charm: Tuesday evening's program including the "Unfinished" Symphony of Schubert and the concerto for Oboe by A. Barthel. On Wednesday evening two soloists will be heard. Mr. Ludwig Beejer, violin, and Mr. Steindel, 'cello; each appearing in an individual solo and then in two duets for violin and 'cello. Thursday afternoon the children's concert will be given, and not a seat should be vacant. At this concert, the list of works to be provided includes such old favorites as Mendelssohn's Spring Song, Straus' Walz "On the Beautiful Blue Danube" Schumann's Traumerei and Tschaiakowsky's Nutcracker Suite. The evening program of that day will appeal strongly to lovers of Tschaiakowsky's music, containing his fifth symphony. On Friday evening a Wagner program will be the offering, and Mr. L. de Mare will play the French horn solo in Siegfried's Rhine Journey from "Die Goetterdaemmerung".

The Casino at Ravinia Park will remain open during the winter and the Ballroom can be rented for Parties, Balls and Banquets.

There will also be Skating and Tobogganing when the weather permits.

The Five Elmendorf Lectures will be given on five consecutive Saturdays commencing October 6th.

Course tickets now on sale. Prices $1.50 and $3.00.

A Ride For His Temper

A certain farmer living near the town of Derby, having got himself disliked on account of his quarrelsome habits, the other farmers decided one night to cool him down a bit.

At midnight the farmer was disturbed by a voice shouting, "Your horse is stolen!"

The irate farmer hurried on his clothes, and, hastening to the door, asked, "Which way has he gone?"

"Toward H—," replied one of the farmers.

Another offered the loan of a horse he bestrode, which offer the sleepy farmer accepted. After riding all night he found himself at daylight next morning riding his own horse.—Tit Bits.
