

What People Are Doing in Highland Park

Mrs. Glass of Cleveland is visiting her son, Mr. John Glass.

Earle Sheahan has been very ill this week.

Mr. Bert Messenger is very ill in Colorado. Mr. and Mrs. Messenger and their daughter, Miss Helen Messenger, who came home at once from Vassar, have gone on to Denver.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Flinn have returned to their home in Chicago after spending the summer in Highland Park.

Miss Jean Louderback entertained at luncheon on Thursday for a few friends.

Miss Elizabeth White gave a luncheon last week for Miss Catherine Smith Rollo, whose marriage to Mr. James Norman Wright took place on Thursday in Chicago.

Mrs. Oren E. Taft is visiting Mrs. John Marshall at Louisville, Ky.

Mrs. R. P. Davidson entertained informally on Friday afternoon for a few young people. The affair was in honor of Mrs. Marshall.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Cutts are the happy parents of a baby boy. Mrs. Cutts was formerly Miss Lucy Judson of this city.

Judge Peter Grosscup has returned from his trip abroad.

LOST:—Friday, small coin purse, containing two pictures. Return to 211 St. Johns avenue.

E. L. Des Jardins has resigned his position as superintendent of the Chicago & Milwaukee Electric Railroad, and contemplates going into the construction business. His resignation takes effect November 1st.

See us for the selling and renting of your Highland Park properties. Have immediate customers. Murray & Terry, 217 W. Central Avenue. Phone 206.

FOR RENT:—Nice furnished room; steam heat. Call at 250 South Second street.

First Church of Christ, Scientist, Hazel avenue near St. Johns. Service Sunday 10:45 a. m. Wednesday 8 p. m. Reading room in church open Wednesdays and Fridays from 2 to 4 p. m. Subject for Sunday, October 7, Are Sin, Disease, and Death Real?

Mrs. James Mee, of Rockwood, Tenn., who has been visiting here and in Lake Forest, was called home last week quite suddenly by the illness of Mr. Mee's mother.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Kirk have returned to Chicago.

J. P. Naumes has resigned his position as superintendent of transportation on the Chicago & Milwaukee Electric Railroad, and has accepted a similar position with the Chicago & Southern Traction Co. He leaves for his new duties about Oct. 10th.

STRAYED OR STOLEN:—Last Monday night, a dark Jersey cow, without horns. Anyone seeing or hearing of such a stray please notify Dr. L. M. Bergen.

In connection with the Elmendorf lectures beginning at Ravinia theatre Oct. 6th, it is announced that Mr. Lester Price, general manager of the North Shore Gas Company, is to again preside at the organ, giving as last year a short popular recital before each performance.

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Lobdell and family have returned to Chicago after spending the summer here as usual.

Miss Viola Shields entertained at luncheon on Tuesday for Miss Scott of Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. William Millard have returned from their trip to St. Paul and Minneapolis.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Goldberg have rented the Hayes house on North Sheridan Road for the winter.

Mrs. W. C. Eddy spent a few days this week visiting in Decatur, Ill.

Mrs. Atwood and daughter of Boston have been the guests of Mrs. W. W. Flinn and left for home on Thursday.

Sir Nigel, Bob Hampton, The Late Tenant, Whispering Smith, The Fighting Chance, and other up to date popular books at $1.25 a copy. Albert Larson, news dealer and stationer.

WANTED:—Warm furnished room for two. State terms and location. Address "A" this office.

Chandler Egan gives a dinner at the Exmoor Club to-night. A number of dinners are to be given preceding the annual harvest party given by the Club.

Mrs. L. B. Hibbard, who was operated upon at the Hanneman Hospital recently, is expected to return home the first of next week. She is still in a very weak condition, and will be unable to see her friends for some time.

Mr. Joseph H. Garaghty has returned after a six week's hunting trip in the West, and with Mrs. Garaghty and her little daughter Louise, is at the Moraine.

Miss Carolyn Shields left on Monday for Fredonia, New York, to attend the marriage of Miss Elizabeth MacLeod, who visited Miss Shields last summer. Miss Shields will be one of the bride's attendants.

LOST:—A blue umbrella, on Laurel avenue, last Saturday evening. Finder please return to News-Letter office, and receive reward.

Col. H. P. Davidson went to Chicago Thursday evening to attend the annual banquet of the Geographical Society, of which he is a member.

The friends of Mr. Carl New, an instructor at the Northwestern Military Academy, will regret to learn of the death of his mother, which occurred this week at his home in Batavia, N. Y. Mr. New was called home by a telegram last week.

FOUND:—In Highland Park, Sunday evening Sept. 9th, very valuable pin. Owner can have same by describing and addressing No. 80 Wisconsin street, Chicago.

Just Received

One case of Gibson's (England) Fruit Tablets. The best in the world. Headquarters at Mrs. Bohl's store.

FOR RENT:—New seven-room steam-heated flats, with janitor service, only $35 per month. Hardwood floors, burlap decorations, gas and electric lights, gas ranges, near electric cars and high school. Corner Moraine Road and St. Johns avenue. Finished November 1st. Also modern eight-room house in fine order. Address H. Palmer, Highland Park. Tel. 2262.

Mrs. James Prindiville is back from Roaring Brook, Michigan, where she has been spending the summer.

Miss Isabel Scott of Chicago has been visiting friends in Highland Park for the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Russell and family, who have been living in Mr. Ives' house this summer, returned to town on Monday.

Mr. Carlton Prindiville and family have gone back to Chicago after spending the summer months here as usual.

A number of Highland Park people went to Ft. Sheridan on Tuesday afternoon to attend an informal tea given by Mrs. Rogers for her guests, Miss Rogers and Miss Halleck of New York.

FOR RENT:—Seven-room house. Furnace, gas, strictly modern, $25. Call at this office.

LOST:—Silver chain with pendant. Blue enamel with drop pearl. Finder return to 547 St. Johns avenue.

E. Ernhart of Lafayette, Indiana, has opened a picture gallery in the Fletcher Building, Central avenue.

TO RENT:—Seven-room house at 180 Park avenue. All modern improvements. Address J. P. Naumes, Highland Park.

Mrs. John Stupey, who has been in the Augustana Hospital for a few weeks, is at home again much improved in health.

Mr. Robert H. Gregory returned last week from Moosehead Lake, Me., where the family have been for the summer, and is at the Moraine until Mrs. Gregory and his daughter return. They will be in Highland Park about a month before going back to Chicago.

Specialties are: Home-made Tomato Catsup, Orange and Apple Marmalades, Wild Crab Apple Jellies, Zion Pure Candies, and Dr. Thomas' Uncooked Wheat Bread at Mrs. Bohl's store.

Mr. and Mrs. George Marcy gave a large dinner on Monday evening at the Moraine. The table decorations were in keeping with those in the ballroom where the dinner was held. The guests which numbered fifty took part in a beautiful cottillion after dinner.

H. Freibebe, who last week opened up a paint and paper store in the basement of the new Hawkins Block, invites the public to call and inspect his new quarters. Mr. Friebebe has several first class workmen, and will be pleased to quote prices on painting, papering and interior decorating.

Mr. and Mrs. T. S. Howland and their daughter, Miss Howland, are among new arrivals at the Moraine, to stay until the closing of the hotel on November 1st.

Mr. Arvid Magnuson is back at his old position in the post office after his trip to Sweden. He reports a most enjoyable summer.

The Harvest Ball given at the Moraine on last Saturday evening was the success of the season. The hall was decorated in the usual style with wheat and pumpkins. Intermingled with green leaves festooned about the ceilings and walls were red and white electric lights and jack-o'-lanterns.

After the dance supper was served to a large number of guests.