

What People Are Doing in Highwood

Miss Ellen Cox, at the post office, will hereafter act as representative of the Highwood News, and any news items left with her will be appreciated. As the success of a newspaper depends very largely on the amount of personal and general news, it is hoped that all will leave items of interest concerning themselves and their families.

Miss Marie DeGraff of Buffalo, N. Y., is spending several days with Miss Hattie Fox.

Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Cox and Eugene Cox of Kenosha visited at W. D. Cox's over Sunday.

Miss Kittie Stringer, who has been living with her aunt, Mrs. James Watson, for some time past has taken a flat in Chicago, and will keep house for her son Richard.

There will be a regular meeting of the City Council next Tuesday evening.

Master Forrest Cummings is very sick.

The Glee Clubs of the 21st Battery and the 27th Infantry will give a weekly series of dances in the mess hall at Ft. Sheridan this fall and winter. The first of the series was held last Wednesday evening.

An unknown man was struck by a C. & M. E. car at the Washington street station Wednesday evening. He was not seriously injured.

Mrs. Charles Butler received a telegram Saturday announcing the death of her mother in Cincinnati, and she left for that city Saturday evening. She will be gone several days.

A number of Highwood people attended a very enjoyable card party given by Mrs. Fred Tucker at Highland Park on Wednesday evening.

There was an adjourned meeting of the City Council this week Tuesday evening, at which an ordinance was passed authorizing a sewer on Webster avenue.

The Chicago & Milwaukee Electric R. R. has built sidewalks from the new Highwood avenue station to the C. & N. W. station and to Waukegan avenue. This is a great improvement, both in looks and in accommodations to the public.

Those from Highwood who attended the annual game dinner at Fox Lake Thursday report a large attendance, and a very good time.

William Hostetter is spending a few weeks at his old home in Anderson, Indiana, where Mrs. Hostetter has been for the past two months. They will return next week.
