HIGHLAND PARK NEWS-LETTER

Volume 19 HIGHLAND PARK, ILLINOIS, OCTOBER 20, 1906 Number 35

Ravinia Park

Dwight Elmendorf, in his third lecture at Ravinia Theatre tonight, will show Switzerland and the wonders of the Alps. It is the most picturesque of subjects, and with Mr. Elmendorf as guide it will prove doubly interesting, for he will not show the "Tourist's" Switzerland, but has found the picturesque least known spots to photograph, the quaint little villages hidden away in the valley, and still undiscovered by the "Cookies." He shows the country from the Alps and the greater part of his remarkable pictures are taken from the summits, among the clouds. With the aid of a motion picture he will take his audience with him in the actual ascent of the "Jungfrau." This particular picture is very remarkable, for it was made with the greatest peril and difficulty and it shows every step of the dangerous climb from the club hut to the very summit above the clouds. The film is over a mile long and it occupies fifteen minutes in the projection.

Among the beautiful still-pictures are some of the gems of Mr. Elmendorf's collection, sunrises and sunsets taken from the heights, and telephotograph of the most superb of the Alps, the Matterhorn.

Letter to Mr. M. A. Mihills

Highland Park, Ill.

Dear Sir: Two years ago the estate of the late Congressman Scott, of Erie Pa, painted 24 Rolling-Mill houses one coat Devoe at a saving of 11 per cent for paint (lead-and-oil was after the job).

That's how the tale reads. We infer what really happened.

The buyer, as usual, went by the cost of paint; got bids. Lead-and-oil bid low and guessed the quantity low; the saving was only 11 per cent.

Nobody seems to have thought of this: the painting costs two or three times as much as the paint. How much do we save on the painting? Don't know.

The tale ends with this: We often refer inquiries to those houses, for wear of Devoe.

That's a good enough story; but nobody knows what it is. Our only difficulty is want of paint-intelligence.

Yours truly
F. W. DEVOE & Co.

Rev. Mr. Rogers at Salina, Kansas

The many friends of Rev. George D. Rogers, formerly pastor of the Baptist Church in this city, will be pleased to know that he is now established in his new pastorate at Salina, Kansas. The following is clipped from the Salina Evening Journal, the soldiers referred to being the first squadron of the Thirteenth Cavalry out on a practice march.

The Rev. George D. Rogers, the new pastor of the Baptist church in this city, was a welcome visitor at the soldier's camp yesterday afternoon. Mr. Rogers is well known in the United States army as the soldier's friend, and has had a peculiar success in helping the enlisted men into a better spiritual life. His visit with the soldiers yesterday covered a period of an hour or more and it was made unusually pleasant by both the officers and the privates.

"The demon of intemperance ever seems to have delight in sucking the blood of genius and generosity. What one of us but can call to mind some dear relative, more promising in youth than all his fellows, who has fallen a sacrifice to rapacity? He ever seems to have gone forth like the Egyptian angel of death, commissioned to slay, if not the first, the fairest born of every family. Shall he now be arrested in his desolating career?"

"If the relative grandeur of revolutions shall be estimated by the great amount of human misery they alleviate, and the small amount they inflict, then, indeed, will this be the grandest revolution the world has ever seen."—Abraham Lincoln.
