

What People Are Doing in Highland Park

Mrs. Bender and her daughter, Mrs. Max Mueller, have returned from an extensive trip east.

Miss Dorothy Clark and Miss Marjory Mihills are spending the Thanksgiving vacation in Chicago with Miss Annie Scott.

Mrs. D. P. Sheahan had as her guests on Thursday Miss May Corbett, Miss Jessie Corbett, Miss Malbauf and Mr. Raleigh of Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Middleton of Chicago spent Thursday at the home of Mr. John Middleton.

Mr. and Mrs. John Snyder and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Snyder spent Thanksgiving day with Mr. and Mrs. August Dannemark in Wilmette.

Miss Annie Cobb went to Kenosha on Wednesday to attend the Thanksgiving dance at Kemper Hall. She will remain there a few days with her cousin, Miss Olga Taylor.

Mrs. James H. Shields and Miss Carolyn Shields left on Thursday for San Francisco to spend the winter. Mrs. Shields took her little daughter, Elizabeth, with her.

Miss Carolyn Shields entertained a large party of young people at supper on Sunday evening.

I am fully equipped for the Holiday Buyer. Call and look over my stock and save a lot of down town hard work for the many little wants of the time at Mrs. Bohl's store.

Mrs. Samuel Parliament, who has been very ill with erysipelas for the past week, is improving.

Miss Katherine Gannin and Dr. McLaughlin of Chicago were the guests of Miss Gannin's cousin, Mrs. John Sheahan, on Thanksgiving Day.

Mrs. John F. L. Curtis has returned to Highland Park after a trip east.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Vivian celebrated their tin wedding last Saturday evening with a very jolly informal gathering at their home on Laurel avenue.

Christmas Cards, Booklets, Boxes, Stationery, and Books at Albert Larson's bookseller, stationer and newsdealer.

Mr. and Mrs. George Vetter went to Glencoe on Thanksgiving to spend the day with Mrs. Vetter's mother, Mrs. Arens, and will remain until Sunday.

On Tuesday evening Mr. Freie celebrated his eighty-fourth birthday by giving a little supper to a few intimate friends.

Mrs. D. A. Champlin entertained a number of out-of-town friends on an old-fashioned New England dinner on Thursday.

Mrs. Mulke and Miss Laura Mulke spent Thanksgiving with Mrs. Vant in Deerfield.

Mrs. James H. Shields entertained at bridge whist on Wednesday afternoon.

Dan Cobb went down from Cambridge to see the Yale-Harvard football game on Saturday and spent a few days with Edward Seymour.

The pupils of Miss Kathleen Paine will give a recital in aid of the Lake Bluff Orphanage on December 15th at Miss Pasne's studio on East Central avenue. The programme will consist of songs and recitations in French, and vocal and instrumental music.

Rev. Guy Fitch Phelps, the evangelist from Oregon, is to be at the First United Evangelical church for several weeks. He is spoken of as a most enthusiastic and ardent worker. He will hold services until further notice.

The Northwestern Military Academy opened school on Friday evening after the Thanksgiving recess. A large number of the cadets remained at the school for their holiday, owing to the fact that their homes were at such a distance that it would not be worth while to go there.

Col. and Mrs. H. P. Davidson expect to leave soon for Florida, where they will spend the cold months at "Hollyhurst" and enjoy the beauties of a southern winter. After Christmas Rev. and Mrs. Pfanstiehl expect to join Col. and Mrs. Davidson and Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Spencer.

D. C. Purdy & Sons have the exclusive sale of The Craftsman's Guild Toys in Highland Park. See the large display in their window.

Mrs. John Glass and son Tom returned from Cleveland this week, where they have been visiting with relatives.

The lecture given at the Ebenezer Evangelical church on Wednesday evening by Rev. William A. Schutte, presiding elder of the Chicago district, was a most successful one. His subject, "The Better Knighthood," was one which proved popular with everyone. Rev. Mr. Schutte is a speaker to whom it is a pleasure to listen, and his friends and admirers are many, as was proved by the attendance on Wednesday evening.

Miss Adelaide Inman returned from Ann Arbor on Wednesday to spend Thanksgiving with her grandfather, Mr. D. P. Morrison.

Mrs. L. J. Rice has been on the sick list this week.

Mr. Charles Schneider spent Thanksgiving with relatives in Chicago.

Miss Mabel E. Harlow arrived on Saturday last from Dallas, Texas. She will remain with her aunt, Mrs. George H. Campbell.

Mr. Malcolm Vail, who has been very ill with an abscess in the head, went to the hospital on Saturday last for an operation.

The friends of Miss Emma Evans tendered her a pleasant party as a surprise last Wednesday evening. A jolly evening was spent, as is always the case at parties at Mr. Evans' home.

Mr. W. C. Loyd was bitten this week by a large mastiff belonging to Troop K, 9th U. S. Cavalry. His wound will probably not prove serious.

The Cake and Candy sale given on Saturday last at the Presbyterian church by Mrs. Harold Sweetland's Sunday School class was very well patronized and proved a financial success. The girls cleared about $50, which was for the benefit of the Lake Bluff Orphanage.

Dr. James Watson, Dr. A. R. Sheldon, and Dr. J. F. Beaumont moved this week from their old quarters in the Bergen block to the front suite of rooms in the new Hawkins block. The rooms vacated by them will be occupied by the Canterbury Company, The Craftsman's Guild and The Colonial Club.

Christmas Cards, Booklets, Boxes, Stationery and Books at Albert Larson's, bookseller, stationer and newsdealer.

Culver Shields has been at home from Champaign for a few days to spend Thanksgiving.

Mr. and Mrs. Frey spent Thursday with their daughter in Chicago.

Mrs. A. W. Fletcher's two brothers Mr. Stephen Yates of La Grange and Mr. G. Yates of Sault St. Marie, and their wives, were guests at her home on Thanksgiving Day.

Mrs. Bohl's store presents a very attractive appearance these opening days of the holiday season. The large line of fancy goods and Japanese ware displayed in the window gives a hint of the many seasonable articles on sale.

Mr. and Mrs. William Millard and Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Erskine, spent Thanksgiving with their son and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. George Millard in Chicago.

Mr. William Mason and Mr. L. S. Mason of Chicago were guests at the home of their brother A. O. Mason on Thursday.

LOST:—Lady's watch and pin. Finder please return to Van T. Harrington and receive reward.

The children of Highland Park will again have an opportunity to help in giving Christmas cheer to the needy children.

Miss Julia Morgan will receive the stockings this year. Last year a hundred and fifty filled stockings were sent to the Home of the Friendless Orphanage, and our own destitute neighbors.

Zion's pure Sweetmeats, Gibson's English Fruit Tablets, Home made Catsup, Marmalades and Wild Crab Apple Jelly are specialties at Mrs. Bohl's store.

Revival services are now being conducted in the First Evangelical Church, corner of Green Bay Road and Laurel avenue, by Evangelist Guy Fitch Phelps. Mr. Phelps is a western man and has had large success in Idaho, Oregon and Washington. He is an eloquent and forceful speaker, and presents the truth in original settings. Meetings are held every night except Saturday. Devotions begin at 7:30 and the sermon at 8 p. m.

The Deerfield Township High School is about to issue a new school paper and a staff of editors has been appointed from among the students. Lyle Biddinger is to be Editor-in-chief, Malvin Sweetland, Ass't Editor, Kenneth King, Athletic Editor, Joy Miller, News Editor, Rose Brown, Literary Editor, George Phillips, Manager, William Geer, Photographer, Earle McPherson, Artist, and Percy Prior, Cecile Vail and Dorothy Clark, Reporters. Their paper of a year ago, the "Referee," was well managed and proved very successful. The staff hope to surpass the last class and make this one a better paper if possible.

The new grocery store owned by Johnson Bros. of Evanston is open today in the Goldberg store next to the Post Office. Mr. Harry Morgan is in charge and will be glad to see his old friends at his new stand. The store has been all done over since the recent fire there and the decorating which was done by Casper Rosanna is a great credit to him.