

What People Are Doing in Highwood

There was no council meeting Tuesday evening, on account of the lack of a quorum. The next meeting of the council will be held Tuesday evening, October 23.

Mayor M. J. Gibbs and Police Magistrate Daniel Pease attended the annual convention of the State County Officers Association, at Waukegan Thursday. After the business session, the day was given up to pleasure, and the delegates visited all the towns along the North Shore, including Zion City, Fort Sheridan and Ravinia Park. A banquet was served in the evening at Waukegan, and the delegates made a theatre party to the Schwartz Theatre.

Miss Katherine Pease spent the day in Highland Park Wednesday as the guest of Miss Joy Miller.

The third battalion of the 27th Infantry have moved into the barracks recently vacated by the 14th Battery. The move was made because the old barracks were inadequately heated for the cold snap of the past week.

Julius Laegeler is installing steam heat in his building on the corner of Waukegan and Highwood avenues.

Mr. W. D. Aiken has resigned his position with Julius Laegeler and has taken a position with Dale Sweetland at Highland Park.

Police Magistrate Daniel Pease reports no criminal cases on the docket this week, but several civil cases are engaging the attention of his honor.

Mr. L. A. Pennyworth of Macomb, Illinois, has taken a position as pharmacist with Julius Laegeler.

Lieutenant J. S. Hammond of the 14th Battery and Lieutenant F. W. Niles of the 21st Battery are ill in the hospital at Fort Sheridan with typhoid fever, contracted this summer at Fort Benjamin Harrison, Indiana. Several of the enlisted men are also sick with the fever.

There will be an installation of officers of Sheridan Lodge, I. O. O. F. next Wednesday evening by District Deputy Julius Laegeler. Owing to the fact that N. G. H. M. Snyder, has gone to Cuba with the 14th Battery, there will be a new election for that office next Wednesday night.

"Beg pardon, sir."

"What for, sir? What have I done?"

"I mean, I beg pardon, sir."

"Well, sir, what have you done?"

"May I take you apart for a moment, sir?"

"Certainly not! You'd never be able to put me together again, sir."

"I mean, may I lead you aside for a minute?"

"Quite unnecessary, sir; I can walk without leading."

"Of course, sir; I mean, would you mind stepping one side?"

"Which side?"

"It doesn't matter, sir; I wanted to speak to you, that was all."

"Oh, then you've changed your mind? Well, good day, sir."

"Wait a minute, please; can't I get you to subscribe to the Standard Dictionary, sir?"

"No, sir; I subscribed for it some time ago."
