ST. JOHNS AVENUE

From Poor Richard's Almanac.

Be slow in choosing a friend, slower in changing.

Keep thy shop and thy shop will keep thee.

What is given shines, what is received is rusty.

To be humble to superiors is duty, to equals courtesy, to inferiors nobleness.

If you know how to spend less than you get, you have the philosopher's stone.

Bargaining (business) has neither friends nor relations.

He that buys by the penny, maintains not only himself, but other people.

None preaches better than the ant, and he says nothing.

Good wives and good plantations are made by good husbands.

If you desire many things, many things will seem but a few.

He that buys upon credit pays interest for what he buys.

He that can take rest is greater than he that can take cities.

No better relation than a prudent and faithful friend.

Don't misinform your doctor nor your lawyer.

There are three faithful friends—an old wife, and old dog, and ready money.

He that would have a short lent, let him borrow money to be repaid at easter.

Sell not virtue to purchase wealth, nor liberty to purchase power.

As we must account for every idle word, so we must for every idle silence.

An infallible remedy for toothache, viz.: wash the root of an aching tooth in Elder Vinegar, and let it dry half an hour in the sun; after which it will never ache more.

Lend money to an enemy, and thou'lt gain him; to a friend and thou'lt lose him.

Catch The Thieves

Hist—burglars downstairs—silverwear—revolvers—masks—stealthy footsteps. Woman upstairs—alone—frightened—dares not make an out-cry. But if she has an extension telephone in her bed-chamber she telephones the police without disturbing the burglars and without danger to herself. Extensions now cost only fifty cents per month. Telephone your order to the Manager. Chicago Telephone Company.
