Intensest summer sunshine

Wind-wedded with the sod,

Now duplicates its glory

In waving goldenrod;

While wayside asters stately,

In white and purple gowned,

Await in full procession

Where purple grapes are crowned.

Like Father, Like Son

I once knew a father who once heard his fifteen year old son use profanity. Walking quickly up to the lad, he seized him, shook him roughly and ended by boxing his ears hard enough to send him to the ground and then said to him "now blank you don't let me hear you swear again".

This reminded me of a mother who said to her husband when he came home from his business, "I thought you were coming home early to punish Willie for telling that lie".—Father—"I was but I had to stop at the City Hall and swear off my sins".

A Disgraceful Affair

We quote from the Danvill Banner the following data regarding the disgraceful "bull fight" between "Joe" Gans of Baltimore and Battling Nelson of Chicago.

Purse $33,000 of which Gans gets $11,000 and Nelson $22,000.

Rounds—Forty two.

Time—Two hours and fifty minutes.

Gate receipts—$76,000.

Attendance—6,200.

Bets at scene—$150,000.

But in the opinion of high minded and patriotic citizens there was no more deplorable feature of this disreputable affair than that a United States Senator (George S. Nixon of Nevada) and other persons of prominence should lend it indorsement by their presence.

H. Freible, who last week opened up a paint and paper store in the basement of the new Hawkins Block, invites the public to call and inspect his new quarters. Mr. Freible has several first class workmen, and will be pleased to quote prices on painting, papering and interior decorating.

HIGHLAND PARK

Mrs. M. A. Ives and two children returned this week from their stay in Michigan.

Mrs. Albert Schnill, has joined her daughter, Mrs. Carl Hienzen, at the Moraine.

Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert, who have been living in Mr. Robert Gregory's house this summer, returned to Chicago this week.

On Tuesday evening Mr. Cushing gave the usual dance for the help at the hotel and the guests made great sport of their dilemma and acted as their own bell-boys and waitresses.

FOR SALE:—Four 40 ft. lots on Highwood avenue, Highland Park, opposite M. E. Church. Price $500 each. F. C. Clark, owner.

Sir Nigel, Bob Hampton, The Late Tenant, Whispering Smith, The Fighting Chance, and other up to date popular books at $1.25 a copy. Albert Larson, news dealer and stationer.

Just the thing for the holidays. I have a splendid assortment of Japanese Hand Painted China. Don't wait until December to buy, and then expect the best selections. Come early and be ready when the time comes. Mrs. Bohl's store.

The first regular meeting of the Highland Park Woman's Club will be held in the new room in the Library Building, on next Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Mrs. W. T. Underwood will address the meeting, the subject being "Travel Topics". The afternoon has been set aside as guest day, each member being entitled to bring one guest. The annual dues are now payable.

Remarkable Growth

Large increase in the list of subscribers makes it necessary to issue a new Chicago Telephone directory for fall and winter use. The unusual demand for Chicago telephones during August and September proves that the service is reliable and satisfactory. Order now and get your name in the new book. Don't delay. Telephone the manager for information.
